

Midland Empire News

Wocus

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Potter recently returned from a two-week motor trip visiting relatives and friends. At Burney, Calif., they visited the Ray Linder, relatives of Mrs. Potter, and coming back by way of Reedport stopped for a few days to visit the widowed mother of Earl.

Hunt Luck

Lady Luck accompanied the following hunters, and let them bag their buck the first trip out at the opening of deer season: Ray South and son, Mike, Jim Marshall, Roy Penning, Harry Keasey and Jean Steiner.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Morton purchased a new 1949 Chevrolet sedan of Zelma Howard Wednesday, October 15, for an extended visit through the Midwest, going by way of Boise, Idaho, Wyoming, and down through southern Missouri, where they will reside with elderly Jake Hanes, uncle of Mrs. Morton, whom she hasn't seen for 30 years. The Mortons will see both parents while away.

Quick Work

An incident worthy of mention happened one day last week when Mrs. Morton sent a telegram to a young man who she thought lived at Charlton 14. She had no street address to furnish the telephone operator but took a chance that at Charlton, someone at Western Union would be able to locate the man in question. Exactly 55 minutes later, a lengthy message from the young man himself was phoned in to Mrs. Morton from the local Western Union office, part of the message read as follows: "Come right ahead—my wife and I are anxiously waiting to see you both." The Mortons hadn't seen him since he was a little boy.

Naval Reserve

Wesley, oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Iyer, is now an ensign in the U. S. naval reserve, having enlisted the latter part of September.

"Pop" Hurlgen is continuing to respond to treatment of an ailment that for some time caused him to be hospitalized. He is up and around at this time and is able to do a few of his chores. The elderly man is on a strict diet.

Rebekah Meeting

Twenty-four members of the Rebekah Social club met at the home of Zelma Howard Wednesday, October 12, for a potluck luncheon and regular business meeting.

Colonel Fred Howard reports the completion of six pens, an auction ring and chute, towards the rebuilding of his entire sales mart that was destroyed by fire last summer. Howard's wife, Zelma, will be the new partner in the business. She will take over the interest formerly owned by Howard's son, Russell, who plans to go back to Kansas and go into wheat farming.

Chinese Dinner

A Chinese dinner at Wong's cafe, was enjoyed by a party of 14 Saturday, October 15, when the firm of J. W. Kerns played host to the group of Tulelake homesteaders. Those participating in the affair were—Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Warner and daughter, "Bunny," Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ide and two boys, Kurt and Steven, L. J. Deering, Mr. and Mrs. Paul McAttee, Mr. and Mrs. K. H. Hollis and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hurd of Wocus.

"Part Time"

Mrs. G. E. Purdin is finding that her "part time" employment, serving banquets at the Winema hotel, is running into full time work, due to the number of banquets being held there.

Old Jack Frost interlarded with a hot contest between Jim Helm and Martha Hurd when that local couple entered into a race to see which one could grow the biggest cucumber in their gardens. When the frost stopped the growth of the "cukes" they each weighed in at one and three quarter pounds.

CARRIER RIGHTS

SEATTLE, Oct. 19 (AP)—The Olympic Steamship company of Seattle has asked for southbound common carrier rights to coastal ports in Washington, Oregon and California.

CARNIVAL

By Dick Turner

"Insufficient funds, eh? Well, why don't you fire some of the high-priced help around here?"

SEE KIMBALL'S GLASS SHOP
Prompt Service FOR AUTO GLASS Reasonable Prices
Always ★ Parking In Rear ★ Always

Feline Beast

HORIZONTAL	VERTICAL
1 Dejected feline beast	1 Joked
7 It preys on	2 Opposed
	3 Trap
13 Show	4 Not (prefix)
14 Hateful	5 Measure of land
15 Oriental coin	6 Harvest
16 Fast	7 Wind
18 River in Germany	8 Augments
19 Transpose (ab.)	9 Palm lily
20 Throw back	10 Pedal digit
21 Exist	11 Wood
22 Domestic slave	12 Hebrew asetic
23 Manner	17 Early Chinese bronze coin
24 Act	20 Saved
25 Hideous monster	21 Feelings
26 Southeast (ab.)	24 Mentor
29 Symbol for thoron	25 Amphitheaters
31 Tellurium (symbol)	26 Ability
32 Type of butterfly	36 Come
33 Kind of bomb	37 Tarry
35 Verbal	42 Sea eagle
38 Unusual	43 Fondles
39 Roman emperor	44 Atop
40 Measure of cloth	45 Withered
41 Unthrone	46 Pitcher
47 Smallest State (ab.)	49 Also
48 Seize	51 Belongs to him
50 Refresh	53 Preposition
51 Strike	55 Virginia (ab.)
52 Oil
54 Reanimate
56 Rocks
57 Expunger

Answer to Previous Puzzle

DEITRICH
MARLENE
CLARITY
COUNTERS

Canby

The Canby Mothers' club held a regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Sybil Hall with Mrs. Velma Linerud, co-hostess. Fifteen members were present, and Mrs. Caroline Lovness of Malin was a guest. Refreshments were served, and a Halloween theme was carried out.

Guests recently at the William K. Derby home were Mrs. Phoebe Derby, Bill's mother, and Mr. and Mrs. Ferd Matthias of Ben Lomond, Calif.

Week-end guests at the Norman Gaustad home were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Crabtree and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Marr, all of Ravendale.

Mrs. Dorothy Benson and daughter, Carol Lee, of Klamath Falls visited friends here Thursday.

Nelson Porter Jr. is suffering from blood poisoning in his right arm after an injury to his finger. Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell Lee and family have moved back to their old home in Oklahoma. Mrs. Lee helath has not been too good lately, and it was thought the change might be beneficial.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Holloway and family are on a trip to Socorro, N. M.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Graves and family have moved into town and will make their home at the J. E. Moore place.

Mrs. Harmon Lovness of Malin was a visitor in Canby this week.

Mrs. Bruce McKenzie entertained members of the Women's fellowship and study hour group at her home Thursday of last week.

Visitors at Rev. McKenzie's home recently were Mrs. McKenzie's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ward St. John of Astoria, and her mother, Mrs. Mary Smith, also of Astoria. Mrs. Smith expects to stay with her daughter in Canby for several months.

Attusell Busheys made a trip to San Francisco last week where Mrs. Bushey will undergo medical treatment.

Lloyd Cantrell's father, Earl Cantrell, is visiting at his son's home this week.

Mrs. Frank J. Ross is confined to her bed this week with a light attack of rheumatic fever.

Dick White received an injury to his eye last week while at work.

A surprise birthday dinner was held at the home of J. H. Bowden on the 14th in his honor. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Ward and children, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin McKernan and daughter, Jack Bowden and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bowden Jr.

Thomas W. Wedan, electrician at the Ralph L. Smith Lumber company mill narrowly escaped injury last week when his car and another driven by a man from Tracy side-swiped.

W. K. Derby was a victim of flu last week but is up and about again.

Camp 4—W

A large crowd enjoyed the chop suey dinner served by the camp FTA October 7, one of the year's money-raising projects of the group. Proceeds will be used to carry on FTA projects.

Mrs. Tommy Radcliffe was hostess at the regular card party recently. Mrs. Lyle Stone won high and pinocchio, with next high going to Mrs. Frank Thomas.

Luncheon was enjoyed following cards.

Hunting guests of Mr. and Mrs. Loren Close this week are Close's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fain of Ashland.

Curley McGuire was called to the Rock, Ark., by the death of his mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Stone and Ronnie were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Stone.

Spending a few days with the Harry Kinney family were Harry's mother, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry's Creas of Los Angeles. Their daughter, Everan, also celebrated her third birthday while they were here.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Brittain were guests of the Leo Lehto family recently.

Mrs. George Belkamp, a former resident, is visiting relatives in camp.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Cogswell had a guest, A. M. Cogswell, Otis' brother, from Denver, Colo. The brothers had not seen each other for 21 years. Making it a real reunion, their father, W. O. Cogswell, of Springfield, Ore., was also here.

Mrs. Cogswell's nephew and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Ferguson of Longview, Wash., were guests for a few days as were Mrs. Tommy Rhoads and sons.

Shirley LaDouceur visited her stepmother, Mrs. Edward McGinnis of Diamond Junction recently.

New State Checks, Art Gallery

SALEM, Oct. 19 (AP)—The new checks issued by Secretary of State Newby are going to look like murals.

The watermark on the new checks will contain pictures of Timberline lodge, Crater lake, Bonneville dam, Crown point, the capitol, and hunting, fishing and logging scenes.

Newby issues about 25,000 checks a month.

pany mill narrowly escaped injury last week when his car and another driven by a man from Tracy side-swiped.

W. K. Derby was a victim of flu last week but is up and about again.

Drain Tile
For field drain or septic tank
The Fields
Peyton & Co.
333 Market St.
Tel. 5148
Klamath Falls

LADIES'
Latest Fall Handbags
All the New Styles and Colors
1.98 to 2.98 Plus Tax
Klamath Variety Store
818 Main

Winter Fuel

at
SUMMER PRICES

Pres-to-logs 1 unit $12
2 units $22

Green Slab (Double Load) $6.50

Dry Slab (Double Load) $9.50

BUY NOW!

Peyton & Co

835 Market Phone 5149

PERMITTED TO BID

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19 (AP)—United States producers will be permitted to bid against Canadians next year on chemical pulp supplies for the United Kingdom, Rep. Jackson (D-Wash.) said yesterday.

FASHION CLEANERS

Ph. 5563
129 So. 7th

Your nose knows the difference
ODOR-FREE
Dry Cleaning

Free Pick-up & Delivery!
In Today—Out Tomorrow
4-Hour Special Service

Skill & Care
Beyond Compare

WALL PAPER

Free Yard Sticks 1 1/2 OFF Free Yard Sticks

100 PATTERNS

PAPERS AS LOW AS 10c A SINGLE ROLL

A & B Paint Store

1229 E. Main Your SHERWIN WILLIAMS Dealer Phone 3324

HERALD AND NEWS COMICS

