

Many Attend Rites Held In Medford

In a setting of gladioli and laurel branches, Miss Nancy Newbury became Mrs. James Monroe Denison on Saturday, September 18, in the First Presbyterian church of Medford.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don R. Newbury of Medford, and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Jones of Klamath Falls. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Denison of this city.

Before the ceremony, read by the Rev. Henry W. Hansen, Mrs. Jean McAllister sang "At Dawning," "God Bless This House," and "The Lord's Prayer" at the close. Mr. Newbury gave his daughter in marriage.

The bride's gown was of traditional white satin, styled with a bustle, and long train, with a sweetheart neckline, embroidered in seed pearls.

Her full veil was of illusion and was held in place by a Dutch lace cap. Her jewelry included her gift from the groom, a necklace and earrings. She carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis, centered with a white orchid corsage.

Miss Marilyn Winetrot, sorority

sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a period gown of emerald green satin, and carried copper pompon chrysanthemums and matching headdress.

The bridesmaids included Eleanor McCabe, Marianne Peri, Cynthia Jackson, Ann Durno, Janice Walker, and Peg Barriek, who wore gold colored period dresses and carried arm bouquets of bronze chrysanthemums with headresses of matching blossoms.

Little Suzanne Gray was flower girl and Sharon Hogan and Betty White were taper lighters. All wore taffeta dresses and matching flowers.

Charles Denison of Klamath Falls, brother of the groom, was best man, and George Ray, Bill Mead, Harlan Riggs, and Don Erickson, all of Klamath Falls; Croxton Delzell of Portland, Jim Clabby and Kenneth Newbury of Medford, were ushers.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Newbury chose a gown of rose jewel-toned lace, with matching hat and dachia-brown accessories. Her corsage was of copper Fuji chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Denison wore a pearl grey gown with pink hat and accessories, with an orchid corsage.

At the reception, held at the Rogue Valley Country club, the bride's table was centered with the wedding cake, encircled by garlands, with tall antique silver candelabra at either end. The punch table was decorated with trailing ivy, and chrysanthemums, with crystal candelabra and bowls.

Mrs. McAllister sang for the reception, accompanied by Mrs. Otto Frohnmayer, who gave piano numbers.

Assisting with the reception were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Newbury, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Delzell, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Mehaffey, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Boyle, Cary Delzell, Mary Pat, Rosanne and Elizabeth Newbury, Betty Drummond, and Jacqueline Schmidt.

The couple spent their wedding trip in Carmel, Calif., and are now at home in Corvallis, where the groom is a senior at Oregon State college.

Out of town guests included Mrs. Nancy M. White of Lodi, Calif., Mrs. Charles L. Roberts of Klamath Falls, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Delzell Sr. of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Delzell, daughter Cary and son Croxton of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Newbury and daughters, Mary Pat, Rosanne, and Nancy Elizabeth of Walnut Creek, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Mehaffey of Antioch, Calif.

STATE REGENT, Mrs. Archie McKeown of Hood River, Oregon, paid an official visit to the membership of Eulalona chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, last Saturday night. Mrs. McKeown is seated, and left is Mrs. Harry C. Dickerson, chapter regent, with Mrs. Irene Foster, state historian and past regent, looking on.

Color Films Shown

Standard Oil films in technicolor will be shown at the October 3 meeting of the Garden club in the Library auditorium. Mrs. Fred Karison and Mrs. Joe Hicks will also display winter and spring bulbs. Anyone interested in flowers and gardens is invited to attend.

State Regent Visits Local DAR Chapter

Mrs. Archie W. McKeown, Hood River, state regent of the Oregon Society, Daughters of the American Revolution, was honored Saturday evening with a buffet dinner served in the spacious and colorful basement of the home of Mrs. M. E. Cooper, 1962 Melrose street. The occasion was the official visit of the state regent to Eulalona chapter.

Mrs. McKeown talked to the Daughters about her trip to Washington, D. C., in April, to attend the National Congress, also outlined briefly the accomplishments and plans of the different committees of the national and state organization. Mrs. McKeown has long been a friend of the Indians of the middle Columbia section, especially the Cello tribes. At the close of her term as state regent, next April, she expects to do considerable research into Indian affairs at the national capital.

As is quite generally known, Mrs. McKeown is the author of the book, "The Trail Led North," which came out last year. Now she has another book ready for publication by the Macmillan Company, New York. Both books are about her uncle, Mont Hawthorne, who lives on an adjoining ranch in Hood River. Mrs. McKeown and her husband, who accompanied her, left about 4 o'clock Sunday morning for Crescent City where, at 11 o'clock, a 500-acre tract of primeval sequoia trees in Northern California was to be dedicated.

The National Society, Daughters of the American Revolution, raised the $30,000 to pay for the tract. The tribute grove will honor men and women who served in the nation's armed forces during World War II. The purchase of this sequoia grove is the first of the Daughters' Pacific coast conservation projects to be completed. Dedication ceremonies took place near the Hiouchi bridge over the Smith river. State and national officers attended.

Mrs. Harry Dickerson, chapter regent, presided at the Saturday dinner and introduced the honored guest. In charge of the delicious

These are the days of decision for housewives. They can either go hunting and "rough it" with their husbands (if invited), or stay home alone with the kids while the men go off to the woods.

Two of the more hardy wives are Mrs. Melvin Miller and Mrs. Lloyd Norseth, who left today with their husbands to hunt near Lakeview. The party will return Monday night.

Mrs. F. W. Bertram left Friday evening for her home in Oakland, California, after visiting in Klamath Falls, in Marshfield and in Tacoma, Wash. She has been away from home since mid-August and while here has been a guest at the Willard hotel, and also visiting her son and family, the Lawrence Bertrams of Portland street. She expects to return for the holidays.

The Pelican Party Room was alive last Saturday night with employees of the Reed Tractor and Equipment company and their families who gathered to bid farewell to Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Reed. Dancing, a buffet supper and gift giving were highlights of the evening. The group, including several from the Medford firm, presented Mr. Reed with a typewriter, and Mrs. Reed with an alligator bag.

Mrs. A. R. Hood and daughter Barbara arrived yesterday from Redding, where they are now living, and are busy making preparations for Barbara's wedding tomorrow. She is staying with the P. C. Wissnabachs.

A party is on the schedule for tonight, before the wedding rehearsal, at the Pelican party room.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Gallagher are enjoying a visit with their two daughters this month. Mrs. Frank Sommerkamp, (Rose Gallagher) and her children, Mark and Kathleen, arrived from Washington, D. C., and Mrs. Leon Wallert (Mary Kay Gallagher) came from Eureka, Calif. They plan to spend a month here with their parents.

Five of Broadway's top seasonal plays were crowded into a quick visit to New York by John and Clara Houston who returned Tuesday from a 15-day journey east. The Houstons were fortunate in getting tickets for South Pacific, Mr. Roberts, Death of a Salesman, Where's Charley, and As the Girls Go and probably have seen more of the '49 hits than most New Yorkers.

Flying east, and return by the luxury Stratocruiser, the Klamath couple took time out to visit in Minneapolis with Clara's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Haas. They also included the Washington-University of Minnesota game while in Minneapolis which made the trip even more exciting.

"Them Was the Days" is eagerly being awaited by fans who have followed Martha Ferguson McKeown's literary success with a great deal of interest. Mrs. McKeown, as state regent of Daughters of the American Revolution, was here last week-end on an official visit to Eulalona chapter, and discussed her new book with old friends. It is a sequel to that charmer, "Trail Led North" which tells the story of Mrs. McKeown's Uncle Mort.

A trilogy is in the making, and Mrs. McKeown is writing the threesome backwards, all of course dealing with Uncle Mort. She spent considerable time in Virginia this summer and also in the middle west, obtaining material for her story which is laid in the 1865-63 period. Archie McKeown was chauffeur for his wife on this visit and from here they left early Sunday morning for Crescent City for dedication of Tribute Grove by the DAR.

A wonderful trip is planned through Canada and the United States by Mr. and Mrs. Tom Watters, Mrs. Charles Moore, and Helen Moore. They left Wednesday, and will go first to Montreal, on to New Hampshire, where they will be guests of Mrs. Watter's mother, Mrs. Edgar H. Mason, a frequent visitor in Klamath Falls, and Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Campbell.

They will then travel to New York, returning by way of the middle west, stopping in Nebraska to see friends. The group is expected back around the last of this month.

After extensive research and confusion, it has been definitely established that the baby born to Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hunt of Rocky Point is a girl. Office records at the Klamath Valley hospital maintained that the new arrival was a boy, while the nurse in charge disagreed. The baby is the fourth girl for the Hunts, (they have one boy) and they have named her Suzanne Ingrid.

October Date

Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Hunt, 70 Pine, announced the forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Constance June, to Irvin Lee Whitl, son of Mrs. Bernis L. Whitl, 408 Market.

The couple plan to be married on Sunday, October 30. The Methodist church has been chosen by the bride-elect for the scene of the wedding.

Jean Hilton, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Hilton will be maid of honor for Connie, and Ruth Landry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Landry will be bridesmaid.

Soft Lights, Fall Colors Are Decor

A special ceremony of Zuleima Temple number 13, Daughters of the Nile, was held in Roseburg Saturday, September 24. The hall was decorated with fall colors and soft lights.

Initiation of candidates, including Evelyn Gilbert and Lucille Ruggles of Klamath Falls was performed, and the banquet later, was in Kennedy's Dutch Mill.

Those attending from this city included Mrs. Loren L. Palmerton, Mrs. Fred Coffey, Mrs. Jack Schulze, Mrs. Leo N. Huls, Mrs. C. A. Lundy, and Mrs. T. J. O'Hara.

Completing the affair was a tea honoring Queen May Moss, which was held Sunday in the Masonic building from one until three o'clock.

There are 137,000 clergymen, about 194 to every 100,000 persons, in the United States.

Balkan Program Planned For Library Club

A lively and colorful program is scheduled for the Klamath Women's Library club on October 10. A Balkan atmosphere will prevail when the members are entertained by dancing and songs rendered by Mr. and Mrs. Louis Taucher, dressed in their native Yugo-Slavian costumes.

Principal speaker of the afternoon will be Mrs. Anne Uherek, a native of Vienna, Austria, whose subject will be "Better Human Relationship Through Art Education." Mrs. Uherek is well-qualified to speak on this subject, having had high school and college education in California at Stockton and at the College of the Pacific and Mills college. She also studied dancing in Dresden, Rome and Vienna.

Library club memberships are still available to all women in the basin for a very small fee. Monthly cultural meetings and social times are held in the city library building on the second Monday of every month, and philanthropic work with children of this area is sponsored with funds obtained through a benefit bridge-tea held in the spring.

Mrs. Dean Osborn is president and will be glad to talk to anyone interested in joining the organization.

Luncheon

In commemoration of Democratic Women's Day the Klamath County Democratic Women's organization met at the home of Mrs. Paul Buck in Wocus for a potluck luncheon.

Members and guests who attended Mrs. Gertrude Goodfellow of Salem, Mrs. A. F. Condry, Mrs. Frank Sexton, Mrs. Frank Meads, Mrs. A. L. Kerbow, Mrs. David Thomas, Mrs. Marie Edwards, Mrs. John Holzgang, Mrs. Lesueur, Mrs. Winkleman, Mrs. Rachel Fair, Mrs. Brower, Mrs. Katherine McDonald, Mrs. Eva Morey, Mrs. Jerome Ferrell, Mrs. Ralph La Londe, Mrs. Dora Goddard and the hostess, Mrs. Paul Buck.

As a highlight Mrs. Condry reported on the Western states democratic meeting in San Francisco. She said the meeting drew a much greater number of persons than was anticipated. The women's division had several interesting speakers on the agenda. India Edwards, national vice-chairman and president of the women's division, Judge Besone, congresswoman from Utah and Helen Gahagen Douglas, congresswoman from California gave messages of interest.

At three o'clock the hostess tuned in President Truman's message from Washington on the radio.

The proceeds from the 'donkey banks' distributed to the women were turned in and the quota met for the organization, which will be forwarded to Washington D. C.

Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Monteith, 358 Hillside this week announced the engagement of their daughter, Carol Ann, to Jack Wynant, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wynant of Merrill.

Carol Ann graduated from Klamath Union high school in the class of 1947, then attended the University of Oregon for one year, where she was a member of Alpha Chi Omega sorority.

The couple plans to be married next spring.

Corsage Study

Mrs. H. S. Stone instructed members of the Evergreen Garden club on the making of corsages when the club met Monday evening, September 26 in the Altamont junior high school.

The next meeting will be held Tuesday night, October 25 when a Standard Oil film, "Mysteries of Plant Life" will be shown. Husbanus are invited. If members plan to take guests they are asked to call Mrs. Vivian Fisher, hostess chairman at 8970.
