HIGH SCHOOL News and Comments

By Flo Ann Perkins

The rally squad will henceforth be sponsored by the school financially and the students will elect the members of the squad from a list of candidates selected after tryouts by a special committee. That was the way the voting went yesterday when a student body vote in home rooms was taken on the two amendments to the constitution of KUHS. However, another proposed plan of limiting membership on the squad to seniors was voted down. These amendments have been pending before the student congress ever since school started. Only recently, however, the student congress approved putting the proposals to a vote of the student body.

Grange Meeting—The Henley grange will meet tomorrow evening at the Henley grange at 8 o'clock. There will be an important business meeting, including plans for the harvest, festival November 18.
