Quotarians Attend District Conference

Bearing a gift of "sugar plums"—made by Mrs. Avis McConnell of the Pelican cafe—four Quotarians are leaving Thursday by car for Tacoma, Wash., where the fourteenth district conference will be in session October 21, 22 and 23, at the Winthrop hotel.

Two of those attending from the Klamath Falls club will take part in the program. Joy Rolph, president, is scheduled for a talk on publicity at the Saturday morning session, and Florence Wallace, treasurer, will have charge of the memorial service for members who have passed away since the 1948 conference, in-cluding Mabel Handall, charter member of Klamath Quota.

Others attending from here will be Blanche Petroff, delegate and member of the district nominating committee; Lena Dennis who also plans to visit relatives in the northern city as well as attending the conference, and Hazel Morrison, member of the executive board.

The opening session will be a governor's meeting on Friday evening for club presidents. This will be followed by a reception at the lovely home of Edna Brown, member of the Tacoma club.

Registration, breakfast and business sessions will fill Saturday morning. At noon there will be a luncheon and entertainment for all delegates and visitors, and a formal banquet will be given on that evening, presided over by Maree Byrnm of Eugene, the district governor.

At the conclusion of last-minute business on Sunday morning, all Quotarians are invited to a luncheon at the home of the Tacoma president, Lella Hartsack, before departure for their various homes.

Box Social

MERRILL—The Merrill Library club is planning an old fashioned box social dancing party for November 10, in the community hall.

The public is invited to attend and admission will be a box lunch. Prizes will be given for the best dancer and costume.

Also discussed at the October 6 meeting was the club's annual rummage sale October 13, 14, and 15 in the old bank building in Merrill. Mrs. F. D. Curle is chairman.

The book committee reported that four new books have been purchased for the rental shelf at the library.

Following the business meeting Mrs. Charles Martin of Klamath Falls displayed her rare and valuable button collection, which was most interesting to all those present.

The November meeting will be a no-hostess luncheon at the Pelican party room in Klamath Falls November 4th.

The hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Mae Anderson, Mrs. Hazel McNeil, Mrs. Ray Merrill and Mrs. Leland Pope. They served refreshments to members Mrs. F. D. Curle, Mrs. Riley DeLap, Mrs. Harvey Denham, Mrs. Otto Ellis, Mrs. Beert, Mrs. Warren Fruite, Mrs. Clyde Hammond, Mrs. Harold Hendrickson, Mrs. William Jimmette, Mrs. Tom Laird, Mrs. Floyd Mauney, Mrs. John Kirby, Mrs. Cliff Shuck, Mrs. William Walker, and Mrs. T. O. Wheeler.

Guests present were Mrs. Martin, Mrs. Maud Hoxley, and Mrs. Carrie Ramsby.

Handcrafts Displayed

Eleanor Davis and Dorothy Schupp, entertained the regular dinner meeting of the Edith Cunnning Book club, Monday evening September 19th, at the home of Mrs. J. E. Beard, 628 Pacific Terrace. Eleanor Davis, chairman gave a brief report of the club's activities and books to be reviewed in the future. Fifteen members and guests attended and were delighted with the home handcrafts displayed by the members interested in money making hobbies, discussed at the last meeting. No book was reviewed at this time.

New Members

MERRILL—Theta Rho Girls club initiated four new members at their meeting October 6. Catherine Hueston, Helen Kiehl, and two Rebekah sisters Mrs. Lena Buck and Mrs. Emma Brickner are the new members. The past president, Barbara Icenbice, was presented with a pin. Fourteen Theta Rho girls and nine Rebekah sisters were present.

At the close of the meeting refreshments were served by Martha Beasley, Mrs. Roy F. Beasley, Mrs. Eugene Beasley, and Mrs. R. F. Beasley.

Initiation Plans

Plans for the Malin Rainbow girls Halloween party, were made at the Rainbow meeting of October 12 in the Malin VFW hall. The party will be at the home of Pat Smith, on October 28.

The girls also decided to enter a float in the Potato festival. Refreshments were served to the members by Pat Tucker and Ruth Kallina.

There will be an initiation at the next meeting, October 6. Members are asked to be in formal.

Dinner Guests

CHILOQUIN—Mr. and Mrs. Guy Staiger entertained recently at a dinner for Dr. and Mrs. Barton Peden of Seattle, their house guests and former Chilquian.

Those present besides the guests of honor and the hosts were Dr. and Mrs. Phillip Cole of Klamath Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Zimmerman and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Munge of Chilquian.

Couple Marry In Porterville

Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Carpenter, 4327 Freida street, announce the marriage of their daughter, Miss Johnnie Bennett, to Mr. Norman Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Brown, of Porterville, Calif.

The couple was married last week-end in Porterville.

Mr. Brown is stationed at Hunter's Point in San Francisco with the navy.

The bride attended Klamath Union high school, and the groom graduated from high school in Porterville.

Food Sale Planned

Tulelake Unit No. 164, American Legion Auxiliary met October 11 at the Tulelake Legion hall, with recently elected president, Helen Cushman, in charge of the meeting.

Members performed a ceremony of draping the charter in black crepe in memory of Wanda Stark, before the business meeting.

Edna Jamison, rehabilitation chairman, reported that she sent a box of candy and cookies to the organization's adopted veteran.

Community service chairman, Della Fraley, announced that her slogan for the year's program will be "Safety."

The group voted for a change in the by-laws, so that the organization would meet two times a month in the future, instead of one meeting a month, as it is now.

Jeri Douglas, Pat Warner, and Ethel Hendricks, were appointed on a committee to make arrangements for the food sale, which will be at Earl's Market in Tulelake on October 29.

The next regular meeting on November 8, will be devoted to the Christmas presents, which are to be brought undrapped to the meeting or to the Kados Insurance office in Tulelake.

Budget Adopted

MERRILL—Members of the Lutheran church Missionary society met at the home of Mrs. Earl McCoy October 12. Mrs. Paul Lewis led the devotionals.

Mrs. Charles Cunningham presented the program for the afternoon which had as its theme "We Which Belong to Our Peace."

Mrs. Martin Winterer was appointed chairman of the nominating committee and serving with her will be Mrs. Lyle Huffaker and Mrs. Velton Haskins.

The budget proposed by the executive committee was adopted, concluding the business for the afternoon.

Refreshments were served to Mrs. J. L. Haskins, Mrs. Lewis, Mrs. Huffaker, Mrs. Cunningham, Mrs. Velton Haskins, Mrs. Winterer, Mrs. Dale Moore, Mrs. Gene Taylor, Mrs. Verna Haskins, and Mrs. Smith.

The next meeting will be November 9, when election of officers will be held.

MARILYN GLADYS LAY, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Lay of Long Beach, Calif., will marry Marvin Duane Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Brown of Tulelake in December.

Pair Married In Redding Ceremony

CHILOQUIN—Word has been received of the late September marriage of Irma L. Johnson, formerly of Chilquian, to John T. Moody of Redding, Calif. The Rev. E. J. Troutner read the double ring service for the couple at the Redding Methodist church.

The bride, who worked at the Southern Pacific depot here until she transferred to Redding, wore a turquoise crepe afternoon dress with gray accessories and a gray hat. She wore an orchid corsage, at her wedding.

Following a small reception, the couple left for a wedding trip to San Francisco and are now at home in Redding.

Birthday Party

CHILOQUIN—Jeffrey Heath, son of Mr. and Mrs. Loyal Heath, celebrated his third birthday at a party given by his mother on October 7 at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Markwardt.

Present for the occasion were Lana Castel, Kathy Peters, Cherry, Micki Jo and Gerry Wolff, Lynda and Candace Reid, Charles Spicer and Jeff's baby brother Steve. Sending a gift but unable to attend, was Denise Deffenbacher.

Also attending were Jeff's grandmother, Mrs. Anna Fisher of San Francisco, Mrs. Markwardt.

MRS. NORMAN BROWN was Miss Johnnie Bennett before her marriage last week-end.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Carpenter, 4327 Freida street, and the groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Brown of Porterville, Calif.

LITTLE PEGGY LEE BRYAN has a happy smile on her first birthday. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Bryan, 2001 Garden.
