

GAA Initiation

HENLEY — The Henley Girls Athletic association held a semi-formal candle light banquet Thursday night in the library room.

It was a prelude to the initiation of twenty-eight new members to the organization which has forty-seven members.

Officers this year are Winifred Guber, president; Marion Carson, vice president; Mary Green, secretary; Sylvia Keady, historian; and Jean Tucker, representative. Miss Gillen, home economics and physical education teacher, is advisor for the group.

For the program the president Winifred Guber read the constitution of the organization. Then Marion Carson, Mary Green, and Sylvia Keady, each gave a short talk on, "What the association means, its benefits to us and our school."

The candidates were given the vows. Piano solos were played by Geraldine Masten, Jean Tucker and Caroline Robbinette. A piano duet was played by Donna Dixon and Mary Louise Enman, two vocal solos by Carol Keady and Sylvia Keady, each gave a short talk on, "What the association means, its benefits to us and our school."

Group singing was led by Carol Stebbin.

On Friday the candidates were required to wear a costume of long underwear with paper pads at elbows and knees, bathing suits over the underwear, a stocking and man's shoe on one foot and a sock and woman's shoe on the other. Hair was done up in pin curls and each wore a baby bonnet.

Each candidate had a big sister chosen from the membership which applied her make-up to the day. Books were carried in buckets all day. During the assembly the candidates rolled marshmallows across the stage with their noses.

Fancy Work Sale

MERRILL — Merrill chapter 18 of the Moose will hold a fancywork sale October 14 and 15 with the Academy of Friendship in charge. Ladies who have work at home are asked to turn it in as soon as possible.

At the October 4 meeting plans for the rummage sale to be held October 7 and 8 were also discussed. Both the rummage and fancywork sale will be held in the old bank building.

The College of Regents of the local chapter will sponsor the Washington Camp Fire group with Virginia Haskins as the leader.

Lillian Geaney and Veronica McNeill were appointed as a committee to prepare a float for the potato festival parade October 22.

Berna Long of the Mooseheart committee is asking all members to bring gifts to be sent to the children at Mooseheart at Christmas time. These should be brought to the October 18 meeting.

Refreshments were served by the Mooseheart committee Maggie Adams, Myrtle Davis, Mae Moore, and Betty Hodges.

Statewide Ride

The regular meeting of the Klamath Saddle Club was held on Tuesday, October 4. Discussion was held in regard to the plans for statewide Saddle club ride as a result of a meeting held recently in Prineville.

Attending this meeting and riding in the parade were Mrs. Marsha Poole, Mrs. Clyde Page and Mrs. Dale Mattson. Plans were also made for Saddle club members to ride in the Merrill Potato Festival parade on October 22, and a committee was appointed to make arrangements for a Halloween dance on the evening of October 29.

An invitation extended the club by the Sheriff's posse to participate in a trail ride and a dinner at the Farnsworth ranch at Round Lake on Sunday, October 9, has been accepted.

Surprise Party

WOCUS — Friends and relatives of Mrs. Russell Howard of Wocus gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Pat McFadyen, 3086 Summers Lane, the evening of October 9, to surprise her on her birthday anniversary.

A late dinner was served to Mr. and Mrs. Jim Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Pieruccini, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Howard, Edith Pieruccini, Mr. and Mrs. Pat McFadyen and Micky, and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Howard.

A birthday cake was presented to Mrs. Howard prior to her opening the many gifts showered upon her.

THE ENGAGEMENT of Nova Jean Workman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Workman of this city, was announced by her parents recently. She will wed Douglas Gaines of Oakland next Sunday. The couple will live in Medford.

The trick of masking imperfect legs is quite simple. Dress them so they blend into the general fashion picture. Don't let them "stand out." If for instance you wear a camel's hair coat wear hose of the same tone. "Clocks" cleverly worked up the back instead of a seam slenderize heavy ankles. Clocks hosiery are an ideal go-between for a dark fall suit and dark pumps.

You'll Never Believe that the witchery, the fragility of a milk-weed seed could be captured on linen, but it HAS been done by one of our own Klamath artists... her identity is a deep, dark secret, but her exquisite work is NOT as you may expect by going to the ART CENTER where you'll find her charming BLUE SAGE silk-screen prints on luncheon sets, place mats, napkins, cocktail napkins, table runners.

Silk-screening we found out is a process of painting on textile through a special kind of screen to record an artist's very own designs for posterity. It's a very special way of reproducing ideas native to this locale... you may have your purchase beautifully packaged in silver and blue for gifts and when you see this display you'll agree that you've never seen anything quite like it... it's exclusive here with the ART CENTER which is also showing those adorable Robert Derr Wert Old Dutch prints... hand done on hand-woven linens... the Butter-mold print is enchanting as is the table runner with the quaint Dutch prayer, "Remember the Miller when you eat your bread"... ask the Robert Banisters about these DISTINCTIVE table linens which sell for a tiny price at 1227 Main street... at the junction with Esplanade, where you'll find the ART CENTER.

Venison Dinner

WOCUS — The home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Marshall was the scene of a four way celebration Wednesday night, October 6, when twenty-three invited guests sat down to a barbecued venison dinner honoring the birthday anniversaries of Mr. Marshall, H. V. Baldock and Paul Dumville. It was also the twenty-second wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ivie. Mr. Baldock is the father of Mrs. Ivie, and came to Wocus from Wichita, Kansas, only a few weeks ago. He praised the hospitality of the Oregon people and said he would well remember the venison dinner on his 72nd birthday.

The venison feast was the result of Jim Marshall's luck when he went hunting on the opening of deer season last Saturday, and brought back a four point buck.

Thanks was given by Paul Dumville, when the guests were seated around two big tables. At the conclusion of the meal, one large cake decorated with miniature soldiers in salute, was presented to those whose anniversaries were being honored, by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Howard.

Those who shared in the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. J. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Snyder, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Overeen, Paul Dumville, Mr. and Mrs. Pat McFadyen and son Micky, from Klamath Falls; Mr. and Mrs. Don Orrell, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Forcier, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ivie, H. V. Baldock, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Howard.

Standard committees were appointed. They are, legislation, Lillian Wright, Fern Peak and Nell Olson; membership, Velma Tenney, Eva Burkhalter and Edna Fletcher; auditing, Beulah Elliott and Eva Burkhalter; pioneer women, Beulah Stone, Stella Browne and Frank Hurd and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Marshall of Wocus.

Committees Named

The October meeting of Delta Kappa Gamma, women teachers sorority, was at the home of Mrs. Fred Peterson, on Summers lane last Saturday.

Lillian Hynd, president, called the meeting to order. Following the reading of the minutes, Irma Wauchope, representing the scholarship committee, made recommendations for the future.

The program consisted of a discussion and comparison of the economic welfare of teachers within the county as well as the state. Ann Rufe pointed out the provisions made by the Klamath county district while Olive Wilson gave those of the city system.
