St. Paul's Scene of Wedding

Wed on her grandparents' 46th wedding anniversary was Dorothy Joyce Elliott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Elliott, who walked down the aisle of St. Paul's Episcopal church Saturday afternoon, September 17 to become the bride of Jack Ronald Jimerson.

Fall flowers, palms and candelabra decorated the church for the vows which were read at 4 o'clock by the Rev. Frederick C. Wissenbach.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Jimerson of Corvallis, formerly of Klamath Falls.

Betty Glidden sang "Because" just before the rites, and during the ceremony sang "The Lord's Prayer." Mrs. Warren Denison played the nuptial music.

The bride's gown was of white slipper satin made in princess style with a long train. Her pearls were a gift of the groom. A Mary Stuart cap held her illusion net veil. She was given in marriage by her father. She carried an arrangement of white orchids and stephanotis tied with white satin ribbons.

Nancy Elliott was her sister's maid of honor and wore a gown of turquoise satin with a matching headband and short mitts. Barbara Chambers and Mrs. Stephen Sharrock, classmates of the bride, were bridesmaids and were attired in gowns of rose satin. Carol Jean Elliott was junior bridesmaid for her sister. Her frock was a copy of the other attendants in turquoise. Each carried a fan-shaped bouquet of pompon chrysanthemums tied with satin ribbon.

Mrs. Elliott wore a blue crepe dress with black accessories for her daughter's wedding, and the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Jimerson, chose a mocha brown gabardine suit with beige accessories. Each had an orchid corsage.

Robert Lillibridge, close friend of the groom, was best man, and ushers were Don O'Neill, Warren Jimerson and Don Jimerson.

A reception was held in the parish hall following the ceremony. The bride and groom cut the first slice of their wedding cake which was later served by Mrs. E. J. Stephens, assisted by Mrs. W. H. Clarke, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Frederick C. Wissenbach.

Mrs. Hugh Stapleton and Georgia Tockey, cousin of the groom, presided at the punch bowls, and Rose Mary Cummins passed the guest book.

For a wedding trip to the coast, Mrs. Jimerson wore a teal blue gabardine suit with an orchid pinned at the shoulder. Her accessories were of brown and beige.

On their return from their honeymoon, the newlyweds will be at home in Corvallis where the groom will continue school.

Mrs. Jimerson was graduated this summer from nurse's training at Good Samaritan hospital, Portland. Her husband is enrolled in the school of forestry at Oregon State college and is a member of Xi Sigma Pi fraternity. This will be his senior year.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. O. R. Clarke of Minneapolis, Minn., grandmother of the bride; Nancy Elliott of Portland; Dr. George L. Clarke of Appleton, Wis., uncle of the bride; Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Clarke of Portland, uncle and aunt of the bride; Kathy and Karen Clarke, cousins of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Sharrock and Barbara Chambers of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Jimerson, parents of the groom, Warren and Don Jimerson, his brother, Mr. and Mrs. Don O'Neill, Louis and Don Staats, all of Corvallis; Roy Svendsen of Ukiah, Calif., and Robert Lillibridge and Lewis Drake of Los Angeles.

Pre-Dance Party

Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Stiles will entertain a large group of friends this evening with a cocktail party in their home at 525 Mesa.

Several guests, who plan to attend the formal dance at Reames will be among the 80 or 90 friends who are expected to call.

NEWS OF THE ENGAGEMENT of Mariann Sexton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sexton, to Robert Kimble III, of Visalia, Calif., was told last Saturday night to members of her sorority in Eugene.

Flourescent Heart Tells Engagement

Mrs. Dulcie Motley entertained a group of young couples last Saturday at her home on Lakeshore drive to announce the engagement of her daughter, Dale, to William C. Tyer, son of Mr. H. F. Tyer of Madras, and Mrs. Ruth Tyer of Portland.

After cocktails were served, the hostess turned on the lights, and a large fluorescent heart revealed the engagement news to the guests gathered around the candle-lit table. An arrow pierced the heart, with the forthcoming wedding month of November.

The prize given to the person drawing the cocktail napkin bearing the number 11, the wedding date, was won by Mary Dixon. A small church also flourished in the dark.

Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Caton, grandparents of the bride-to-be of Medford, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Clik, Mr. and Mrs. L. I. Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Miller, Mr. and Mrs. William Moshofsky, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Owens of Merrill, Mr. and Mrs. John Selby Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Donald Smith, Mr. and Mrs. William Sweet of Medford, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Veatch and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Waggoner.

Sallies... by SALLY

This perfect Indian Summer weather—crisp mornings when woollens are in order for those who venture forth in the eight o'clock sunshine, and then you wish by mid-afternoon you were in cotton.

Canning is just about over, all but a last whip of the kettle for some grape jelly, and clubs are in full swing with more plans for parties, benefits and dances than you can cram into the social calendar.

Everybody has been Shrine circus bound this week, the last performance tonight. When the Bob Waggoner's three-year-old arrived home from the Thursday matinee he was still wide-eyed. Describing the elephants to Grandfather Walt Waggoner, Donnie opened his arms to illustrate size of the beasts and said—"they're this big and a horse at both ends."

Fay Steinseifer Pickett, husband John and little daughter Marcia will call Coquille (county seat of Coos) their home from now on. John is establishing law offices in the coast town.

And in Seattle, the Dick Newmans are established at 7343 26th SW, and Dick is with Boeing Aircraft.

Twylla Ferguson should have a lot to say, and if she's a good scrounger, plenty to show, when she returns home this week-end from a tour of Europe. Practically everybody asked Twylla to "bring home" something—dishes, copper, linens and whatnot, and if she filled the orders her luggage should be crammed. Mrs. Wilfred E. Lamm left this week for San Francisco to meet Twylla and they will drive home today.

Mrs. Charles Cooley of Grants Pass, wife of the district governor of Rotary, visited at dinner Thursday evening at the Willard while Rotary husbands met in the banquet room. Mrs. Delbert Addison, whose husband is Rotary president, and Mrs. Elton Thompson, wife of the vice president of the Klamath Falls club, arranged the party in the gold room. Others at the affair were Mrs. Marshall E. Cornett, Mrs. O. K. Puckett, Mrs. Paul Matthews and Mrs. Warren Bennett. Later the group enjoyed the Shrine circus as guests of Mrs. Cornett.

Spending a week at Lake o' the Woods are Mrs. Roderick Livesley and Mrs. Wendell Webb, both of Salem. They are at the Stoner cabin and will visit here this coming week at the home of Mrs. Martin Ramsey. Mrs. Delbert Addison spent the week with the visitors.

Golden wedding bells are ringing today, Saturday, for Mr. and Mrs. William Kittredge who are celebrating their fiftieth anniversary with an open house at their ranch home on Beaver Marsh. A number of old friends from Klamath Falls are motoring north for the affair and to add their best wishes.

Bride's Brother Gives Her Away

Baskets of chrysanthemums and gladioli provided the setting for the wedding last Sunday of Francis Mae Newell, daughter of Mrs. Ira J. Newell, and Dean Seane, of this city, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Seane of Hammond, Indiana.

Before the ceremony Wilber Elliott sang "O Promise Me" and "Because," accompanied by Marie Obenchain at the organ. Miss Obenchain also played incidental music.

The Rev. F. C. Wissenbach performed the ceremony in St. Paul's Episcopal church.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, wore a gown of white which had a slipper satin top, with a marquisette yolk at her neck. The skirt was of white marquisette with satin applique, ending in a long train. Her veil had a princess crown and was fingertip length.

Marion Newell was maid of honor for her sister, wearing a light green gown, and Bridesmaids Lena Persons and Dixie Bebbler wore mauve marquisette gowns. All were fashioned similar to that of the bride. The attendants carried nosegays made of sweet peas and roses.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Newell chose a blue crepe dress with black accessories, and wore a red rosebud corsage.

Mrs. Seane wore a dress of brown, with brown accessories, with a yellow rosebud corsage.

Best man for the groom was John Ross. Dale Bebbler and Don Schortgen were ushers.

The reception, immediately following the ceremony, was held in the home of the bride's mother on the Lakeside highway. Mrs. Ben Manson and Mrs. Dewey Newell poured. Mrs. L. Stuart cut the cake, and Eugenia Hanson passed the guest book.

The couple left by plane for a honeymoon in San Francisco. For traveling Mrs. Seane wore a green suit with brown accessories, and white carnation corsage. They will spend about a week in the bay area and then be at home on Summers lane.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding included Mrs. O. C. Seane of Indiana; Mrs. Emma Setinger of Illinois, aunt of the groom; Karen Norton, of Phoenix, Ore.; Mrs. N. J. Hansberry of Ocean Park, Calif., grandmother of the bride; Mrs. Josie Kobles, grandmother of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Newell and daughter, Carol Ann, all of Seaside; Miss Helen Townsend of Seaside; Mrs. Walter Hurlbet and Mrs. Catherine Sunderman and daughter, Jean, all of Daly City, Calif.

AT ST. PAUL'S ALTAR are Mr. and Mrs. Dean Seane after their wedding of last Sunday. The couple boarded a plane for San Francisco, where they are spending their honeymoon.

Autumn Flowers Are Tea Decor

Under the chairmanship of Mrs. C. B. Larkin, the American Association of University Women, presented their annual Fall Fellowship tea this afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. A. Humble on Pacific Terrace. Tea hours were from 2:00 until 5:00 p. m.

The beautifully appointed tea table, provided by Mrs. Arthur Reinhart and her committee, was decorated with autumn fruits and leaves, centered by candles. Arrangements of fall flowers were placed about the rooms.

Assisting Mrs. Humble in the receiving line was Orpha Hudson, president of the local branch of AAUW. Mrs. Arthur Reinhart, Mrs. A. V. McVey and Mrs. Ray Hammers.

Presiding at the tea table in hourly shifts were Mrs. F. L. O'Connell, Mrs. Len Burles, Mrs. Don Zumwalt, Mrs. Warren C. Bennett, Mrs. Robert Thompson and Mrs. Vincent Lawler.

A group of familiar songs taken from well known operettas was arranged by Miss Harriet Mueller, accompanied by Miss Ruth Lobaugh.

Mrs. Aaron Hoffman took charge of the guest book, which she designed and made especially for the occasion.

Proceeds of the tea go toward scholarship fund which enables an outstanding college graduate, chosen each year for her ability, to continue her education and work for higher degrees.

ENJOYING THEIR DINNER are the Right Rev. and Mrs. William P. Remington, who were guests of honor at a dinner last Saturday night in the new parish house at St. Paul's. The Remingtons stopped in Klamath Falls en route to San Francisco, where they will attend the 56th general convention of the Protestant Episcopal church in America.
