

YUGOS WIN U.N. COUNCIL SEAT

In The Day's News

By FRANK JENKINS
THIS interesting sentence leads off a Washington dispatch this morning:

"With a 75-day breather ahead, members of congress went home today to listen to the voters' ideas about how to run the country."

HERE is a purely personal opinion:

If, when they get home, the members of our congress will listen thoughtfully, they will learn that a lot of common, ordinary people are genuinely worried because our government is persistently spending more than it takes in and is adding the difference to the national debt.

OUR congress, under the constitution, HOLDS THE PURSE STRINGS. Therefore, if it wanted to, it could stop the spending.

It must be that the members of our congress believe that reckless spending is what the bulk of their constituents want. If that is true, the spending will go on until our government goes bankrupt. You can put that in your pipe and smoke it.

LET me offer a suggestion:

The congressman from your district and the senators from your state are now heading home. It is quite likely that in the coming weeks you will see them personally.

REMEMBER THAT YOU HAVE SOMETHING THEY WANT.

What you have that they want is your vote. The time to talk turkey is when the man you are talking to wants what you have.

If you believe genuinely and sincerely that our government is spending money recklessly and by doing so is risking national bankruptcy, TELL YOUR CONGRESSMEN AND YOUR SENATORS SO if you get a chance to talk to them while they are at home.

OF course, if you want our country to go on spending as it has been spending, adding constantly to our national debt, which is already above the quarter of a TRILLION dollar mark, tell them so. The thing to do is to tell these men who represent you at Washington exactly what you think and what you want.

Be yourself!

HERE is a fact that you may not realize:

The city of Washington, although been spending, adding constantly ALMOST TOTALLY INSULATED from the thinking of the common, average, everyday people of the country.

You and I and Tom, Dick and Harry don't get back to Washington every few days. The pressure boys, the representatives of special interests of all kinds, ARE THERE ALL THE TIME. They tell the members of congress, day in and day out, what THEY want and what will happen to congressmen and senators who don't listen to them.

You and I, out in the sticks, aren't heard from.

When you take that fact into consideration, it isn't surprising that the members of our congress get distorted opinions of what the real people of the country really want.

Now is your chance to tell 'em.

Spud Yield Down 30%

As the potato harvest enters its last stages in the basin, farmers are figuring the yield, generally speaking, to be about 70 per cent of normal.

Eisenhower Says Unified America Can Lick World

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20 (AP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower confidently told congress today he believes armed services unification will work "from this moment on" and "the unified America can lick the world."

He called on the quarreling armed services and congress to give unification a chance and not to "panic" at the first setback.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20 (AP)—Gen. J. Lawton Collins assured congress today that the army is not plotting to deny the famed marine corps its "right to fight."

Collins, army chief of staff, said "Some of our marine friends have misrepresented the army's position."

"We have no slightest purpose to impose the army's will upon a sister service."

Collins testified before the house armed services committee. The committee is getting now the counter arguments against navy and marine complaints that present defense policies are lopsided—that they over-emphasize the air force and strategic bombing while cutting down on the navy and marines.

Bradley Bitter
Collins picked up where Gen. Omar Bradley, chairman of the policy-making joint chiefs of staff left off yesterday in replying to navy-marine charges.

Bradley used bitter language at times. He hit at "Fancy Dams" who won't give their all for the team. And he spoke of "open rebellion" and declared the public airing of grievances among the armed services has done "infinite harm" to national security.

Business Staggered

By FRANK JENKINS
PITTSBURGH, Oct. 20 (AP)—Major automobile producers are planning cutbacks unless the nation's first twin steel and coal strikes are settled soon.

There's no indication of a settlement in the walkouts which have idled around a million workers.

"Skyrocketing" Everything points to skyrocketing unemployment.

Only direct government intervention seems likely to end the stalemate which is costing an estimated $58,000,000 a week in lost wages.

The loss to business firms is staggering but there's no way of arriving at the exact amount. As one example, the coal-carrying Baltimore and Ohio railroad said strikes had cost it $1,500,000 already this month.

HST On Sidelines
President Truman is keeping a close watch on the situation. He said today he has no present plans of stepping in.

Ford, General Motors and Chrysler—the auto industry's "big Three"—are agreed shutdowns are in the prospect by mid-November if the twin walkouts continue.

General Motors will feel the pinch by the end of the month as will Chrysler.

Ford, which makes about half its own steel, will be forced to shut down most operations by about November 11 if the strikes run on. Its assembly operations could continue until November 15.

A GM spokesman says some of its auto plants may go on a four-day week by October 31.

Smaller Industries
Hundreds of smaller industries face shutdowns for lack of steel.

The twin strikes are costing the nation 1,400,000 tons of steel and 11,000,000 tons of coal each week.

City police had to be on their toes last night.

Truman Tweetman, arrested on a drunk charge on Klamath avenue, took a punch at the arresting officer while waiting for the paddy wagon and later at the station he objected to the search routine and punched another officer.

Second Charge
Tweetman was also booked for disorderly conduct and in municipal court was fined $25 and given a 30-day suspended sentence.

Passes Buck To GOP's For Deficit

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20 (AP)—President Truman made it clear today he will ask for an increase in taxes at the next session of congress.

He told a news conference, under questioning, that if anybody can tell him any way to avoid tax increases to meet the deficit, he'd like to be told.

Congress went home last night but will come back in January.

Truman last January asked for $4,000,000,000 more taxes, but did not get them. He dropped the demand during the summer because of the business turn-down that had set in.

Deficit
The statement of new plans to seek a tax increase at the next session grew out of news conference questioning about the $5,000,000,000 deficit which Truman said he had no plans to meet.

He blamed the deficit on the republican-controlled 80th congress which he said passed a rich man's tax reduction bill.

Told that Dr. Edwin G. Nourse, resigning chairman of the economic advisory council, had said he was unhappy over deficit financing, the president said he was just as unhappy, as was his.

NEW YORK, Oct. 20 (AP)—Yugoslavia won a seat in the United Nations security council today over the Soviet-sponsored Czechoslovakia. The action by the 59-nation general assembly was a rebuff to the cominform Soviet bloc.

The vote on the second ballot, was Yugoslavia 39 and Czechoslovakia 19. Thirty-nine votes were required for election. Yugoslavia thus squeezed by on the minimum number of votes needed.

The voting was by secret ballot.

The United States supported Yugoslavia for the council seat now held by the Soviet Ukraine. The seating changes December 31.

On the first ballot, Tito's regime got 37, Czechoslovakia 20, Afghanistan 1, Philippines 1.

Vishinsky Up
Russia's Andrei Y. Vishinsky took the floor immediately after the results were announced.

Vishinsky charged the election of Yugoslavia was a violation of the U. N. charter because it failed, he said, to take into account provisions regarding geographic distribution of council seats.

Qualified
The West previously had contended that Yugoslavia was just as qualified to represent Eastern Europe as Czechoslovakia.

Vishinsky declared Yugoslavia's candidacy was advanced by the United States and Britain through behind-the-scenes maneuvering.

Assembly President Carlos P. Romulo banged his gavel repeatedly but Vishinsky held the floor about four minutes.

"Yugoslavia cannot and will not be considered a member of the Eastern bloc," Vishinsky said.

Reds Drive To Split Nationalists

He said the commission has $30,000,000 (M) to start the work at Oak Ridge, Tenn., and Hanford, Wash.

He added that he will not know how much the program will cost until he has an opportunity to talk it over with the commission and the budget bureau, but that he has seen a figure of $300,000,000 (M) mentioned in the papers.
