U. S. Students Freed From Russ Dungeon

HAMBURG, Germany, Sept. 29 (AP)—Two American students said today Russian authorities held them prisoners in a "dungeon" for two months because they thought they were spies. Authorities brought the two youths to Hamburg in the British zone this afternoon after obtaining their release in Magdeburg. Warren Oelmer Jr., 20, Oyster Bay, N.Y., was reunited with his father in Hamburg. The other youth is Peter Sellers, 19, Radnor, Pa. The tall and lanky boys were pale apparently from long confinement, and said they could "stand a good meal."

Oelmer explained that he and Sellers thought they could bicycle to Berlin through the Soviet zone "and we did not realize how serious this was."

Noted physician called Alexander of Tralles taught that prevention of disease was an important part of a physician's work.

Although Colorado began its settlement with the gold rush, it has been predominantly an agricultural state for many years.
