Fales-Spencer Rites Read In Navy Chapel

The Naval Chapel on Treasure Island in San Francisco was the setting for the wedding of Mary Beth Spencer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Spencer of Bynum, Texas, and Gerald Wayne Fales, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fales of this city.

Fall flowers and candelabra decorated the chapel for the ceremony, which was read on September 18 by Chaplain James Davis of the ship USS Repose, where the bridegroom is stationed.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Bob Chambers, wore a fitted suit of taupe, with matching accessories, and carried an arm bouquet of white gardenias and bouvardia.

Her only attendant was the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Rosalie Sweden. She wore a light brown plaid suit with brown accessories and her bouquet was of pink carnations and white bouvardia.

Roy Sweden, brother-in-law of the groom, was best man.

Preceding the ceremony Mrs. James Davis sang "I Love You Truly" and during the ceremony, "Oh Promise Me." She was accompanied by Roy Preston, who also played the wedding march.

Mrs. Fales, mother of the groom, wore a light green suit with black accessories and a corsage of red roses. The bride's parents were unable to attend the wedding.

The reception, immediately following the ceremony, was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Nelson, 460 Fell street in San Francisco.

Mrs. Nelson presided at the coffee urn and served the tiered wedding cake, assisted by Mrs. Sweden, who also served punch.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fales and Donald Fales, parents and brother of the groom, and Mrs. Myrtle Samson, grandmother of the groom, all from Midland; Mr. and Mrs. Bob Chambers, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sweden, all of Klamath Falls; Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Samson of Lincoln, Calif.; Lt. Mazarella, Lt. Mitchell and Roy Preston, shipmates of the groom while serving in China, also attended.

Both the bride and groom are former graduates of Klamath Union high school, and the groom attended the University of Oregon before entering the navy.

Stork Shower

Mrs. Roy Rightmeyer and Mrs. Kay Altman were hostesses for a stork shower, given in honor of Mrs. Oretal Barke and Mrs. Kathleen Eates. Members of the Ambriou club gathered at the Rightmeyer home, 301 West Main for the affair.

The rooms were appropriately decorated for the occasion, and each guest received a white favor.

Mrs. Tom Patty and Mrs. K. Bates won prizes in the games that were played.

Combined Party

A kitchen shower honoring Miss Pauline Mumford was given at the home of Mrs. Roy Cooper, combined with a "thank-you-party" in appreciation of kindnesses shown Mrs. Cooper while a hospital patient.

Miss Mumford became the bride of Mr. Jack Schneider of this city in mid-September, and the couple is making their home here. She received many attractive and useful gifts.

Games were played, after which the hostess served refreshments.

Guests of the evening were Mrs. Dorothy Ryan, Mrs. Anna Ryan, Mrs. Winnie Berger, Mrs. Olive Brown, Mrs. Ola Chamberlain, Mrs. Agnes Smith, Mrs. Velma Starrs, Mrs. Lillian Shaw, Mrs. Hazel Nehl, Mrs. Genevieve Justin, Doris Ware, Doris Boye, Donna Ryden, Chuck Berger, and the honor guest Pauline Mumford.

Sending gifts, but unable to attend were Mrs. Ruby Hallet, Mrs. Nellie Crane, Mrs. Phyllis Robustelli, Mrs. Gladys Galbreath, Mrs. Gladys Parker, and Mrs. Venetta Stille.

Assisting Mrs. Cooper was her daughter, Mrs. Beulah Greer, who is visiting her parents. Mrs. Greer's husband and infant daughter have returned to their home in San Lorenzo, Calif.

Garden Club

MERRILL—At the last meeting of the Lost River Garden club Mrs. Dale West, president, appointed the following committees to work on the potato festival: construction of the float: Mrs. Don West, chairman.

Mrs. Ivan Kandra, Mrs. Paschall Hodges, Mrs. Randall Pope, Mrs. John O'Neil, Mrs. Victor Shuck and Mrs. James Merrillee.

Dismantling the float: Mrs. Frank Adams, Mrs. Paul Dalton, and Mrs. Scott McKendree; decorating stage for banquet: Mrs. James Hammond, Mrs. William Falvey, Mrs. Lawson Kandra, Mrs. T. O. Wheeler, Mrs. L. A. VanCleve and Mrs. C. E. Sharp.

These ladies are asked to meet October 17 at the grade school at 8 p. m. and to bring their husbands along.

During the general meeting the possibility of a flower show in the spring was discussed.

MR. AND MRS. GERALD FALES, who were married in the Naval Chapel on Treasure Island in San Francisco were attended by Mrs. Rosalie Sweden and Roy Sweden of Klamath Falls. The bride is the former Mary Beth Spencer, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fales of Klamath Falls.

Dramatics Honorary

Margaret Ball, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph S. Ball, and Frances Hallinan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Hallinan, have been selected as pledges to Delta Theta, dramatics honorary at Maryhurst college.

Miss Ball is a junior majoring in music education and Miss Hallinan is a freshman taking social science. The girls will take part in either the actual acting or the production of the plays put on during the school year.

Miss Hallinan and Peggy McAn drew, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. McAndrews, as members of the incoming class, will be feted Friday evening on the campus at the Green Prelude, traditional welcome dance.

New Rooms Used

The Wednesday club held their first fall bridge and pinochle party at the new Episcopal Parish Hall last Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Williams Owens held a short business meeting, followed by a presentation of a gift to Mrs. George Dimbat in appreciation of her efforts on the recent tea held in her home.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Frank Tarr, Mrs. Troy Cook, Mrs. John Baker and Mrs. A. J. Lambert. The new room was attractively decorated with fall flowers and leaves, with a football theme carried out in the form of pennants, corsages, score card and a stuffed football suit.

There were a number of guests attending with prizes in bridge going to Mrs. Len Surles and Mrs. Ted Lindley and in pinochle to Mrs. George Moses.

Birthdays Honored

DAIRY—Double birthday anniversaries occurring recently were celebrated last Saturday evening at the home of Albert and Eldon Burdord of East Dairy when a group of friends and relatives gathered.

Various kinds of games kept the group well entertained until a late hour.

The dessert table was covered with a blue cloth with two birthday cakes and other refreshments placed upon it.

Guests for the affair included Mrs. Olive Fraley and Jerry, Martha McCumber, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Hall of Klamath Falls, Mrs. Louise Kilgore, Charles Kilgore of Langell Valley, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Robertson and Jan. Joan, Dale, Robert and Fred Schmoie of North Dairy.

Mrs. Belle Brown, Richard Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Virgel Schmoie and children, Karen, Virgie and Louise, and the honor guests, Albert and Eldon Burdord.

Guest Speaker

The Sojourners met at the Willard hotel on Wednesday afternoon for a no-hostess luncheon.

Hostesses at cards were Lucille Ingles, and Karen Young. Prizes in bridge went to Olive Thomas and Elenor Rotrock, and for pinochle to Annette Kamara.

Guests at the meeting were Mrs. C. Luther, Betty Seaman, and Mrs. Osborne.

Plans for the annual fall tea were discussed. The tea will be held on October 29.

Guest speaker for the afternoon was Mrs. Dean Osborn who urged membership in the library club.

December Wedding

A December wedding has been planned for Miss Marilyn Gladys Lay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard R. Lay of Long Beach, and Marvin Duane Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Brown of Tulare.

Miss Lay is a graduate of Polytechnic high school in Long Beach, and attended City College. Her fiancée was graduated from Tulare high school, previous to serving with the army in Germany. He is now a student at Sacramento Junior college.
