Elks Robbed At Burns

BAKER, Oct. 14 (AP)—Report of a $2600 burglary from the Elks club at Burns was received by state police here yesterday.

They said that the money, currency and checks ready to be taken to the bank, was removed from the club's safe sometime Tuesday night. Of the amount, $600 was in silver and $1479 in checks. The rest was paper money.

They said that since there was no evidence of a forced entry the burglar apparently had remained in the building until it was locked and then proceeded to empty the safe.
