HIGH SCHOOL News and Comments

By Flo Ann Perkins

The dance after the Longview football game this week-end will again be sponsored by the student body and held in the girls' gym, as was the dance after the Medford game last Friday. However, Johnny Soto and his band will play for this dance. Admission to the affair will be the usual 35 cents for stag and 50 cents per couple. However, stag tickets are being sold in advance in order to cut down the long lines at the door.

Pep Peppers will not march with the band during the halftime show for the Longview game Friday, since there was not enough time this week to work out the drills. However, both the band and Pep Peppers will be putting on drills for the Armistice Day Bend game in Bend this year. Pep Peppers are also planning to charter a bus to Grants Pass next week for members.

Now that Big and Little Sister club officers have been elected, the club is going ahead with plans for the annual big and little sister dance. It is customary for each senior girl and some juniors to have a freshman little sister to take to the dance and generally act as a big sister to her. Juniors and seniors are signing up now for the freshmen they have chosen if they want to make a choice. Otherwise the girls are assigned big or little sisters.

A few members of the Tea Toppers club yesterday served coffee and cookies to the teachers after the faculty meeting yesterday. Re-

Merrill High Carnival Night Slated

MERRILL—The annual Merrill high carnival is scheduled for Friday evening, October 28, in the gym. Each class is sponsoring a concession, such as a dart throw, country store, bingo and a fish pond. Prizes are being solicited from Merrill and Klamath Falls merchants. Ellis Wilson is in charge of publicity and advertising.

Coronation
 The program starts promptly at 7:30 p. m. with the crowning of the queen. Each class has chosen a candidate, and the winner will be chosen on the basis of tickets sold.

Refreshments were served in the newly modeled and very modern home economics room. The room is divided into six kitchen units, containing a stove, sink, cupboards and all the very latest home conveniences. In addition there is a large demonstration kitchen unit and a great deal of storage space, complete to sliding doors.

Present members of the Spanish club and their guests will meet Saturday for a Halloween party to be held in an old barn in the vicinity. Committees for the affair have been working several weeks, lining up the details that make a spook party!

Medical Care—Mrs. George W. Hale of Bonanza is receiving medical care at Hillside hospital.

Admission charges are 25 cents for adults and 15 cents for students. Candidates are Barbara Icenbier senior; Helen Kiehl junior; Evelyn Peirik, sophomores; Murtie Dillon, freshman; Martha Brasley 8th grade; and Mary Jo Hendrickson is the 7th grade candidate. All proceeds from the affair go toward buying needed equipment of the various departments in the high school.

CITY PAY
 PORTLAND, Oct. 20 (AP)—City councilmen voted yesterday to make city employes' present gross pay a minimum in a new salary ordinance.

The vote was to include an 855 cost-of-living bonus in the new base pay schedules.

Babe Ruth and Mel Ott are the major league record holders in runs batted in.
