white victory bell present at the last two games will be carried down the street.

Providing enough boys can be found to build the scaffold for it, the large ton and a half bell, gift of the city dads, will be in place at the south end of the field for the game Friday. The O. K. Transfer company has volunteered to move the bell from the city hall to the field free of charge, so it will be ready for ringing after the game if the Pelicans win.

The rally squad added money to student body funds by operating the refreshment concessions at the various schools during teachers institute held last Thursday and Friday. By such projects as this the rally squad will still be helping itself if school support of the group is voted into being.

A new scene, a new sponsor, but Mike Shade's band are the arrangements for this week's after-game dance. The dance will be sponsored by the student body to obtain money and the scene of the dance is the girl's gym in KUHS.

ONE KILLED, SIX HURT IN WRACK
EUGENE, Oct. 10 (P)—An Elkton deer hunter was killed, two companions injured and four University of Oregon students hurt yesterday in a two car collision at Saginaw. Fatally injured was Julius Repleger, 68, Elkton. He was a passenger in a car driven by Walter W. Koolinger, Elkton. Their companion was Ross McDonald, Elkton. The men were returning home from a hunting trip. Riding in the second car were Students Lewis Britton Riley, Portland, the driver; Isabelle S. Lamb, Hawaii; Martha H. Richards, Portland; and Mary Ellen Holland, Portland.

A bonfire as large as a room and twice as high is the project of the Pep Peppers and the K club for this week. The K club is gathering the material and started building the enormous pile on Conger field today. The big conflagration will be set off on Friday at 6 p. m. before the Medford game that night. A program is being planned by the Pep Peppers and a public address system will be used that all might hear. Of course, the whole town is invited and Jim Manning, yell king, has planned a car rally from there to the game at Modoc field.

All this is going on despite the fact that this week is Fire Prevention week and the annual fire prevention assembly will be held for the student body tomorrow. At that time plans to prevent fires will be outlined to the students. Ironically, the bonfire rally will be held during Fire Prevention week.

That isn't all though. In addition to the bonfire rally and the car rally from there, the student body will participate in a serpentine down Main street Friday afternoon. The band will play and the red and
