Boy's Father Sues Driver Who Hit Cycle

A damage suit for $15,977.65 has been filed with the circuit clerk here in connection with an automobile-bicycle accident north of Klamath Falls last July 25.

The suit was brought by William Vandervort, father of 14-year-old Stewart Wayne Vandervort who was injured when his bicycle was struck by a car operated by Kenneth William McGee.

In the suit McGee is accused of reckless driving and failing to operate his car on the right side of the highway. The accident occurred on highway 97.

The damages asked are $667.65 for hospital and medical expenses resulting from the accident when the boy was hospitalized, and $15,969 punitive damages. Attorneys Mark Simons and A. W. Schupp are representing the plaintiffs.

CLAIMS FRAME-UP—Swathed in expensive furs, Actress Lila Leeds appears in the district attorney's office in Los Angeles to deny an ex-actor's agents' charge that she was part of a prostitute extortion ring. Miss Leeds also had something to say about Actor Robert Mitchum's arrest on marijuana charges. She charges he was framed and indicated to police authorities that Vicki Evans was a police spy who lured Mitchum and herself into the trap that resulted in 50 days in jail for both of them.

SERVE REAL Italian CHICKEN TETRAZZINI

AN ITALIAN Chef's Special THAT'S A CINCH TO PREPARE!

Here's Chef Merlino's favorite recipe—

1 stewing chicken	1 green pepper, cut fine
2 tsp. oil	1 c. chopped pimientos
1/4 cup onion	1 lb. cheese, grated
1/4 cup garlic	1 lb. spaghetti
2 slices bacon, sliced	2 cups crushed peas
1 lg. onion, chopped	1 c. shredded almonds

Cut chicken, cover with water, salt and pepper, cook thoroughly. Remove meat from bones, cut in pieces. Cook spaghetti in boiling chicken broth till tender. Drain, save broth. In large kettle, fry bacon, onion, green pepper, brown lightly. Add pimientos, cheese, mushrooms, peas, almonds—then add chicken and spaghetti. Heat thoroughly using chicken broth to moisten as needed. Serve 12. The recipe may be cut in half to serve 6.
