

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By Hugh Fullerton

NEW YORK, Oct. 12 (AP)—Before Sunday's final World Series game, Billy Evans, the Detroit Tigers' general manager, was haunting the Yankee dugout getting signatures on a baseball.

"It's for a friend in Detroit," he explained. "I have to get Tommy Henrich especially. Tommy's my boy, you know. I dug him up and had him in Cleveland for a couple of years. . . . someone suggested that Evans wouldn't mind having Henrich in Detroit. I sure would not," Billy agreed. "With him on first we'd have a real good ball club."

Earl Hilligan and Charley Segar, the publicity men (or service bureau managers in politer language) of the two leagues, met at Ebbets field yesterday. . . . Hilligan was blaming the fact that when he left his regular seat to work on the financial statement Saturday the Yanks were leading, 6-0. Dodger baseballists kept ringing in his ears while he worked until he finally gave up and returned to his seat.

"That reminds me of a strange thing about this series," Segar told him. "Our league is setting all the records; you're winning all the ball games."

A group of Brooklyn players taking part in a "Good neighbor" broadcast to Puerto Rico from the field. Maybe they can't play as good baseball as the Yanks but they can speak better Spanish. . . . Commissioner Happy Chandler and Pee-wee Reese engaging in a long conversation on the steps of the Dodger dugout—just a couple of Kentucky boys getting together. . . . the commissioner removing his hat and standing at attention (with a slight grin) as the organist played "Kentucky Home." . . . and a reporter who recalled some of Happy's sentimental remarks about the Kentucky Derby whispering: "The horses are coming onto the track."

Warren Giles, the Reds' boss, sitting in the stands with Buck Walters, whom he recently fired as manager. . . . Ed Barrow, former Yankee head man, talking with Joe Cronin of the Red Sox. . . . Bobby Riggs, the fledgling tennis promoter, and Mrs. Riggs in an upper-deck box. Bobby couldn't catch a foul ball that came his way. . . . Dan Topping, George Weiss and Ned Patterson of the Yankee brain trust holding a long conversation on the field, although they'd be sitting together throughout the game. . . . Reese greeting Al Lang, the St. Petersburg, Fla., ambassador. "Hi, Mr. Sunshine."

Milt Stock, Dodger coach: "Our strength is on the bases because of our speed, but we didn't get a chance to run." . . . Warren Giles, on rumors Bill Terry would (A) manage or (B) buy the Reds: "I think Terry wants to stay in the automobile business. I talked to him to see if he's interested in returning to baseball, but made no offer. Bill has about much chance of buying our club as I have of buying the Yankees."

Back Injury Shelves Paul

PULLMAN, Oct. 14 (AP)—Old Man Injury has put a serious crimp in the hopes of Washington State college for victory over the Idaho Vandals Saturday.

Coach Phil Sarboe said yesterday a recurrence of a back injury has sidelined the Cougars' ace halfback, Don Paul. Whether he'll play Saturday is doubtful, Sarboe said.

Daily Double

LAUREL, Md., Oct. 14 (AP)—A daily double of $3,527.80 was paid yesterday when Devotedly ($3.80) and Diane Lee ($49) won the first two races. An unidentified holder of a $10 ticket collected $17,839.

Altamont Loses

The KUHS frosh's second team took a close 7 to 0 decision from the Altamont Junior high eleven Thursday afternoon.

Firemen Douse Car Fire

City firemen answered a call to the Hart River Dairy, 1500 Esplanade, about 8 o'clock last night to put out a car fire.

They found a flat bed on one of the company's trucks ablaze, but put out the fire with little damage. Origin of the fire was not determined.

It Pays to Use the Want-Ads!

SHOTGUNS ON Contract Easy Terms!

The GUN STORE
714 Main St.

Claassen Picks Bears Over Trojans in Top Coast Grid Scrap

By HAROLD CLAASSEN

NEW YORK, Oct. 14 (AP)—Notre Dame has been a life saver for football forecasters throughout its current unbeaten streak of 31 games and there is no indication the habits—either those of the Irish or that of the forecasters—need changing.

Tulane, smarting from a 59 to 6 drubbing two years ago, may be Notre Dame's sternest test of the season, but by nightfall Saturday the Irish will have gone 32 games without a setback.

And wouldn't you like to be in South Bend to watch Tulane's Eddie Price and Notre Dame's Emil Sikko battle it out for the headlines?

(Last week's average: 64 correct, 15 wrong for $10; season's totals: 167 correct, 39 wrong for $10.)

Minnesota over Ohio State: Minnesota's only early-season fault was a lack of speed. The Gophers found it last Saturday in little Dick Gregory. The Buckeyes will miss Vic Janowicz.

California over Southern California: There's little, if anything, to choose here and so the home team is the choice.

Cornell over Yale: The Ivy league champs are the pick of Columbia Coach Lou Little. That's good enough for this selector.

Army over Harvard: Harvard made it tough for the Cadets a year ago and likely will again this time. But the Army winning streak will go marching on after a rugged afternoon. It likely will be closer than you think.

Michigan over Northwestern: The Rose Bowl champs have lost two in a row. With Michigan's Chuck Ortmann recovered they'll take a third straight licking.

Navy over Wisconsin: Bob Zastrow, sophomore quarterback of the Navy team, hails from Wisconsin. He isn't going to disappoint his relatives on the only chance they will get to see him play this season.

Skipping over the others in a hurry:

FRIDAY:
Georgia over Louisiana State, Mississippi over Boston college, Purdue over Miami, Fla., Villanova over Tulsa, Georgetown over New York University, Boston U. over West Virginia, San Francisco over San Jose.

SATURDAY:
East—Pennsylvania over Columbia, Brown over Princeton, Penn State over Nebraska, Dartmouth over Colgate, Rutgers over Syracuse, Holy Cross over Duquesne, Pittsburgh over Miami, Ohio; Amherst over Colby, Bowdoin over Williams, Fordham over Scotland, Maine over Connecticut, Wesleyan over Swarthmore.

South—Tennessee over Alabama,

Vanderbilt over Florida, North Carolina over Wake Forest, Georgia Tech over Auburn, Kentucky over The Citadel, Duke over North Carolina State, Virginia over Washington & Lee, Virginia Military over Richmond.

Midwest—Michigan State over William & Mary, Iowa over Indiana, Oklahoma over Kansas, Missouri over Illinois, Iowa State over Kansas State, Oklahoma A & M over Drake, Mississippi State over Cincinnati.

Southwest and Far West—Stanford over Washington, Southern Methodist over Rice, Texas over Arkansas, UCLA over Santa Clara, Texas Christian over Texas A & M.

Oregon over Colorado, Oregon State over Montana, Baylor over Texas Tech, Washington State over Idaho, College of Pacific over Portland, Temple (Arl.) State over Brigham Young, Wyoming over Utah State, Utah over Denver, Colorado A & M over Colorado Mines, Nevada over Wichita, Hardin-Simmons over New Mexico.

SUNDAY:
St. Mary's over Loyola.

Only four perfect baseball games have been pitched in the major leagues since 1900.

COME AND SEE IT TODAY!!

1950 HYDRA-GLIDE HARLEY-DAVIDSON

Ezzard, Pat Wrangle

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 14 (AP)—Boxing could crown a new heavyweight champion tonight but probably will not. The odds today were 1 to 5 that Ezzard Charles would successfully defend his N.B.A. title against the challenge of Pat Valentino in their 15-round fight at the San Francisco Cow Palace.

However, the 29-year-old Valentino may be a fairly strong challenger. He lost close decisions to Jimmy Bivins and fought two draws with Joe Maxim, both of whom extended the titleholder plenty, although defeated.

Aside from the remote possibility he could become the upset victim of Valentino's punishing body attack, Charles figures to win rather handsily. He is the superior boxer, much faster than his rival, and has proved he can take a knock-down punch and come back to win. Charles is expected to weigh about 180 and his rival about 185.

The match will be worth $40,000 to Charles. The guarantee is the biggest for him since he joined the professional ranks in 1940.

For Valentino it is the chance of a lifetime. The swarthy Italian-American, who wears his jet black hair almost long enough for ribbons, has won a majority of his fights since he started here nine years ago. He whipped Turkey Thompson last December for the California state title. This will be his first bout since.

Pre-fight rhubarb will send Charles into the ring minus his familiar mustache. Charles' manager, Jake Mintz, refused to permit Valentino—who cuts easily—to wear patches above his optics for the battle. And the San Franciscoan's pilot, Jack Andrade, complied by forcing the champ to comply with California regulations outlawing facial adornment in the ring.

Last-minute ticket sales were expected to account for gate receipts around $150,000. The Cow Palace seats 16,629 customers in 4,000 standing room.

The fight is scheduled for 10 p.m.

SOCK FOR SOCE — Johnny Veentjer is playing his third year for the Red Raiders. He'll be seen in action at the fullback position Saturday night against the Oregon Tech Owls. Veentjer hails from Portland where he prepped at Franklin high.

Series Melon Split

CINCINNATI, Oct. 14 (AP)—The New York Yankees' feat of winning the American league championship on the last day of the regular season and then drubbing the Brooklyn Dodgers in the world series was worth $5,665.54 to the team's full-time members.

That was the figure announced today by Baseball Commissioner A. E. Chandler after his office force had finished figuring out who gets how much from the world series "gate" of $1,129,827.88.

The Yankees cut their $206,159.45 into a total of 36 full shares.

The Dodgers, who could win only one game in the world series, cut up $137,439.63 into a total of 36 1/2 shares. That meant each player who received a full share earned $4,372.73 for his part in the series.

Division of the world series money also extended down through the fourth place finishers, including:

Second place:
Boston Red Sox—$36,814.19 into 34 shares of $1,082.77 each; St. Louis Cardinals—$36,814.19 into 31 1/2 shares of $1,165.53 plus one $100 grant.

Major League Attendance Dips

NEW YORK, Oct. 14 (AP)—Major league baseball attendance dipped a slight 3 per cent from its record high of 1948 but unofficial figures show the 16 big league clubs still drew 20,312,327 customers during 1949. The New York Yankees were high with 2,321,302.

The American league with 10,804,531 paid was off some 245,528 with Cleveland dropping 388,756 from its all-time record of a year ago. The decrease was 262,994 in the National where the unofficial total attendance was 9,507,796.

Marlene Wins

PORT WORTH, Tex., Oct. 14 (AP)—Fifteen-year-old Marlene Bauer of Los Angeles defeated Marjorie Lindsay of Decatur, Ill., 3 and 1, yesterday to reach the semifinals of the women's Texas open tournament.

Major League Attendance Dips

NEW YORK, Oct. 14 (AP)—Major league baseball attendance dipped a slight 3 per cent from its record high of 1948 but unofficial figures show the 16 big league clubs still drew 20,312,327 customers during 1949. The New York Yankees were high with 2,321,302.

Strikes 'n Spares

BOOSTER LEAGUE

Superior Troy Laundry	W. L.
Ashley Chevrolet	10 1
Great Northern	9 3
Matt Finnigan	8 4
Specialized Service	6 6
20-30 Club	5 7
Herald and News	4 8
Rickys Jewelers	1 10

COMMERCIAL LEAGUE

Jones Miller Studio	9 3
John Wieland Lager	8 4
Dick Reeder's	6 6
Sessler Inc.	6 6
Grems Roofing Service	6 6
Weyerhaeuser	5 7
Klamath Lumber & Box	5 7
KFLW	3 9

INDUSTRIAL LEAGUE

Lost River Dairy	4 0
Griggs Market	3 1
Motor Investment	3 1
Dick B. Miller	1 3
Suburban Fire Department	3 3
Eagles Lodge	0 4

Major Roster Deadline

NEW YORK, Oct. 14 (AP)—Tomorrow night is the deadline for major league clubs to complete "paper transactions" with their minor league affiliates.

Baseball's "top 16" must cut their rosters to 40 or less by Saturday night. After October 15 the clubs are not permitted to bring up any minor leaguer until completion of the annual player draft in Cincinnati, beginning November 17.

The brass hats of all major league teams have been busy as beavers the past few weeks, deciding who to "buy" and who to leave down on the farm. Many of the players left will be subject to the draft.

Four National league clubs—the St. Louis Cardinals, Chicago Cubs, New York Giants and Pittsburgh Pirates—made minor league purchases yesterday.

Pittsburgh bought Pitcher John (Windy) McCall from the Boston Red Sox organization on a "conditional" basis. McCall toiled for Seattle of the Pacific Coast league and Louisville of the American association after opening the season with the Red Sox.

Graders Continue Football Play

The little fellas have at it again Saturday morning on the Madoc practice field with grade school football entering its second week. Two games are scheduled.

Fairview-Riverside, the team that battled to a scoreless tie with Roosevelt last week will meet Mills at 9:20 a.m. Mills last week lost to the Conger-Pelican-Fremont eleven, 33 to 0.

At 10:45 Roosevelt will tangle with the CPF team in what appears to be the top attraction of the day.

Heath Eyes Playing Job

BOW, Wash., Oct. 14 (AP)—Jeff Heath, who started his baseball career at Seattle's Garfield high school, said yesterday he is considering an offer to patrol an outfield garden for the Seattle Rainiers.

He was released Wednesday by the Boston Braves, who offered him management of one of the Braves' farm clubs.

"But I feel I still have a few playing years ahead of me," he explained.

The Belmont Stakes is the oldest of the three races that make up racing's triple crown.

The Industrial league opened at the Klamath recreation center Monday night with Lost River Dairy posting a high team score of the evening, 23-3.

Motor Investment walloped Dick B. Miller's crew, 3 to 1. Dairyman Roy Harris rolled a high single game of 231 and a high series of 556.

In the Monday Booster league, Matt Finnigan had the high series, a 797 and Al Kittcock of Great Northern had a high single score of 204.

Jones-Miller moved out in front in the Commercial league by blanking ing Klamath Lumber and Box. Ray Hill, bowling for Dick Reeder's registered the high score of the league thus far with a 221. Weyerhaeuser's Ed Hickman put together three games for a 566, the top individual series in the Tuesday night Commercial loop.

BIGGEST IDEA IN WINE HISTORY!

Patented, new

Bin-bottle!

U. S. Patent No. 1,517,807

LIES TILTED LIKE THIS . . . ACTUALLY IMPROVES

Mr. Boston Fine Wines

IN YOUR HOME

Your favorite PORT, SHERRY, MUSCADEL

80¢

4 5 QUART

MR. BOSTON WINES OF CALIFORNIA

Mr. Boston Distiller Inc., Boston, Mass.

DAY'S

Dedicated To Service

RANGER WHIPCORD
100% VIRGIN WOOL
Pants -- $13.95
Jackets -- $15.95
Cruisers -- $22.50
Full Cut 17-Oz. Whipcord

HIBBS

SIXTH and MAIN

13th Annual Klamath Basin POTATO FESTIVAL QUEEN'S BALL

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 15th

Candidates

Lila Wineberger, Merrill
Mary Ruth Reed, Tulelake
Pat Eager, Bonanza

Sally Smolley, Malin
Eva Mae Alexander, Henley

EACH TICKET GOOD FOR 1,000 VOTES

Music by Baldy's Band Dancing 10 till 2

MERRILL COMMUNITY HALL

Admission $1.00 Per Person, Including Tax

Attention DUCK HUNTERS—Beginning Sat., Oct. 22

★ THE WI-NE-MA COFFEE SHOP WILL OPEN

3:30 A. M. SERVING BREAKFAST To Hunters

ALSO LUNCHESES PREPARED TO TAKE WITH YOU

Quality Food At Reasonable Prices

our special

WINTER TUNE-UP

RESTORES YOUR FORD'S PEP, POWER AND ECONOMY—AND COSTS YOU only $9.25 (Labor only. Paris Additional)

BALSIGER MOTOR CO.
Main at Esplanade Phone 3121

S-T-O-P

A 2c Per Gallon

V SHORTY'S

E ASSOCIATED SERVICE

3249 So. 6th Ph. 9001

FURNITURE SACRIFICE!

PURCHASED FROM the U.S. HOUSING AUTHORITY

Bought by us at a sensationally low figure—now offered to you at RIDICULOUSLY LOW PRICES. . . . This Furniture was used in Government Housing but is all in good usable condition. . . . The values speak for themselves! LOOK THEM OVER!

Hardwood BED... COIL SPRING and 30lb. MATTRESS

Complete 3 PIECE OUTFIT 17.95

OUTSTANDING VALUE

YOU'LL FIND GREAT VALUES LIKE THIS IN THIS GOOD USED FURNITURE. BUY NOW!

Klamath Falls ARMY STORE

320 SIXTH STREET

320 So. 6th Open 8 A. M. - 6 P. M. Phone 9206

FINE WHISKIES SINCE 1857

Sure Stamp of Approval

You won't find this one in any Stamp Catalogue. But if you're looking for a whiskey you can catalogue as "perfect" . . . try 7 Crown—Seagram's finest American whiskey.

Buy Seagram's and be Sure

Seagram's 7 Crown. Blended Whiskey. 86.8 Proof. 85% Grain Neutral Spirits. Seagram-Distillers Corp., Chrysler Building, N.Y.