

THE GOVERNOR'S WIFE renewed many acquaintances at the tea given in her honor October 21 in the Winema hotel. The tea for Mrs. McKay was sponsored by the Republican Central committee, and all women in the basin were invited. Left to right are Mrs. Richard Maxwell of the Young Republican group, Mrs. Douglas McKay and Mrs. Marshall Cornett, Republican National Committeewoman from Oregon.

SOCIETY

By Sally
Kent

ENJOYING A CUP OF TEA at the affair given in honor of Mrs. Douglas McKay are Mrs. Melvin Miller, Mrs. Darrell Miller, Mrs. H. O. Juckland and Mrs. Dick B. Miller Sr.

Below: CUTTING THE ANNIVERSARY CAKE at the Jobs Daughters 25th anniversary celebration on October 20, Honored Queen Louise Linman is assisted by the first Honored Queen present on anniversary night, Mrs. Melvin McCollum.

ASSISTING WITH THE RECEPTION for Mrs. McKay were Mrs. George Flitcraft, Mrs. Donald Kenyon and Mrs. Philip Hitchcock. Mrs. Flitcraft and Mrs. Hitchcock poured, and Mrs. Kenyon was in charge of the table decorations.

Sallies... by SALLY

Numerous cars made the trek over the Greensprings last night to cheer the home team as they either beat the sex off, or were skunked by (I don't know which; this is written Friday) the Grants Pass boys. Among the fans were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Whittlach with Mr. and Mrs. Tom Watters, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Guderian, Mr. and Mrs. Art Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Neal Stewart with Sara and Angus, Beverly Lassett, and Douglas Leitchy; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Peak and Jimmy, and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Anstead, Judy and Kay, were Grants Pass bound early Friday afternoon, and were dinner guests in Medford of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lambo, formerly of Klamath Falls. Nancy Lambo is a member of the Pep Peppers.

Southbound were many other Klamathites. The livestock show in San Francisco's Cow Palace is the attraction in that direction; it started yesterday and will last for ten days. Mr. and Mrs. Keith Moom, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hutchinson and Don Kirkpatrick have all planned to spend a few days in the bay city to take in the show.

Cap Collier has been reading up on that scout whose name is legend in these parts—Kit Carson—and finds that Kit must have packed a fine sense of humor as well as a swashbuckling coonskin cap. Kit called two of his various Indian wives, "Dang Yer Eyes" and "Blas' Yer Hide," which reminds us of a humorous passage in that best seller, "Call It Treason," in which the enemy was advised to give the password "Oh, My Aching Back" when they wanted to hand themselves over to the Americans, observing it always brought a laugh but they didn't know why.

Friends visited here with Mrs. Frank B. Robinson of Moscow, Idaho, who was the guest this past week of her sister, Mrs. Howard Barnhise of Conger avenue. Several informal affairs were arranged for Mrs. Robinson who left Thursday for her home. She drove to Klamath Falls with Mrs. Odette Vincent who visited here at the home of the K. O. Buicks.

The United Nations, four years old this past week, received a birthday greeting-gram from the youngsters at Riverside school who wished the UN "a hundred years of birthdays" and much happiness in the future.

There's a lot of fun to be had in San Francisco this week-end when a group from Klamath Falls celebrates the birthday on October 30 of a well loved Klamath woman, Clara Shaw.

Members of her club are going south, some by car, others by plane, and several by train, to gather first at the home of Mrs. George Burger in El Cerrito, and then later in San Francisco.

Mrs. William Serruys is coming up from Palm Springs, where she is spending the winter, and will join Mrs. Shaw, Mrs. Louis Serruys, Mrs. J. Frank Adams, Nora Rinker, Mrs. Brady Narey, Mrs. Sheldon Brumbaugh, Mrs. Rose M. Poole and her daughter, Mrs. Lee Stoner, Mrs. Avis McConnell and Mrs. Lucie Warner. In addition to a dinner which Helyn Burger warns is to be "strictly formal," the group plans to take in a show or two and a couple of other activities.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin L. Weaver of Auburn street are spending a week in Stockton, Calif., with their son Clark and his family. They are expected home Wednesday.

Vic O'Neill, who was described as an "avid hunter" in the story concerning his wife Lucille, "Woman of the Week," has been heckled by old hunting partners as to how to kill an "avid."

Now Vic usually uses a double-barreled shotgun which is held
(Continued on Page 6)

CELEBRATING THEIR 25TH ANNIVERSARY, Jobs Daughters and guests enjoyed a dinner and reception on October 20 in the Masonic Temple. Guide Betty Pinniger, Senior Princess Arlene Stanbery, Honored Queen Louise Linman, Junior Princess Jean Selby and Marshal Barbara Custer admire the anniversary cake.

CHAPTERS OF THE PEO SISTERHOOD entertained for their state officers last week. A dessert was given for the officers by chapter CF of the sisterhood on October 21, at the home of Mrs. John D. Merryman on Pacific Terrace. Left to right are Mrs. Robert O'Sullivan, president of CF chapter, Mrs. Joseph McCready of Forest Grove, state organizer, Mrs. Irving Smith, state president, and Mrs. Merryman, hostess for the afternoon.

—All pictures by Guderian.

THE UNIVERSITY OF OREGON MOTHERS invited all mothers of U. of O. students to their lovely tea at the home of Mrs. C. C. Lorenz on High street last Saturday afternoon. Mrs. E. W. Macabee, president of the organization here, and Mrs. G. C. Lorenz, hostess, put final touches on the flower arrangements.