

Anniversary

WOCUS—A triple celebration took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Marshall, Friday, September 16, when 9 guests were invited to a barbecue chicken dinner on the occasion of the Marshall's seventeenth wedding anniversary. It was also Mrs. Marshall's birthday and the occasion included the celebrating of the birthday anniversary of Aaron Hoffman.

Two birthday cakes were presented to Mrs. Marshall and many gifts were showered upon her. Two long tables, set in T fashion, accommodated the guests, and various shades of fall asters and marigolds were artistically arranged on the tables and around the room.

Those present to compliment the Marshalls were: Sarah Robinson, Zoe Bruce, Adeline Houch, Mr. and Mrs. Pat McFayden and son Micky, and Mrs. J. Allen of Klamath Falls; Leonard Deering of Seattle, Washington, Mr. and Mrs. Don Orrell, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Howard, Aaron Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Forcier, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Howard and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hurd of Wocus.

Bride in White

At a late summer ceremony in the Klamath Lutheran church, Patay Westrom daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Ries became the bride of Richard E. Noble son of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Noble of Henley.

The bride came down the aisle in a white suit with white accessories carrying a purple orchid with stephanotis on a white prayer book. The Rev. Irvin Tweet read the ceremony.

Veima Lee Poole attended the bride and Stanley Master was best man for the groom. Ushers were Harold Campbell and Calvin Noble. After the reception held at the home of the groom's sister Mrs. Leona Stippich the couple motored through Nevada and California.

The newlyweds are now at home in Corvallis, where Mr. Noble attends OBC.

Priscilla Club

The Priscilla club of the Congregational church met Tuesday evening September 20 at the parsonage, 2160 Garden street with Mrs. Harry Jones and Mrs. Godfrey Matthews hostesses.

Fourteen members responded to roll call and following the reading of minutes and treasurer's report discussion of plans for the group during the fall season was held.

Miss Lois Hamer, parish assistant, gave a splendid address on the Lakeside, Ohio Religious Education meetings which she attended in July and also presented the church school literature to the group in a very interesting manner.

At the close of the meeting the hostesses served refreshments and a social hour was enjoyed.

Pinochle Club

Lorene McCollum entertained Ye Olde Pinochle club at her home, 2050 Gary, on September 15. Luncheon was served at 1 p.m. to the regular members and one guest, Margie Waldrip.

Later at cards Dacie Hoover held high score. Lorene McCollum second, Maggie Upton low, and Kathryn Billings received the pinochle award.

VFW Auxiliary

The VFW auxiliary met at the home of Mrs. William Walker September 8th. The committee in charge of the roller skating party held last month at the rollerdom in Klamath Falls, reported that a very enjoyable time was had, and that a large crowd attended. The club planned to have another party sometime in November.

At the close of the meeting Mrs. Walker and Mrs. Dean Marks served refreshments to the following members present: Ruth Smith, Mary Lou Swisher, Georgia Gentry, Patty Duncan, Marie Duncan, Mickey Walker, Glenna Walker, Barbara McKoen, Myrtle Chatburn, Ida May Fleck, Nellie Fleck, Billie Crawford, Margaret Loper, and Luana Ratliff.

The next meeting of the group will be at the home of Georgia Gentry.

AT THE ALTAR of the Klamath Lutheran church stand Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Noble after their wedding of late summer. The couple spent their honeymoon in Nevada and California and are now at home in Corvallis.

Bride Feted

Mrs. Marion Chandler (Gretta M. Van Duker) was feted with showers and dinners recently before her marriage.

The staff of the Klamath Falls library, where the bride has been employed for the past year, entertained her with a supper and shower on the terrace of the home of Miss Miriam Smith.

Mrs. Carl Ewing and Mrs. Ruben Peterson were co-hostesses for a personal shower on Tuesday of last week. Friends complimented Mrs. Chandler at the Peterson home on Ward street.

Pythian Sisters

The Pythian Sisters club met Friday evening September 16 with Della Henniger. There were fifteen members present. Games were played and awards given to Eura Bustin, and Mildred Moses.

Later in the evening a potluck supper was served. The next meeting will be October 21 when Belle Tompkins will entertain.

Senior Circle

Mrs. Godfrey Matthews and Mrs. J. J. Pex were hostesses to the Senior circle of the Congregational Community church at Mrs. Matthews home on Friday September 16. Mrs. Matthews led the devotions and presided over the business meeting, at which time plans were made for a rummage soon to be held.

The project of the United Church Women that of sending clothing materials to women in foreign lands, was also taken under advisement, and the year books were given out.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses and Lois Hamer then spoke about summer camp at Camp Adams, Ore.

Attending during the afternoon were Mrs. Clara Hosham, Mrs. John Marin, Mary Ekestein, Mrs. W. C. Little, Mrs. H. J. McElvey, Mrs. E. L. Mitchell, Mrs. Charles Revell, Mrs. S. R. Berry, Mrs. Richard Pex and son, and Mrs. McWhorter of Salem.

Initiation Held

At the meeting of Prosperity Rebekah lodge held in the IOOF hall Thursday evening, September 15, officers and members of the drill team presented the initiatory ceremonies and Helen Underwood became a member of the lodge.

At the close of the evening, refreshments were served by the committee. Mrs. Frank Hurd was chairman.

MALIN—Jeri Lou Wilson, PFC. WAC, was a recent visitor at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Wilson of Malin.

She was graduated from quartermaster 405 (secretarial course) at Camp Lee, Va. Before leaving for her new assignment she visited with friends in New York City for five days. She is now stationed at the Presidio in San Francisco.

Auxiliary Meet

At the meeting of the auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars held in the library clubroom on Thursday evening September 15, Ruby Bowman presided, and plans were made for the district meeting to be held here on October 23 when the Klamath Falls lodge will be hostess to other lodges of the district.

Bridge Party

BONANZA—Mrs. Claude Becholdt entertained with a bridge party at her home on Wednesday evening. Mrs. Bill Becholdt won the high prize and Mrs. Owen Pepple, second high.

Refreshments were served at midnight to Mrs. Birdie Burke, Mrs. Dewey Horn, Mrs. Bill Becholdt, Mrs. Alva Maxwell, Mrs. Ed Gowen, Mrs. John Horn, Mrs. Owen Pepple and the hostess.

Bridal Shower

Mrs. Bill Reese was honored with a recent bridal shower at the home of Mrs. John Hope. Mrs. A. M. Bjorbeck was co-hostess.

The shower table was cleverly decorated with small paper umbrellas.

Guests included Mrs. Harry Peltz, Mrs. Ruth Hogue, Mrs. Paul Stocker, Mrs. Noel Flynn, Mrs. Otis Metcalf, Mrs. Mel Penhoyer, Mrs. Mel Henry, and Mrs. Elmer Botes.

Couple Wed

Louise Baker, daughter of Mrs. Orville Baker and the late Wallace Baker, became Mrs. Bill Coffey at a recent ceremony in Reno, Nevada.

Sgt. Coffey is the son of Mrs. Pat Hamons, all are of this city. For her wedding Mrs. Coffey chose a pale blue suit with white accessories.

After the ceremony the couple drove to San Rafael, Calif. where they are now living.
