

Lutheran Has Lay Pastor For Sunday

John Markert will be lay pastor at the service of divine worship at 11 a. m. this Sunday at the Klamath Lutheran church in the absence of Rev. Irvin Tweet.

Rev. Tweet is in Portland for the convention of the Luther League of Oregon, being held this week-end at the Central Lutheran church there.

The senior choir will sing "Cherubim Song" by Bertinowski at morning worship, with Mrs. Arthur Denison, organist.

Sunday school and Bible classes are at 9:45 a. m., except for the kindergarten department which meets during the 11 a. m. worship hour.

Meetings for the week are as follows: TUESDAY: Boy Scouts, troop 43, with Harold Anderson, Scoutmaster, meets at 7 p. m. Lutheran Daughters - The Reformation meet at 1809 Main street with Velda Wigen and Genevieve Lund as hostesses.

Ladies Aid meets at the church at 2 p. m. with Mrs. Ernie Taylor and Mrs. Ed Ikenne as hostesses.

Hitchcock In Pulpit At Brethren

Using as the background for his message the fourth chapter of St. Paul's Letter to the Ephesians, Senator Philip S. Hitchcock will be the pulpit guest at the 11 o'clock morning worship service of the community church of the Brethren, 4273 Bristol avenue (off Summers lane).

Ivan Riffey will lead the service of worship in the absence of Rev. Edward Lander who is attending the Oregon district meeting of the church of the Brethren at Portland.

The church school period will precede the morning worship service, convening at 9:45 a. m. There are classes for children of all ages and a class for adults. A nursery is provided for children up to 4 years of age during the 11 o'clock service.

The Women's circle will meet on Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock at the parsonage-chapel.

The whole community is cordially invited to attend the services and activities of the community church.

Holiness Asks Attendance Of Children

Classes for all ages are part of the Sunday school program at the Pilgrim Holiness church, 2301 Wantland. Sunday school is at 9:45 a. m.

Morning worship follows at 11 a. m. Music will be furnished by the church orchestra. Other services for Sunday include a 6:45 p. m. young people's meeting and an evangelistic service at 7:30 p. m.

Prayer, Praise An old-fashioned prayer and praise meeting is held each Wednesday at 7:30 p. m.

Of special interest are services scheduled for 7:30 p. m., November 28 and 29 which will be conducted by Rev. R. A. Beltz of Indianapolis, Ind.

Pastor of the church is Michael Puks, telephone 5584.

The church wishes to thank Lee and William Heublein for their donation of wood and for the assistance given by Herbert Heublein.

Missionary Installation Meet Held

Seventy-five women gathered at the First Baptist church recently for installation services of the Women's Missionary union.

Those who participated were officers of the Women's Missionary society, circle officers and chairmen, and counselors and officers of various auxiliaries of the group.

Among the six WMS circles is a business women's group which meets in the evening and to which interested business women are invited.

Decorations The stress in decorations was the world scope of missions. Mrs. S. L. Tidwell, state mission study chairman, presided. A token of her office and work for the coming year was given each officer as she was installed.

Songs and rally cries were given, and Mrs. Howard Hanka entertained with piano selections.

In concluding the service, Rev. S. L. Tidwell, pastor of the First Baptist church, led a dedicatory prayer.

Matthews To Preach On Bible

"What the Bible Means to Me" is the title of the sermon to be preached Sunday morning at 11, at the Congregational church, Garden near Martin, by Rev. Godfrey Matthews.

The reading of the scripture passages will be from the volume "Letters To Young Churches," a new translation of the epistles in the New Testament, made by J. B. Bishop.

The choir will sing an anthem "Hark, Hark, My Soul" by J. B. Dykes. The organ prelude and accompaniments to the service will be played by Harry Eckert. A nursery for small children is provided under the auspices of the Priscilla club.

At 9:45 a. m. the church school will assemble. General superintendent is Mrs. Kenneth E. Lambie. Pilgrim fellowship meets at 7 p. m. under the leadership of Counsellors Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Leik.

Presbyterian Visitation Drive Planned

The First Presbyterian church anticipates the benefits to be derived from the forthcoming annual "Every Member Visitation." This year new materials and tools are to be used which will insure that with the completion of the visitation every family of the church will know the story of the church's work, both here and in the world field.

Sixty workers are being recruited for this work. A training session for these workers is to be conducted at the church on Tuesday evening, November 1, at 7:30. Clifford Voight is chairman of the effort.

Stewardship On Sunday, October 30, the theme of the morning worship service will center on the work of a Christian steward. The pastor will offer the second in a series of sermons based on the parable of Jesus to be found in Mark 4:26-30. The general theme of the series is titled, "On Bringing the Kingdom." Inasmuch as the parable uses farm language, the sermons are titled: (1) "SEED," (2) "PLANTING," (3) "RISK," (4) "The Harvest." The series will be completed on Sunday, November 13.

Music This Sunday will include a solo by Mrs. Marvin Nerath, entitled, "Have Mercy, Lord," and an anthem by the choir, "The Lord is My Light," with an incidental solo by George Brewer. With the enlargement of the choir loft, the choir now has adequate room, and it is anticipated that the excellent work already begun will continue and increase during the year. The choir now numbers between 35 and 40. It is directed by Andrew Loney Jr., and accompanied by Mrs. George McIntyre, organist.

Evangelists Continue At Assembly

Evangelists William and Dorothy Reed are continuing revival meetings at the Assembly of God church, 746 Oak where Rev. Kelsey C. Prinsing is pastor.

Services are conducted nightly at 7:30, except Monday. Both Mr. and Mrs. Reed preach, usually alternating from night to night.

Noonday prayer meetings are conducted Monday through Friday for the high school and junior high students and young epistle. The regular radio service, "Calvary Echoes," will be heard Sunday morning over KPLW at 9.

Sunday school begins at 9:45. The subject is "The Christian and His Witness." The lesson text is found in Luke 3:1-11 and in other relative passages.

The Sunday morning worship hour is 11 o'clock.

The young people, "Christ's Ambassadors," meet at 6 p. m. for prayer, followed by their regular service at 6:30. Ramona Prinsing is in charge.

Woods' Topic 'Who Cares'

At the Sunday morning worship service at 11 o'clock the Rev. Martindale Woods, pastor of the First Methodist church, will speak on the theme, "Who Cares?"

This is the fifth in a series of Sunday morning messages on the general theme of "Our Faith."

In his message on Sunday morning the Rev. Woods will discuss further the matter of what might be termed "The Fellowship of the Concerned." He will deal with the matter of a new movement within the church.

The chorus choir, under direction of LaMar Jensen, will sing the anthem based on the tenor aria from the oratorio, "Elijah," by Mendelssohn. Hugh Paul will be at the organ console. New voices are being recruited each week and the choir is making a noteworthy advance in its work.

The Youth fellowships meet on Sunday evening, intermediates at 5 p. m. this Sunday with a party following their meeting. The senior fellowship meets at 7 p. m. with a party following the meeting also.

Baptists Plan Potluck Feast

A potluck dinner will be held by the members and friends of the Immanuel Baptist church in the church basement, at 6:30 p. m. November 2.

This dinner is in honor of Mrs. Beatrice A. Van Meter, a returned missionary from China, who will be present.

Following the dinner, Mrs. Van Meter will tell her experiences and show pictures from China in the main auditorium of the church. On February 1 this year Mrs. Van Meter, accompanied by her three children left Klamath, China, where she had been before the invasion of China by the Japanese, and to which she returned as soon after the war as she could.

Before leaving Klamath, she, along with all of the other Christian missionaries received threatening letters from the communists in that city, reminding them that they were not wanted and telling them to get out of China "or else."

'Small Things' Anderson's Topic Sunday

"Despise Not the Small Things," is the message Rev. D. B. Anderson will bring in the morning worship services at the Klamath Temple Sunday.

Sunday school classes will convene at 9:45 a. m., and the "Round-uppers" are urged to be on time for the story of the "Pack Rat."

Overcome services are at 6:30 with Teddy Reams in charge of the young people. Evangelistic service is at 7:45 at which time Rev. Anderson will speak on the subject.
