

Truman's Pressure Fails to Win Olds' Approval in Senate

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13 (AP)—A smarting 53 to 15 defeat on the appointment of Federal Power Commissioner Leland Olds today handed President Truman his third—and sharpest—senate rebuff this year on an important nomination.

Despite the pressure of party discipline which Truman marshalled behind the nominee, the senate refused overwhelmingly to return Olds to the commission for a third term. The vote came shortly after midnight. It followed weeks of debate which steadily mounted in heat and bitterness.

Red Label
Opponents shouted that Olds is a foe of capitalism, that 20 years ago he wrote articles that helped promote communism.

Senator Edwin C. Johnson (D-Colo.) called him "a warped, tyrannical, mischievous, egotistical charlatan whose predominant color is pink."

Senators supporting the nomination countered with charges that private gas and oil interests were backing the fight against Olds. They pictured him as a devoted public servant trying to protect consumers by effective utility regulation.

Democratic Leader Lucas, of Illinois, refused to say, after the vote, what effect Truman's directions for the party to take the Olds fight back to the people had on the outcome.

Little To Say
Olds said he had nothing to say about the senate's action beyond this: "I think everybody knows where I stand and what I stand for."

He told a reporter that he had made no plans about another job—"I just haven't gotten around to that yet."

The president went all-out to win approval for Olds even after the senate commerce committee had voted 10 to 2 against him. He made appeals directly to congress. Then he set the democratic national committee to raking the grass roots in support of the nominee.

New York's two republican senators were among those who spoke against Olds last night. Olds is a native of Rochester.

Senators Humphrey (D-Minn.) and Aiken (R-Vt.) defended Olds.

Humphrey said the only argument against him is that "he has some kind of fishy background" and that he had "the guts to stand up in the 1920's and say he didn't like the

Everything will be in readiness at 7 p.m. tonight when the huge bonfire is lit on Conger field. K club members have built the big fire and the Pep Peppers have planned a program which will be emceed by Mayor Robert Thompson. Of course the whole town is invited to the gala event the night before the Medford game on Modoc field.

The bonfire rally tonight is only part of the pre-gala preliminaries planned this year, however. Tomorrow afternoon the whole student body will parade in a serpentine down Main street led by the KUHS band. About seven clubs have entered floats in the parade and the plans for these seem to be quite elaborate. However, Yell King Jim Manning has warned the students against "cracking the whip" since doing so will make it impossible to hold any further rallies downtown.

The band practices tonight on Modoc field with the hat lights they will wear for the formations tomorrow night. All the formations will be done on a totally dark field with only the lights making the outlines of the formations.

The Krater, the KUHS school paper, has selected five members of its staff to attend the annual Oregon High School Press association conference to be held in Eugene, Ore., October 22. At the conference, delegates learn pointers for putting out better papers. Staff members who will attend the conference include Claudette Gleason, Flo Ann Perkins, Bob Southwell, Beverly Jones and Sally Barnhise.

Dancers in this year's all-school Christmas program signed up today to begin practice soon. Mrs. Nioletta Patterson will direct the choreography. For "The Nutcracker Suite," which is the program to be used again this year with all new changes in the dances.

A Halloween party with spooks and witches galore is in the planning stage by the Pep Peppers. The date has been set at October 29 and members of Pep Peppers and their dates may attend.

Watch for the "Little Men's Marching and Chowder Society!"

The American Association of University Women will sponsor a study group in Great Books, beginning Thursday evening, October 13, at the city library.

This course is open to all men and women in the community who are interested in the study of the outstanding works of literature in history. Plato, Aristophanes, Aristotle, Plutarch, and Shakespeare will be studied.

The Great Books movement was started several years ago at the University of Chicago and has spread throughout the United States until there are more than a hundred groups studying this phase of literature.

Klamath Falls, among several other Oregon cities, enjoyed the course last year.

Eleanor Davis, county librarian, is leader of this group, which will meet the second and fourth Thursdays of each month at the city library. There is no charge.

The lowest won-lost percentage ever compiled by a major league pennant winning team was the .578 of the 1926 St. Louis Cardinals.
