KUHS Studies Homemaking Classes Idea

Supt. A. L. Gralapp and Harold A. Toole, director of vocational education, announce a meeting Monday, 2:30 p. m., for Klamath Falls homemakers at Klamath Union high school, room 203, to assist with the planning of adult classes in clothing, child care, home furnishings and other homemaking areas.

If sufficient interest is shown, a homemaking program for adults will be organized by Klamath Union high school district No. 2 in cooperation with the department of vocational education, Salem. Any interested person in Klamath Falls or nearby vicinity is urged to attend this meeting. Phone 7595 for information.

Lake to Organize Chest Campaign

LAKEVIEW—A meeting to organize the Lake County Community Chest for its coming drive will be held at Hotel Lakeview next Monday at 4 p. m. Representatives of the organizations which participate in the Chest funds and a number of other leaders will be present.

A nucleus group met at the hotel Wednesday night to plan the October 10 meeting and to confer with H. C. Johnson of Portland, executive director of the Oregon state Chest.

Complete reorganization of the local Chest will be undertaken. Bert K. Snyder, county chairman of the present Chest, said that it is hoped the coming funds drive can be completed by Armistice Day.

Steers Killed; Shooter Sought

PRINEVILLE, Oct. 7 (AP)—A rifleman who killed three choice Angus steers was being sought in central Oregon today.

Ballistics tests were asked, after bullets were taken from the steers on Frank Holub's cattle ranch. They were shot last week-end.

Edgar Albert, state department of agriculture investigator, said the shooting appeared deliberate, not that of a hunter who mistook the animals for deer.

Sam Bread, 37, became the oldest player ever to win the PGA links championship when he copped the crown this year.

Lost Hunter Found Safe

Chris Abrams, 75-year-old hunter reported missing in the Tamarack Plains area near Tennant, was located early yesterday afternoon in a hunter's camp where he had sought shelter the night before. Abrams failed to return to camp to join his companion, Russell Tolin who lives near Montague on the Klamath river. The sheriff's office was alerted at Yreka and a search party formed. Abrams lives on Beaver creek on the Klamath river.

Smith Addresses Underwriters

Myron E. Smith, Oregon director of the State Farm Life Insurance company spoke on "The Magic of Life Insurance" at the October meeting of the Life Underwriters association of the Klamath basin held Wednesday noon at the Willard hotel.

Smith used a box consisting of the four pages of a life insurance contract, from which he pulled material things to demonstrate what life insurance is doing for the people of the country.

James Brown, principal of KUHS, discussed the forthcoming essay contest to be held by the association at the high school.
