

SOCIETY

By Sally
Kent

FORMAL DANCES are always fun, and the first formal dance of the year is particularly exciting for freshmen girls.

ABOVE: DENIECE KENYON, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Kenyon, dons her formal in anticipation of the ball tonight.

TOP CENTER: JEAN ADAMS AND DIANE OLDENBURG are a pretty picture in their first formals. Jean is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. F. C. Adams, and Diane is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Roy Oldenburg.

CENTER: VOICING THEIR APPROVAL of Shirley Keesee, who is on the right, are Loralou Rolph, left, and Joan Juckland, center. Parents of these freshmen girls are Mrs. Joy Rolph, Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Juckland and Mr. and Mrs. V. B. Keesee.

BELOW: MARLENE HOWARD, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Howard, plays a few records so she can practice her dancing before the big occasion.

THE BLUE ROOM of the Willard hotel will be buzzing tonight with fifty guests of Gertrude Bramlett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Bramlett. It will be the first formal dance of the school year.

ABOVE: THE HOSTESS, Gertrude Bramlett, makes last minute repairs on her make-up before the formal ball tonight.

BELOW, CENTER: FINGERNAILS must not be neglected either, and Carolyn Riley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Riley, manicures the nails of Ruby Gehring, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gehring.

BELOW: FRESHMAN ALICE GEARY wears her first high school formal with all the grace of an expert. Alice is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Geary.

—All pictures by Guderian.

