

Donna Clugston Becomes Mrs. Smith In Portland

At a candlelight ceremony in the chapel of the First Methodist church in Portland on September 15, Donna Marie Clugston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey R. Clugston of Malin, became the bride of Jerome G. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney B. Smith of Seaside.

Before the ceremony Mrs. Steven Sharrock Jr. of Portland played the traditional wedding marches and incidental music; and Betty Olden of Klamath Falls sang "Because," "Through the Years," and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride walked down the aisle clad in a grey crepe dressmaker suit with grey accessories, carrying a bouquet of American Beauty roses.

Olga Jane Dreps of White Salmon, Wash., was the bride's only attendant. She carried a bouquet of Tallman roses and white bouvardia with her rust suit and brown accessories.

Best man for the groom was Byron D. Krog, of Eugene, and Clarence Palmateer of Seaside was usher.

A reception was held in the church parlors immediately following the ceremony. Phyllis Crawford of Klamath Falls cut the cake and Mrs. Lillian Morrison of Portland poured. Shirley Crawford of Klamath Falls, and Florence Carlson of Portland served.

Mrs. Arilla Graham, Gresham, passed the brides book.

The newlyweds are now at home in Corvallis where the groom is student at Oregon State college.

The bride was a 1949 graduate of Good Samaritan Hospital school of nursing in Portland.
