

Wealthy Peter Beatty Takes Death Plunge

LONDON, Oct. 26 (AP)—The honorable Peter Beatty, son of a famed admiral and grandson of Chicago merchant prince Marshall Field Sr., plunged to his death today from a sixth floor window in the fashionable Ritz hotel.

He had just been told he was going to be blind.

The 39-year-old race horse owner fell to the ground at the rear of the Ritz, which is in Piccadilly, in the center of London.

Aly, Rita

Beatty, a handsome, wealthy aristocrat and friend of Aly Khan and Rita Hayworth, was born with a serious eye affliction. He spent thousands of dollars for operations both here and in America.

"I am going up to the sixth floor to see a friend," he was quoted as telling his valet in the hotel lobby this morning.

Tall and dark, Beatty had been described as one of England's most eligible bachelors. He was a brother of Earl Beatty and son of the late Admiral of the Fleet Earl Beatty, hero of the battle of Jutland in the First World War.

His mother, Ethel, was the only daughter of the late Marshall Field. She died in 1932, leaving him a fortune.

Schulberg Seeking Job

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 26 (AP)—A man who once made a half-million dollars a year in the movies now is advertising for a job.

He is R. P. Schulberg, who between 1925 and 1932 was managing director of production for Paramount studios. He ran full-page ads in film trade papers yesterday, citing his third of a century service to the films and adding: "Industry loyalty is a two-way street."

In one ad he said: "Some of my friends who are not top executives tell me that doors are closed because I have in my time talked back to some of the big boys."

Asked about his financial status, Schulberg told a reporter: "I'm not broke. But I need to start being active in business — and right now, too."

Gas Almost Choked Him

For 39 years, Bill Shaw of 543 Fishers St., Fresno, has worked as a bricklayer, but in recent years his health failed. "I had a bad indigestion — almost blew up with gas. I was terribly constipated — had dizzy spells and pains — couldn't do a day's work. I tried all kinds of medicine — but KAL-O-DEX really fixed me up. Since taking KAL-O-DEX Medicine I can eat heartily without suffering."

"I'm completely lost that tired feeling and can work hard every day feeling like a new man. I'm no longer bloated, dizzy, spells since KAL-O-DEX made my bowels work regular as sun-up and sun-down. I tell everyone you can't go wrong taking KAL-O-DEX — it costs so little and does so much."

KAL-O-DEX is a proven formula with medicinal juices from 3 Great Herbs that cleanse bowels, clear gas from stomach, act on sluggish intestines and as a diuretic on kidneys. Your money returned if you're not delighted after taking KAL-O-DEX. Get a bottle today from your druggist. Money Back Guarantee. Adv.

NOT IN THIS BOOK—Garry Robertson, general supervisor of education in the city schools, checks an Associated Press story out of Houston, Tex., with the 1949 text of Magruder's "American Government" which Houston school authorities banned. The new edition in use in the Klamath Falls schools does not carry the paragraph condemned by the Texans and only a few of the editions which mention the "capitalistic" opinion were around here, others replaced by the newer edition.

Houston Bans Oregonian's History Text

HOUSTON, Oct. 26 (AP)—The text book "American Government," used for senior high school civics classes, has been banned in Houston schools.

Only one member of the school board last night voted against the ban after a paragraph in the book was cited.

The book, written by Dr. Frank Magruder, contains this passage: "The United States is called a capitalistic country, but it does not have pure capitalism. It has capitalism subject to increasing government control as our manner of living becomes more complex. The country is capitalistic with strong socialistic and even communistic trends. The postal system, power projects, and progressive taxes are bits of socialism; and public fee education and old age assistance are examples of communism. . . to each according to his need."

Magruder is with Oregon State college. Allyn & Bacon, publishers of the book, has its main office in Boston.

Magruder was not available here for comment.

Jake Waters, a member of the state textbook commission when the book was adopted by Houston schools in 1944, said the book is the most popular text used by American schools.

It is unfortunate for the paragraph to be in the book, which he described as "otherwise excellent," he said.

Waters said he does not know how the paragraph got by the commission.

The disputed paragraph, to which the Houston school officials objected, was from Magruder's 1946 edition. The book is republished and changed every year.

Oregon schools use his 1948 edition, which has the paragraph phrased differently.

New Look

Here's how it appears in the 1948 edition, as used in Oregon schools: "The United States is called a capitalistic country, but it does not have pure capitalism. It has capitalism subject to increasing governmental control as our manner of living becomes more complex. The country is capitalistic, modified by certain socialistic trends. Among them may be mentioned the postal system, public power projects, progressive income taxes, old age pensions, and free public education. Some of these are so old and so well established that we seldom think of them as socialistic."

It will be noted that between 1946 and 1948, Magruder dropped the reference to some American institutions as being communistic.

IN KLAMATH FALLS

Klamath Union high school students of government use Magruder's text, "American Government," but the 1949 edition does not carry the paragraph in question, according to Garry Robertson, general supervisor of education in the city schools.

Robertson said the 1949 edition is the new book in use, but there may be some of the 1946 edition in the schools but they are in the minority. The supervisor checked the various editions available, and it was found that with each edition, wording was changed considerably. The full text of the paragraph under fire by Houston authorities, was not found in any books available here yesterday.

Building Workers' Contract Renewed

PORTLAND, Oct. 26 (AP)—Building trades unions and general contractors of Oregon and Southwest Washington have renewed existing wage and working contracts for 1950.

The agreement covers carpenters, laborers and iron workers' unions on projects of the associated general contractors.

A joint union-employer announcement said journeyman carpenter hourly pay is $2.10, structural and ornamental iron workers $2.30 and reinforcing and rod men $2.10, and laborers $1.70.

The present contract expires Dec. 31.

FAMILY TRAGEDIES

EUGENE, Oct. 26 (AP)—Death of a tree faller Monday near Florence was the fourth accidental fatality in the same family in two years. Killed by a falling tree limb was A. S. Loyce Webb, 36, of Cushman. A brother, Eugene, of Florence, was killed in 1947 in a motorcycle mishap. About the same time, a sister drove her car into a stream near Florence and her two children drowned while she escaped.
