

Lumbermen Join To Fight CVA

PORTLAND, Oct. 19 (AP)—Lumbering and logging associations have formed a new organization to fight the proposed Columbia valley administration.

Charles E. Ogle, secretary of the new Oregon Forest Industries council, said last night the men to have control of CVA would "not necessarily have an interest in or a knowledge of good forestry practices."

The controversy to date over the proposed CVA has been stated by proponents to be a public vs. private power issue and any reference to the hamstringing features of the bill to all Northwest industries has been studiously avoided.

Affiliated in the council are the West Coast Lumbermen's association, the Western Pine association, Western Forestry and Conservation association, Willamette Valley Lumbermen's association, Oregon Plywood Industries, Oregon Pulp and Paper Industries and the Pacific Northwest Loggers association.

Flue Fires Keep Firemen Busy

Incidental with the present cold weather, city firemen are getting many calls to extinguish flue fires.

The city brigade was called out again shortly after 7 o'clock last night to douse a blaze at the Idro Bonotto residence, 2020 S. 6th.

The blaze was attributed to a faulty flue by firemen, but no damage was reported.

'Liz' Scolds Britons On Divorce Rate

LONDON, Oct. 19 (AP)—Princess Elizabeth scolded the British people yesterday for what she called a high divorce rate and falling moral standards.

It was the strongest public statement by any member of the royal family in years.

Speaking at a rally of the Mothers' Union, the 22-year-old heiress presumptive to the throne said:

"I would go so far as to say that some of the very principles on which the family, and therefore the health of the nation, are founded are in danger."

"... when we see around us the havoc that has been wrought, above all among the children, by the breakup of homes, we can have no doubt that divorce and separation are a disaster for some of the darkest evils in our society today."

Little Boy Ends Search For Fugitive

DALHART, Tex., Oct. 19 (AP)—A little boy ended the big manhunt for Lenard (Lucky) Hawkins, wanted for murder.

"There's a man out there who wants some matches," John William Smith, 10, told his mother. "I think he's the man they're looking for."

Eight officers then flushed the one-time bush league baseball player from his hiding place in a clump of trees near Middle Water, Texas, 29 miles southwest of here.

Hawkins, 34, is charged with murder in the shooting of Alfred Clark, 23, of Boise City, Okla. Clark's body was found last Wednesday near Jerseyville, Ill.

The no-resistance surrender of Hawkins ended one of the biggest manhunts in the history of the Panhandle. Officers from New Mexico and Oklahoma had joined the search, centering around this top-of-Texas town.
