

'Terrible Times,' As Czech Little People Disappear

PRAGUE, Oct. 15 (AP)—By the thousands, Czechoslovakia's "little people" are disappearing as the communist government's purges reach through the middle classes.

One of those thousands was a laughing blonde, 20 years old, and on a date with her boy friend.

But she was born in Belgrade, the capital of that now-outlawed member of the communist family, Yugoslavia.

The police grabbed her in the middle of her date. They took her keys. They searched her room. They sealed the room with police stickers. And they moved on to purge others.

The girl's parents live in Western Czechoslovakia. Her father is a Czech. He says his family left Yugoslavia to escape Premier Marshal Tito's "terror."

Now he and his wife are in Prague. Their daughter's laundry summoned them. When they arrived, they started asking the police where their daughter was.

For one week—no word. Then they were told to bring food packages. If these were accepted, they could assume their daughter was being held.

The police didn't say what had happened if the packages went missing.

A minor police official took the elderly couple aside. "These are terrible times we live in," he sadly told them. "I am sorry, but we can't say anything."

They were not the only tear-stained couples in the line at Prague's Bartolomejska street prison. The queue of anxious relatives was long. Thousands are missing since the purge started. Everyone in the line got the same word: If your packages are accepted, take it for granted your relatives are being held.

The police didn't say what had happened if the packages went missing.

Bonanza Youth Gets PI Win

Vernon Haley, 15, of Bonanza was winner of a special judging of hereford steers won in last year's calf scramble this week at the Pacific livestock exposition.

Vernon's calf weighed 360 pounds when he dragged it from the PE ring a year ago. This year, the calf was a sleek 1060 pounds, out ranking all other entries.

As his prize, Vernon received a purebred hereford heifer from George Webb, Mayville breeder.

In beef showmanship Vernon placed first in his group.

Other winners from this area included Kaye Robbette of Klamath Falls, potato judging; Stuart Hen-z, Patti Smith and Kathleen Wilson, team winners representing Klamath county in 4-H livestock judging; Lillian Meaker of Lakeview, second in fine wool competition; and in the three-eighth blood sheep division, Henry Williams, sixth and seventh; and Carolyn

New Pine Creek

A sudden coma seems to have stricken residents of this hamlet since the quick and shocking demise of Richard M. Keller who lost his life last Sunday at around 4 p. m. when his car turned over at the Bird Wade corner about a mile and a half north of town.

Keller was on his way to Lakeview to make his regular Sunday call on his mother, Mrs. Sadie Keller who has been in poor health for some time. Aside from severe shock, a bruised and stiffened leg, and numerous other bodily bruises, his wife, Mrs. Faye Keller who was riding with her husband, survived the terrible accident that all but demolished their big black Buick sedan.

Funeral services were held here at the First Baptist church at 2 o'clock and interment was made in the family plot in the New Pine Creek cemetery.

Keller was the only son of the late Edward M. Keller and inheritor of his father's rather lucrative flour mill and feed business which the Keller family has operated steadily since the nineties. He is survived by his wife, Faye, his mother, Sadie, two sisters, Mrs. Teresa Jennings of Burbank, Calif., and Mrs. Elsie Green of Lakeview, Ore. and one daughter, Bernice Keller of San Francisco.

Mrs. Mary Newman, Mrs. Simpson and children who had been visiting here for the past two weeks, returned to their home in Medford Sunday.

Mrs. E. Smalley, mother of Mrs. Joe Ayoutt, and her son Raymond Smalley, who just returned after spending 15 months in the armed forces in Japan and Charles Smalley of San Francisco, another brother of Mrs. Ayoutt, are visiting here with the Ayoutts this week.

Hershel Fleming visited here last week with Mr. and Mrs. Carmen Fleming. Hershel is still living in San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Clout and Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Morton of Eugene, and John Cloud left for Round Mountain last week to visit with John Cloud's daughter, Bertha Culliver, with whom he will stay for a while. Maurice Morton, wife and son left for Eugene on Saturday after a week of visiting and hunting here.

Leona Robnett of the University of Oregon, and Mrs. Susan Vincent of SOC were home for the week-end.

Fort Klamath

At the regular meeting of the Civic Improvement club held on Friday afternoon, October 7, in the clubhouse, plans were completed and committees named for the forthcoming annual bazaar to be held Saturday evening, October 22, in the clubhouse.

It was decided that booths will open and supper be served at 6 o'clock.

Mrs. William C. Martin is general chairman of the affair, and has appointed the following committees: candy booth, Mrs. Stewart Nicholson; fancywork booth, Mrs. William A. Page, Mrs. Joanna Taylor and Mrs. William C. Hackler; fish pond, Mrs. Raymond S. Loosley, and Mrs. Marvin Roeder; duck game, Mrs. Patrick J. McAuliffe, Mrs. Loren L. Miller Jr., Mrs. Jerry Sisemore; bingo game, Mrs. Ray Prowell, Mrs. Walter J. Wright, Mrs. Earl Jackson, Mrs. Elizabeth M. Loosley; kitchen, Mrs. Harold Wimer, Mrs. Frank Denton, Mrs. Frank Edwards, Mrs. W. C. Martin, Mrs. Bert Gray; dining room, Mrs. Elmer Zumburn, Joan Loosley, Mrs. Jack Thomas, Mrs. Harry Orem, Mrs. Ord Pritchett, Mrs. Fred Zumburn, this committee to decorate tables in dining room; fortune telling booth, Mrs. Loren L. Miller Sr. and Mrs. R. O. Varnum; art museum, Mrs. W. B. Hescock and Mrs. Frank Strahan; decorating, Mrs. Lloyd Nicholson and Mrs. Hansford T. Williams; advertising posters, Mrs. William A. Page and Mrs. Robert Helms. The chairman of each committee is the first member named of each group.

Plans for the bazaar occupied most of the business meeting which was conducted by Mrs. William C. Martin, vice president, and on adjourning, members were advised that at the next meeting on October 21, the annual election of officers will be held.

At the close of the meeting, refreshments were served by the joint hostesses of the afternoon, Mrs. Jerry Sisemore and Mrs. Frank Edwards, at tables made gay with lighted pumpkins and individual favors in keeping with Halloween.

Vases of bronze and gold fall asters further carried out the Halloween motif.

In addition to the hostesses, the following were present at the meeting: Mrs. Earl M. Jackson, Mrs. Hansford T. Williams, Mrs. Lloyd Worden of Chiloquin, Mrs. Frank Denton, Mrs. Katherine Nichols, Mrs. Stewart Nicholson, Mrs. Loren L. Miller Jr., Mrs. William C. Hackler, Mrs. Patrick J. McAuliffe, Mrs. Joanna Taylor, Mrs. Bert Gray, Mrs. William A. Page, Mrs. Raymond S. Loosley, Mrs. Lloyd Nicholson, Mrs. Elizabeth Loosley, and two special guests, Mrs. Bertha Stewart of Alturas, Calif., who is visiting Mrs. Earl Jackson, and Mrs. Kenneth Morris of Tehama, who arrived here recently for a stay at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Edwards.

TB Case Causes $50,000 Suit

BAKER, Oct. 15 (AP)—A tuberculosis case has become a $50,000 issue in the circuit court here. Hearings opened yesterday on charges by Mr. and Mrs. Jack G. Young, Pondosa, against two Baker doctors who, the plaintiffs allege, permitted Young to suffer tuberculosis because of a wrong diagnosis of his ailment.

The doctors involved are Dr. Palmer McKim and Dr. C. J. Blakeley. The plaintiffs ask $50,000 damages.
