

News PTA Notes

Malin

At a meeting held Monday evening, October 3, in Malin high school, Mrs. T. A. DeMerritt, chairman of the Malin Parents and Patrons club, appointed the following committee chairmen for the school carnival to be held in the high school gym November 18.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Toffel, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Stastny and Vac Kalina, bingo; Mrs. George Smalley and Mrs. Teresa McComb, fish pond; Mrs. Vac Kalina and Mrs. John Freitag, movies; Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Weatherly, dart game; William Rajnus, country store; Mrs. Jerry Lyons and Mrs. Harold Freeman, candy and novelties; Max Marvin, turkey and Thanksgiving dinner; James Conroy, baseball skill; Mrs. Dick Henzel, punch; Mrs. William Rajnus and Mrs. Jerry Hahnus, hot dogs and coffee; Mrs. Charles Dobry and Mrs. Louis Kalina, cake, pie, ice cream and coffee; A. E. Street and D. L. Miller, concession ticket sales.

Mr. Charles, band instructor, will have charge of the evening's music. This year there will be a queen to reign over the carnival. One girl will be chosen from each grade in the junior and senior high school classes. One girl will be selected in a novel way to be a carnival queen for the night of November 18.

Program chairman, Mrs. Emil Toffel and Mrs. Ed Stastny and their committee, have made plans to have Dr. Wayne Wilber, president of Southern Oregon college at Ashland, to be the speaker for the Parents and Patrons meeting. Mrs. Clark, music instructor, will have a very interesting musical program of South America planned. Dr. Wells has recently returned from South America and his talk will be on that country.

The next Parents-Patrons meeting will be Tuesday, October 18, at 8 p. m. in the high school. A cordial invitation is extended to every interested person to attend.

Roosevelt

All parents and children of Roosevelt school and friends from the whole community are invited to the annual PTA carnival to be held at the school at 7 p. m., Thursday, October 13. Mrs. C. J. Cox, chairman for the event, states that the concessions are numerous and promise lots of fun for all — games, refreshments, prizes, movies, a prize fight, a hobby show and even a magician will fill out the evening's program. Funds derived will be used for the work of the PTA.

Chairmen of the various committees are Mrs. George Filzcraft and Mrs. Bishop, second grade; Mrs. Louis Soukup, fifth grade; Mrs. Sam Musher and Mrs. Darrell Miller, first grade; Mrs. William Patterson and Mrs. Fred Parley, third grade; Mrs. George Myers and Mrs. Frank Bogate, fourth grade; Mrs. H. J. Ellis and Mrs. Lane Warren, seventh grade; Mrs. Bob Porter, Mrs. George Clark, Mrs. Merle Swanson and Darrell Potter.

Parents and Patrons
"How Much Do Manners Mean" will be the program for the next meeting of the Parents and Patrons club of KUHHS, to be held Wednesday afternoon, October 12, at 3 o'clock in the school auditorium.

Mrs. Frank Howard, dean of girls, will preside as chairman, following a short business meeting to be in charge of Mrs. E. A. Geary, president. Mrs. Howard will introduce three student speakers, Wayne Carothers, president of the student body, Rosemary Murray, president of Pep Peppers, and Jean Mahan, president of the Girls League. It is these three who will carry out the theme of the program topic.

A short board meeting has been called by Mrs. Geary for 2:30, preceding the regular meeting, and tea will be served at the close of the afternoon.

All parents are invited, but inasmuch as this is an afternoon affair, mothers of KUHHS students are especially urged to attend.

Bonanza

The Bonanza PTA gave a party at the gymnasium September 26 in honor of the teachers.

The executive committee, Esther Brown, Kathy Blackman, Grace Dearborn, Norma Haskins and Billie Colwell, was hostess group. Joan Marchant, Beatrice DeVaul and Helen Derry were in charge of refreshments.

Each person registered and received a leaf in a fall color with the individual's name written on it. Special prize of the evening went to Ernest Puddy. A contest which was greatly enjoyed was a hat-making game in which husbands made hats from a table of materials, and their wives modeled the creations. Merton Whipple won the prize. His hat, modeled by Mrs. Whipple, was made from a colander, teething ring, Christmas tree ornaments and ribbon.

In another contest in which a husband's team and wives' team competed, the husbands won.

Darlene Blackman of Henley entertained with two songs, "Look for the Silver Lining" and "You're Breaking My Heart." She was accompanied by Irene Bement.

Ninety persons were present including the teachers, H. C. Sharpe, principal, Sarah Branchaud, Merton Whipple, John Miracle, Dorothy Yeneks, Barbara Miracle, Sarah Ross, Olive Fraley, Jack Yeneks, Lola Horn, Lenore Sparks, Joanna Givan, Paul Reimann and Tommy Blackman.

Refreshments were served following the program, and a social hour was enjoyed.

The next regular PTA meeting will be held at 8 p. m., October 24 at the high school. A panel discussion on "What Makes a Good Citizen" is planned, and anyone interested is cordially invited.

Tulelake

Teachers of all Tulelake community schools, were honored the evening of September 23 at a reception sponsored by the PTA of the grade school. The reception held in the annex of the Tulelake Presbyterian church took the place of the September meeting of the elementary PTA. The high school PTA and other community organizations assisted.

Mrs. Rose Ragland, co-program chairman with Mrs. Burris Short, gave the welcome to the teachers and introduced Tulelake's first PTA president, Mrs. C. C. Coulson.

Mrs. Coulson awarded past president pins to Mrs. A. E. Ryckman, past president of the high school PTA and to Mrs. Frank Jamesson, grade school PTA.

Incoming presidents of the high school group, Mrs. Leonard Meshke and Mrs. E. L. Coyner of the grade school were introduced. Principals and teachers of all schools, pastors and their wives of all Tulelake churches and other guests were introduced.

Theme for the year's programs planned by the elementary PTA is "Influences outside the home that are available if used intelligently."

Mrs. Leonard Meshke led community singing for the program hour. The Shultz sisters, Barbara, Joan and Mary Louise, presented vocal and instrumental numbers on the piano, violin and accordion.

The Tulelake Barber Shop quartet, Marvin Thomas, Arthur Martin,

Walter Meshke and Olney Rudd sang.

Assisting with refreshments were Mrs. Clayton Sweasey, general chairman, Mrs. Doug Thomas, Mrs. I. Spomer, Mrs. Gilbert Osborne, grade school PTA; Mrs. Ed Osborne, Mrs. Edgar Duckett and Mrs. Otis Roper, high school PTA.

Assisting with the reception were Mrs. Frank Howard, Mrs. Ronald Ward, Mrs. George Fischer, Presbyterian church; Mrs. Raymond Baker, Holy Cross church; Mrs. Lynn Kehler, Latter Day Saints and Mrs. Glen Vernon, Church of Christ.

Altamont

Altamont PTA will meet Tuesday, October 11 at 2 p. m. in the junior high gym. An interesting program is indicated with a hobby show and cooked food sale being featured.

All those who care to enter an exhibit in the hobby show are urged to call Mrs. Karl Kujala, 7654. Those who wish to contribute homemade candy, cookies, pie or cake, are asked to bring them to the meeting.

The study-group will meet preceding the regular meeting.

Altamont PTA would like to take this opportunity to introduce the teachers of the elementary and junior high schools.

Elementary, first grade, Mrs. Edna M. Yoxall, Mrs. June M. Donelson, Mrs. Neil Stewart, Veneta Hunter; second grade, Mrs. Lucile Pappentun, Mrs. Roberta Miller, Mrs. Constance V. Erheart; third, Mrs. Joseph Penrod, Mrs. Gertrude P. Brannon, Mrs. Dorothy V. Glenn; music teacher, Mrs. Lucille Davison.

Porter, Mrs. Irma Quirk, Mrs. Elsie Burton, Viva Lasky; seventh, Mrs. Beulah Elliott, Bob Longueville, Mrs. Verna Dean Long, Mrs. Mary Williams; eighth, Edna Bloom, Mrs. Verna Tenney, Mrs. Christine Murray, Mrs. Leola Thompson, music teacher, Mrs. Violette Moore; home economics, Mrs. Jack Wright; shop, Bob Longueville; boys' gym, Mrs. Verna-Dean Long; boys' gym, E. Brower; band and science, E. Payzant; school nurse, Muriel Palmer.

All parents who have not met their children's teachers are invited to attend PTA meetings and become acquainted.

Mills

Mills PTA will meet in the auditorium at 2 p. m., Wednesday, October 12. Mothers are requested to register in their child's home room between 1 and 2 p. m. If possible if it is not possible, a register board will be in the foyer of the auditorium and mothers can sign as they enter. This method will be used in determining the room count.

Parents who bring small children are welcome to leave them in groups where adult supervision will be provided. Speaker for the meeting will be Winston Purvine, director of Oregon Technical Institute, who will speak on vocational education.

Refreshments will be served in the school cafeteria after the meeting.

Sermon Series To Continue At Brethren

Rev. Edward Lander, minister of the Community Church of the Brethren, 4273 Bristol, (off Summers lane) will give the fifth in a series of messages on the Ten Commandments at the 11 o'clock morning worship service when his theme will be "The Service of Honor."

The commandment is "Honor thy father and thy mother."

At 9:45 a. m. the church school will be in session with classes for children of all ages, as well as for adults. A nursery is provided for children up to 4 years of age during the morning worship service.

Women's Project
The Women's circle in a meeting last Tuesday chose two projects for the period preceding the Christmas season. The first project is on the local level and will be that of dressing dolls for the Klamath Falls fire department. The second project is that of providing a Christmas dinner for a family in Germany. The next meeting of the circle is scheduled for Tuesday, October 18.

The community is cordially invited to attend all of the services and activities of the church.

New Relations Course Offered

A course in personal and family relations is now being offered as part of the Klamath community college program at KUHHS and meets Monday evening at 7 p. m. in room 300.

Professor John Schulz of Southern Oregon college is the instructor. The course approaches the roots of some of the basic family problems. Such topics as changes in family literature, economic problems of the family, divorce, adoption, foster homes, and social life within the family are among those discussed.

The course carries three hours of college credit. It should have considerable professional and public appeal and may of course be taken without credit.

Congr

Congr PTA will hold a night meeting, October 19 at 8 o'clock in the school auditorium. A very interesting program is planned. Parents are urged to attend, especially as many fathers as possible.

Summers

Dr. Seth M. Kerron, Klamath county health officer, will speak to teachers and members of the Summers Parent-Teachers association on Tuesday, October 11, at 2:30 p. m. The theme of his talk will be "How to Curb Contagious Diseases."

First grade students in Mrs. W. J. Stevenson's room will present entertainment for the mothers. Refreshments will be served.
