

Hunsaker Twin Is Married In Newberg

The First Methodist church in Newberg was the setting for the wedding of Carol Ann Diamond and L. Donald Hunsaker on Sunday, September 11.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester A. Diamond of Portland, and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ray L. Hunsaker of this city.

Dr. Daniel H. Schulze read the ceremony in the church decorated with fall flowers, green ribbon and white tapers.

The bride's gown was of white marquette with a lace collar and bodice. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a Juliet cap, and she carried a white Bible decorated with gray of daisies and ribbon.

Mrs. Tinkham G. Haught was matron of honor for her sister. She wore a rust taffeta skirt with white high-collared blouse.

Mrs. Norman Gould and Miss Belle A. Jackson were bridesmaids, and wore costumes similar to that of the matron of honor.

R. Dale Hunsaker, twin brother of the bridegroom, was best man, and ushers were Lee Hunsaker, and Hunsaker, John A. Diamond, and Loren Hughes.

After the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors.

Mrs. Lee Hunsaker, Mrs. Carl Gray, Mrs. Richard P. Strahl, and Mrs. Lancaster Pollard poured. Miss Jay Bushnell cut the wedding cake, assisted by Miss Polly Pollock, Miss Pat Stanton, and Miss Rosie Wilhoit.

Barbara Diamond, niece of the bride carried guest book.

Her going away Mrs. Hunsaker chose a dark cinnamon suit with white accessories and corsage.

The couple traveled in California and Washington and are now at home in Seattle. Mr. and Mrs. Hunsaker are graduates of Willamette university and plan to teach this year.

Guests in Newberg for the occasion included Mrs. Ferra Lindsay, grandmother of the groom, Mrs. Alice Herberberger and son Ronnie, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Angel, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hunsaker, Loren Hughes, Clark Martin and Frank Driscoll, all of Klamath Falls, and Mrs. and Mrs. Clarence E. Reich of Eugene.

Dinner Dance

The Reserve Officers gathered at the Lee Club on September 23, for a dinner dance.

Dr. Daniel H. Schulze was chairman and master of ceremonies for the affair.

The social award of a pair of lamps was won by Capt. E. M. Harris of Chiloquin.

Incoming and outgoing officers of the Reserve Officers association and Reserve Officers association Ladies were introduced.

A farewell ceremony for Capt. and Mrs. Roy E. Fuhkala, who are moving to Rockland, Calif. completed the evening.

Bridal Shower

Mrs. John Baley of Tulelake was honored recently with a bridal shower, given for her by Mrs. J. H. Slezak, Mrs. Bob Henry, Mrs. Stan Bradbury, Mrs. Les Unrien and Tom Frey, and Mrs. Joe Slezak in the Tulelake annex.

The gift table was decorated with sweet peas, phlox, and white candles.

A crossing game was played, and Miss Jody Stacy, Mrs. Russell McFall, and Mrs. Lester Wilson won the prizes.

After the bride opened her gifts, refreshments were served to the 50 guests. Many who were unable to attend sent gifts.

Date Chosen

October 16 is the date chosen by Nova Jean Workman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Workman, of Altamont drive, to wed Douglas Gaines, of Oakland.

Several friends gathered at the Workman home last Saturday night to hear the engagement news.

Miss Workman graduated from Klamath Union high school and is now working in Medford. Mr. Gaines is employed by KMED in Medford where they will make their home after the wedding.

Benefit Bridge

A benefit card party will be sponsored by St. Paul's guild on Wednesday, October 12, at eight o'clock in the evening in the Parish house.

Mrs. Bert Vaagen is in charge of the affair, assisted by Mr. James Clark, Mrs. Elizabeth Ransberg, Mrs. Scotty Lakoma, Mrs. Alvin Culber, Mrs. W. A. Barron, and Miss Lillian Hynd.

Mrs. Vaagen asks that those wishing reservations to call 9813 as soon as possible.

Engagement Told

The engagement and forthcoming marriage of Eleanor Bellingham was announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Bellingham, 5423 Sargeant.

Miss Bellingham will wed William Dickson Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. William Dickson of Los Angeles on October 8 in San Francisco.

The bride-to-be is 1939 graduate of Klamath Union high school. She later attended the University of Seattle.

Early Days Talk

Outstanding characters of the early days in the Klamath country was the subject of Mrs. Ida Mommery Odell's talk at the Quota club dinner meeting Monday night.

Members thoroughly enjoyed her stories of personalities prominent in the settling of the Klamath basin and Tulelake region.

Theme of the evening's program was "Back to School" and the clever table decorations consisted of school books, lunch pails, and big red apples, while the placecards were made to represent slates, with each member's name in chalk.

Blanche Petroff and Juanita Nellis were responsible for the effective decorations. The meeting was held in the Party Room of the Pelican Grill.

Friendly Circle

Dacie Hoover entertained the Friendly circle for luncheon on Thursday September 22, and she was assisted by Lorene McCollum. There were twelve members present and four guests, Grace Beck, Agnace Love, Mrs. McWhorter of Salem, and Marjorie Waldrip.

Money from the white elephant project was collected and it was decided to turn it over to the Polio fund rather than hold it in the treasury. The next meeting will be October 6 when Maggie Upton will be the hostess.

to the ladies!

By Louise Reinhart

Klamath Falls, October 1 - November is next month. Thanksgiving is next month. Then in a twinkling Christmas will be upon us.

There is no other time of year when it is more thrilling to be upon a beautiful table than during these Fall and holiday months. And there is no more satisfying gift, both for the giver and the receiver, than one combining beauty with utility, namely, fine china.

Fine china need not be expensive. Top quality may be had with very simple decor, for less than ten dollars a place setting, at Reinharts, 519 Main. The more expensive patterns are more elaborately adorned with floral or gold work, but the basic ingredients in the clays are the same.

We are very proud of our twenty-five or more patterns in fine, top quality china, which we offer for your selection by the individual piece, by the place setting, or by the whole set. We are prepared to help you coordinate your glassware and silver patterns with your china for a beautiful and harmonious table, which will be a joy to behold and source of pride for the whole family.

We invite you to use our lay-away service if you wish, and urge you to make your selection early, so that we may register your choice in our big book, for the convenience of those who want to help add pieces to your set.

Just a reminder, too, that it is time to order your personalized Christmas cards, and get some more S. & H. Green Stamps too.
