Rainbow Girls Installed Recently

TULELAKE—Pat McFall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl McFall, was installed the evening of September 7 as worthy advisor of the Tulelake Assembly, Order of the Rainbow for Girls, at an open meeting held in the annex of the Tulelake Community Presbyterian church. She succeeds Alice Stonecypher.

The theme chosen by the new worthy advisor, Pat, is "Nature." She was presented with an arm bouquet of white roses by her sister, Shirley.

Alice, retiring worthy advisor, was presented with a jeweled ring by the assembly.

Installing officers were Mrs. Hazel Kallina, Malin, hostess, Alice Stonecypher, installing worthy advisor, Rosalie Wilkinson, installing musician, Shirley McFall, installing marshal, Jean Rajnos, chaplain, and Lou Ann Terry, recorder.

Pat and Peggy Terry sang two numbers, with Mrs. S. F. Terry at the piano.

Installed with the worthy advisor were Gay Mergman, associate worthy advisor, Carol Moore, charity, Helene Fischer, hope, Sally Thomas, faith, Polly Haynes, chaplain, Lucille Ward, drill leader, Donna Mae Peterson, service, and Margaret Ann Takacs, love.

Pearl Moore, religion, Mary Reed, nature, Marcella Analand, immortality, Velma Fox, fidelity, Barbara Schultz, patriotism, Helen Peterson, confidential observer, Bonnie West, outer observer, Peggy Duckett, musician, Gail Hurlburt, choir director, Janice Schroeder, recorder, and Lois Roper, treasurer.

On September 21, Polly Wendle, grand worthy advisor of California, will pay her official visit to the Tulelake and Alburas assemblies here. She will be accompanied by her parents.

In her honor a 6:30 o'clock dinner will be served by the Guild of the church. All Rainbow girls and board members are invited. The local assembly plans a rummage sale for October 8 in the Tulelake grocers office.

Vows Read

At the Klamath Lutheran church August 28 Helen Wright, daughter of Mrs. and Mrs. F. W. Wright, became the bride of Clifford Lacy, son of Mrs. Elzie Lacy of Vancouver, Wash. The vows were read at 2 p.m.

Rev. Irvin Tweest officiated at the altar which was decorated with yellow chrysanthemums and white gladioli.

For the wedding the bride wore a white satin gown styled with a beaded waist. Her finger-tip length veil was held by a tiara of seed pearls, and the veil was edged with lace. Her bouquet was of yellow roses.

Her sister, Delores Wright, who was maid of honor, wore a white floor length gown, and she carried a bouquet of chrysanthemums.

Best man was Jack Marsh. The usher was Jerry Beckam.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Wright wore a shell pink suit with black accessories. Mrs. Lacy wore a black dress with pink trim. She wore black accessories.

After the wedding, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Assisting at the affair were Mrs. C. D. Walters, sister of the bride, who served punch, and Mrs. Shirley Kilgore, who served the cake. Joanne Abner presided at the coffee table and Margaret Bradshaw was in charge of the guest book.

After the reception the couple left for a honeymoon in Portland and Vancouver. They will live in Medford.

Garden Party

The Jolly Neighbor's held its annual potluck dinner Wednesday September 7 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Toyen. The dinner was held in the garden where members were entertained by an accordion solo by Mr. Toyen.

Present for the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Crapo, Mr. and Mrs. E. Reinhart and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Gippo and son, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bedord and children, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Padgett and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Jolly and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. M. Jorde, Mrs. Peter Newman and daughter, Mrs. Pat Hedlund and children, Mrs. Rita Matson and daughter, Mrs. Ruth Lund and children, Mrs. Rose Ongman, Carl Ongman, and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Toyen.

The club plans a Halloween party next month at the home of Mrs. Edward Dottie, 2046 Worden. Mrs. C. E. Padgett and Mrs. E. D. Jolly will be hostesses.

Martha Shops and Shops

Sweetest Music To

... genuine ears is shop talk about new fashions but sweeter still is the behind scenes excitement of unpacking boxes and boxes of deliciously stunning clothes, the kind we found at WHYTAL'S.

Mrs. Whytal has just returned from market and you know what that means . . . the cream of the West coast chosen for Klamath women.

Not until we became Martha did we ever have a chance to shiver in anticipation as irresistible suits, fabulous coats, dreamy formal, personality-plus casuals, bewitching wedding frocks and dramatic cocktail dresses were coming out of tissues . . . it's the thrill of a lifetime.

It's hard to know where to start telling you about this devastating array of fall fashions at WHYTAL'S. Slap-bang in front of us this week (you'll find them in the windows) were dramatic new 2 piece cocktail dresses, a dual purpose style that will do beautifully for afternoon cards or at a tea, then trot off with poise for an evening of dancing. Slip off the smart bolero, don fragile sandals and lo! you are ready. You'll love these pretties in iridescent taffeta, the new length is enchanting . . . they come in so many styles and colors 'twould take half our allotted space to tell you . . . but DO look at the black one in the window, the one with jade coin dots and the knee length peplum . . . it's a honey, or the Burgandy with black overglow . . . it's French inspired.

Or ask to see the superb satin cocktail suits, you'll dance, dine and date in these . . . the smart football shags . . . full length, in melon and beige, the softly detailed sheen gabardine, dressy coats . . . the slim, soft, feminine suits . . . especially the brown and white checked worsted with touches of gold . . . the frothy, maiden-sweet wedding dresses and the beautifully detailed dinner dresses for the larger woman.

You'll think no doubt we have had a brain storm after shopping for Martha copy at WHYTAL'S and we DO need an ice pack . . . you just can't be so excited and come away normal. Mrs. Whytal tells us that every size figure has been remembered. When you take off for that fall shopping stint with a glint in your eye remember that scads of saucy, smart, stunning garments are arriving EVERY day at 901 Main street.

WHYTAL'S.

Here's a winning combination. Before peaches are all gone try it. You'll never be sorry. Scald 2 cups milk in double boiler. Mix together thoroughly—1 cup brown sugar, 1/2 cup flour, 1/4 teaspoon salt. Add slowly while stirring to hot milk. Cook slowly until thick and smooth, about 15 minutes, stirring constantly. Remove from heat and blend in 2 tablespoons butter, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, 1 teaspoon maple flavoring. Cool slightly and pour into baked pie shell. When completely cold cover filling with thick peach slices, scatter generously with coconut and garnish with mounds of sweetened whipped cream into which you have dropped a bit more maple flavoring . . . not too much.

Look What's Happening

In Klamath Falls . . . at RICKY'S . . . where now you are offered a service found usually in only the largest cities . . . today, right now, if you are one of the many, many beautiful hungry folks in our town . . . who has in the deep recesses of your mind a yearning for something DIFFERENT in jewelry, you may drop into RICKY'S with your germ of an idea for a ring, stick pin, tie bar, earrings, lavaliere . . . and see it unfold like the opening of a flower bud, in color, on paper. Maybe that sounds poetic . . . it is . . . a jeweler craftsman works with jewels and precious metals to create beauty as an artist does with paints. You'll find this type of workmanship at RICKY'S . . . where there's no guesswork about jewelry designing . . . each tiny detail is worked out to your specifications . . . you choose your setting, your stones . . . new ones or some you have long cherished. With expert advice, a bit of patience, a bit of cash, you'll be the proud possessor of a jewel that has no "double."

If you really love GENUINE stones, drop into RICKY'S and look and look. This department is one of the most fascinating in the store . . . you'll learn there is a difference between a cushion cut and an emerald cut amethyst . . . that jade is cut in many ways . . . that an opal is sometimes white . . . that diamond crystals in the rough are sometimes yellow, sometimes gray . . . garnets are not always red, sometimes they're green . . . but seldom seen. RICKY'S invites you to shop in this department where all stones are genuine . . . there are no synthetics. Christmas is comin' down the highway and a jewel is a priceless gift. Now is the time to shop leisurely at 700 Main street.

RICKY'S.

Sportswear is coming into its own this fall and once more is rugged instead of frilly. Separates have been developed in all price levels, giving the American woman the chance to create her own costumes by changing sweaters, blouses, skirts, jackets and topsuits. It's an art the modern woman delights in. Versatile jersey will play a large part in successful wardrobes during the coming months and on into spring.

There's That Magic

again from the beauty . . . at CURRIN'S where this week Polly, whom you are hearing over the air told us about Anatole Robbins' PRISMATIC MAKE-UP, the liquid-cream powder base that America's best-dressed women are using today.

We can't all be beauties but we can take advantage of the cosmetics that give an illusion of beauty . . . PRISMATIC MAKE-UP is designed to modify any skin blemish . . . it blends beautifully with EVERY skin because this foundation cream comes tinted for all skin colorings . . . a chart tells you the proper blend for your skin . . . If you're stage or screen minded or want that finished "look" in your next photograph there's a number for you folks too.

Prismatic make-up cream comes in a small tube . . . use only a tiny bit, that is the secret . . . blend evenly with the fingers and you have a lasting, perfect powder base. Polly told us this too, that lots of gals prefer a bit of shine . . . if you're one of those, just omit the powder "topping."

So this is calling all blonds, redheads, brown-ettes and black haired ladies to use Anatole Robbins' Prismatic Make-up from Main and 9th, CURRIN'S.

One of America's most significant contributions to the modern furniture field is the modern headboard for beds, providing shelves or space for lamps, books and other objects. Popularized by the movies, the design ingenuity of California furniture manufacturers has been picked up nationally. A new, unusual, unique and practical design, provides semi-circular spaces into which the rounded mattresses and box-springs fit. The twin beds pivot for ease in making up. The headboard is covered with washable plastic.

Say A Fond Farewell

to your out-moded old broom and replace it with one of the streamlined PERMA-BROOMS from the PINE STREET MARKET. Honestly science is giving us housewives so many time - saving devices that soon we'll have leisure to make ourselves look like Lana Turner.

Now it's a feather light BROOM with electric plastic bristles . . . a durable, washable, super-sweeper that the manufacturers say will outlast 4 ordinary brooms. Ask for a demonstration . . . watch it pick up and HOLD that full length of the bristles . . . lint and hair haven't a leg left to stand on when you go after them with the Perma-Broom. It will hold its shape, the bristles are short . . . clean it in one shake in soapy water . . . it dries "instantly."

THE PINE STREET MARKET has WHISK BROOMS in this same magic plastic . . . we can vouch for these . . . Skipper, our white Persian cat loves the davenport . . . a "quicker" with the Whisk-off . . . no dirt, no hair.

Ask about these new wonder workers when next you dial 3138 or shop in person at 7th and Pine, the

Stop The Music!

Here's the jackpot! Right at LONG'S where you may pick your winner in casual JACKETS. Here's zip and dash for college gals . . . or the stay at home . . . zip in or out warm fleece linings in the water-proof cravantes in natural or scarlet . . . a dual style jacket that will see you through both fall and winter.

For brisk between-class walks you'll need a corduroy from LONG'S . . . these insulated with SNOW-LITE for warmth without weight . . . linings quilted for beauty . . . plaited brown leather buttons on rust, brown or green . . . or perchance a lighter weight unlined corduroy to wear indoors.

LONG'S has flannel jackets boxy, has 'em fitted, pockets high or pockets low, made to belt or not to belt . . . in dashing reds or squirrel soft grays . . . and fleecy jackets that will rate a campus cheer. These casual jackets are thrifty priced . . . see them at 719 Main street.

LONG'S.

Saw a clever idea for inexpensive valances the other day, worked out by a young homemaker who must watch the family purse strings. To add brightness and charm to drab windows covered only by glass curtains she placed deep scalloped valances of buckram to which she had pasted a covering of bright chints. Inexpensive drapery pins were used to hook the valance to the curtain rod. Pillows made of the same material were used on the davenport.

To Keep A Promise

the story from S U L L I V A N ' S is about a new shipment of Eastern Rock Maple furniture, collector's pieces proudly presented by Berkshire from the heart of New England . . . you can't help loving the simplicity, the ruggedness, the comfort and beauty of these priceless items . . . Maple is such a heartwarming wood . . . so beautifully grained. The Berkshire pieces we saw in SULLIVAN'S this week were in two satiny finishes . . . Salem with a "reddish" tinge and charming Pilgrim with undertones of brown.

Quaint Lazy Susan tables in two sizes . . . tavern or Captain's chairs . . . a corner what-not to hang on the wall and a drop-leaf table to place underneath.

We found a precious Cape Cod chair in maple, high-backed, with spring seat . . . upholstered in flower sprigged print with an old-fashioned country flounce . . . and . . . an upholstered maple sofa that will make into a bed . . . and . . . the most stunning lamps with Bristol bases, meaning hand-blown glass, charmingly enameled . . . one with a purple hot-nated fount has a pink blown glass base with hand-painted posies and shade in the same two delicate colors . . . it's simply stunning on a maple table.

You'll just HAVE to see for yourself what we have seen at SULLIVAN'S . . . it would take a volume as big as "Gone With the Wind" to list everything. If you love the unusual in furniture and smart home accessories, you find yourself in a world of beauty when you drop into 413 Main street.
