 Foundations for what could be a peaceful work will be laid in New York on Monday.

At 1:30 Monday afternoon there will be a half hour program of the ceremonies of the laying of the cornerstone at the U.N. headquarters in New York.

Governor Dewey will introduce President Truman who will speak at the momentous occasion.

This program will replace the regularly scheduled "Modern Romances."

In Challenge of the Yukon, Monday, 5 p. m. on LW, Sergeant Preston learns that a young friend is accused of stealing a large sum of money.

Leaving his wife, the young Mountie takes the case in his own hands.

For the solution to the story of "The Missing Money," be sure to hear this interesting mystery.

Loquacious Louella Parsons will take her listeners to the celebrated Photographers' Ball at the famous Ciro's nightclub, tomorrow night.

She will use a roving microphone to pick up bits of comment from the various celebrities in attendance.

This interesting bit of radio listening will be the highlight of Louella's 6:15 broadcast over LW tomorrow night.

For lots of innocent amusement be sure to listen to "A Date With Judy" Sunday afternoon at 4:30.

Father Poster instructs his daughter's boy friend, Oogie, how to get revenge when a woman keeps a man waiting overtime for a date.

It's a good trick if you can do it—get revenge that is.

So be sure and listen for the answer to this one.

The above program will be provided for local listeners by tape-transcription.

And that's all the dope for tonight, folks.

Friday night, when this was written, is always a madhouse around the news room, and so not much time other than to give a brief scan to radio releases.

also aspired for the recommendation.

Langslet, 38, is in his third term as county treasurer and has been a constant worker in democratic affairs since he came to Klamath Falls 19 years ago. He is married, has two children and lives on Lakeshore drive. In addition to his county position, Langslet is part owner of the Red Ball Stage line.

W. L. Josslin of Portland, Oregon state central committee chairman now on an 1800-mile trip through Eastern Oregon, spoke briefly before the democratic gathering at the courthouse last night, taking the occasion to assail 2nd District Congressman Lowell Stockman and Oregon Governor Douglas McKay, both republicans and both up for reelection next year, as well as the entire Oregon congressional delegation.

"Enemies"
 Josslin declared Oregon has many strong friends in Washington, but the state persists in sending back representatives who are the "sworn enemy of the president and democratic administration."

Singling out Stockman in particular, since Josslin's present trip through Eastern Oregon is in an effort to locate a candidate to run against the Pendleton wheat grower next year, the democratic leader declared "the 2nd district has received nothing from Washington in the past eight years it would not have received if Stockman had stayed home."

Josslin said he believed there was a "real chance" for the democrats to elect a 2nd district congressman next year.

Senators Philip Hitchcock, Klamath Falls, was master of ceremonies for the occasion.

Entertainment was furnished by Thor Anderson and Del Jones, the Collett sisters and Ronnie Trotman.

The dinner and the table decorations were furnished by the Presbyterian Ladies Aid and the auditorium was decorated by members of the Lost River Garden club.

Portland AA's Here Sunday
 A group of Portland businessmen, attorneys and other professional men will conduct a meeting at 2:30 p.m., Sunday in Veterans Memorial hall to explain the objects and purposes of Alcoholics Anonymous.

The group stresses that the meeting will be public and is open to anyone with a sincere interest in Alcoholics Anonymous.

Aim
 One of the meeting's aims will be to point out that all people who turn to Alcoholics Anonymous for help are not those who have lost everything, but many are people who realize that they are having trouble in any way as a result of alcoholism.

Six Vernonia Hunters Draw Fines

Six Vernonia, Oregon, hunters were haled into justice court yesterday afternoon on charges of hunting game birds during closed season.

The men, all millworkers for a Vernonia logging concern, were apprehended by a federal game officer, J. F. Bronson, as they were hunting in the Lower Klamath county area at 6:40 yesterday morning.

Bronson confiscated their guns and also took possession of two large honkers that they had bagged.

All six of the hunters pleaded guilty to the violation and were assessed fines of $14.50 each.

They gave their names as D. W. Barker, 37; R. J. Keith, 63; H. D. Keith, 25; M. A. Oakes, 50; R. W. Oakes, 18, and D. M. Goodburn, 20.

last year's festival, relinquished her crown to Queen Lila and her court. The queen was crowned by Winston Purvine, OTI director and speaker of the evening.

With Queen Lila was her court consisting of Princesses Eva Mae Alexander, Henley; Pat Eager, Bonanza; Mary Ruth Reed, Tulalake, and Sally Smalley, Malin. Two flower girls, Carol Ann Barrens and Kathleen Degnan, preceded the royal procession to the throne which was placed on a stage decorated with autumn colors.

Ex-Queen's Niece
 Queen Lila is the niece of the first festival queen, the former Martha Robison. She is the granddaughter of Klamath pioneers, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Robison, now of Macdoel.

The necessity of the consideration of the rights of others in business as well as home life was stressed by Purvine in his address.

"The priceless ingredient, harmony, acquired through understanding of the problems of others is one of the major factors of business today," said Purvine. "Not only in the white collar but in all industry the worker must be made to feel that he is an individual."

Entertainment was furnished by Thor Anderson and Del Jones, the Collett sisters and Ronnie Trotman.

The dinner and the table decorations were furnished by the Presbyterian Ladies Aid and the auditorium was decorated by members of the Lost River Garden club.

Big Parade, Barbecue Features of Merrill Festival Second Day

MERRILL—Floats, marching organizations and youngsters teamed up here this morning to present a half hour parade to start off the second day of the 13th annual Klamath Basin Potato festival.

Heading the big parade was Gov. Douglas McKay on a bay horse with the queen and her court in line.

The town was crowded and almost to a man attended the big free barbecue that got under way at 12:30 p.m. The barbecue chef was H. C. Haskell of Ashland, and meat was donated by Merrill ranchers and spuds came from local potato distributors. Original plans called for serving 2600 persons.

Football
 This afternoon the Merrill Huskies were playing the Gilchrist Grizzlies on the Merrill field. The big queen's ball tonight is from 10 to 12 in the community hall and winds up the big celebration.

First place in the community section went to Malin with a youth organization entry.

Whitcomb noticed a man stalking the winged creatures—ducks, sea airplanes—on the municipal airport about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. City police were notified, and the hunter, Philip A. Martineau, 2240 Applegate, was charged with "hunting on the airport."

According to police, Martineau had bagged one small green-wing teal.

Martineau appeared before Justice of the Peace J. A. Mahoney this morning and entered a plea of guilty to the charge. He paid a $10 fine.

It Pays to Use the Want-Ads!

In the commercial division, first place went to Tulalake Machinery company which displayed a 1908 steam engine. J. W. Kerns Implement company of Klamath Falls placed second.

Individual farm entries: 1st, Chet Barton's Black and White ranch; 2nd, Modoc Turkey Farms.

It's all yours for less than you think

THIS BUICK SPECIAL 3-PASSENGER COUPE (Model 46) does double duty as a business car and a spacious carrier for the small family.

TEN-STRIKE! Only Buick SPECIAL has all these Features!

- Traffic-Handy Size • More Room for the Money • Dynaflo Drive optional at extra cost • Jet-Line Styling • Non-Locking Bumper-Guard Grilles • High-Pressure Fireball Straight-Eight Engine • Coil Springing all around • Low-Pressure Tires on Safety-Ride Rims • Greater Visibility fore and aft • Self-Locking Luggage Lids • Steady-Riding Torque-Tube Drive • Three Smart Models with Body by Fisher

RUN your eyes over this fresh new beauty. Take in its style-setting non-locking bumper-guard grille, the graceful down-sweep of its fender lines, so unmistakably Buick, and we think you'll agree—

It looks like a lot of money—but the fact is, it's a lot for your money.

Take in those bigger interiors, the sofa-soft seats, the easy control and the high visibility you get from the more-than-generous glass area all around—and you'll beam at the news that this one's priced for really modest budgets, right down near the "lowest-priced three."

Beyond that—put this gorgeous new Buick SPECIAL through its paces.

Sample its valve-in-head straight-eight power—the lively, ever-thrilling kind that comes from a high-compression, high-pressure Fireball engine.

You'll find a ride that's pillow-soft smooth, level and steady. You get ample wheelbase—in shorter bumper-to-bumper length for easy parking, garaging, maneuvering.

You'll find a car that handles light as lace—made even more of a breeze by Dynaflo Drive, available at your option at moderate extra cost.

So why not do a thorough matching-up of price tags, and what they'll buy around town?

In particular, put this straight-eight beauty up against the sizes, feature for feature, dollar for dollar—and you'll see for yourself there's nothing to touch this Buick as a buy.

Yes, go see your Buick dealer, take in the SPECIAL from every angle—and learn how quickly you can have one for your own.
