

Ceremonial

Zulema temple, daughter of the Nile will have a special ceremonial on Saturday, November 5 at the Masonic temple here, starting at 1:30 p. m.

Supreme Queen Clara Lee Kittie will make her official visit at this time.

Luncheon will be served in the Legion hall preceding the meeting from 11:30 until 1:30.

Football Theme

CHILOQUIN—Football was the theme of a party given last Wednesday evening by the high school Sunday school class of the Methodist church at the home of the teacher, Mrs. Gerry Wolf. Piquant shaped invitations, teams who strove for imaginary touchdowns, and scrambled football terms, all lent themselves to the occasion as did the use of hard boiled egg footballs and some college rally songs.

Attending were Donna Clark, Mari-lee and Joanne Keyser, Glen Parker, David Johnson, Audrey Varum, Margaret Lee Grear, Allen Prowell, Wendell Ezeman, Freida Kirk, and Sadako Shishito.

Sewing Done

BONANZA—Mrs. Birdie Burk entertained the Bonanza sewing club at her home on Saturday afternoon. The ladies enjoyed an afternoon of sewing for the coming season.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Burke to the guests, who were Lilith O'Connor, Edna Roberts, Mabel Maxwell, Delores Proulx, Liane Schum, Bernice Sharp and Kathy Blackman.

MRS. ELDA EDLAND, formerly of Klamath Falls, has been training and working as a dental nurse and receptionist in Stockton, Calif., for several months. She has recently taken a position in Lodi, Calif.

Friends Entertained

SPRAGUE RIVER — Mr. and Mrs. Byron M. Welch entertained several of their friends at a pinocle party, Saturday night, October 22.

Prizes for high scores for the evening were won by C. O. Story and Mrs. Charles Borough.

Those present for the affair were Mr. and Mrs. D. Hoefler of Klamath Falls, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Story, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Cornue, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Welch, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bodenhamer, Mrs. Charles Borough and daughter Myrta, and Eddie and Elton Welch.

Social Meeting

BONANZA — The regular social meeting of the Bonanza Women's club was held at the library on October 18.

Bridge and pinocle were enjoyed, with Dorothy Jones winning in pinocle and Lola Horn in bridge.

Helen McFall won the guest prize. Hostesses for the affair were

Kitchen Shower

Members of the Ambrieu club honored Mrs. Gay Platt with a kitchen shower last Friday evening. Fifteen guests attended the affair at 1209 S. Pine.

Refreshments were served during the evening by the hostesses, Mrs. Ruby Uglum and Mrs. Colleen Murray.

"Turkey in the Straw" but a yarn about the quality birds you may expect to find, for Thanksgiving at the MEAT COUNTER in the PINE STREET MARKET makes no difference if a carload of prime beef DID sell for 41¢ per pound on the Chicago market last week. TURKEY prices will be down from last year. Honest Injun.

There will be a lot of birds too, but via the grapevine we learned that you should put in your order at the PINE STREET MARKET early to insure getting just the size bird you want. Since quality means a lot too, we'd better pass it on that only top grade TURKEYS will be available in this market.

It was also being whispered about this week at the PINE STREET MARKET that a HALF turkey will be sold if your family is too small to consume a whole bird. . . . decide on a hen or tom then call 3138 as a reminder that a prime turk should be sent your way on one of the 5 free deliveries a day from Seventh and Pine, the PINE STREET MARKET.

It's a Wise Woman who knows her creams. If there is any doubt in your mind about the famous formula TUSSEY RICH-CREAM scream down to CURRIN'S the Friendly Drug Store and get in on this limited time special. By the time you have used up a jar of this golden night cream your mind will be definitely made up that this cream is really a rejuvenator of tired skins.

It combats fatigue lines, crepey throat, wrinkled brows and discourages flakiness. Tussie Rich Cream helps achieve a dewy softness, a clearer, mirrorlike complexion.

At the end of the day if you feel like your face was a "crum mask" give yourself a facial with Tussie Rich Cream. In a hurry? Mould it in gently with upward strokes from the base of your throat to your scalp line just before you hop into a warm shower. . . . Feel it soothe and relieve the tension. . . . remove with facial tissues before using skin lotion and bloom forth like a lily after powdering.

At the enormous saving during this "once a year" sale it will pay you to buy two or three jars for CURRIN'S is offering a generous size jar that usually sells for $1.75 for only a dollar. . . . the super-size . . . $2.00 jar for $1.50 with Uncle's tea extra. It's just as good for oily skin as for dry so drop everything and make your October pay check stretch over a jar of Tussie Rich Cream from 9th and Main.

A nursery teacher in a local Sunday school asked her group if they knew what happened to the pennies they brought for the collection. One thoughtful child answered, "They use them to buy juice to drink at church."

For Frosty Nights

and cheery mornings! As lovely in the uncompromising light of coffee time as under a lamp's soft glow, these robes and lounging pajamas from WHYTA'S . . . right here in time for Christmas shopping. If you've no place to hide 'em except in the hen house, let WHYTA'S hold them on the lay-away plan.

Each and every pretty robe we sized up this week had a $19.95 price tag so that's off our mind. For those lovely, lazy hours there's nothing sweeter than a quilted satin robe, one with three BIG satin buttons, and contrasting lining. . . . fr instance deep, deep blue with pink, wine with light blue or black with blue. . . . these versatile beauties can be worn two ways. . . . belted clear round or across the front leaving the full flared back free to sway as you move.

You'll shiver no mo' in a Merrimack sheer, tubbular, narrow waist, corduroy. . . . a Peathery fabric made with sweet simplicity. . . . wide quilted lapels and cuffs. . . . 4 yard sweep to the flared skirt. . . . interested? . . . better be for these are boneys. . . . fitted bodice. . . . 2 button closing. . . . sizes 10 thru 20 in rose, sand and scarlet.

Mod-dy but nice are the fluffy, soft pink and blue chenilles at WHYTA'S. . . . tufts simply won't come out even when laundered. . . . these are utility robes that will see you through more than one winter. . . . sizes 10 to 26 1/2.

Last but a long way from least, the so light, so lovely to feel, Tommy coat style P.J.s. . . . blue and white polka dot sleepers with quilted red crepe shortie coat. . . . a reversible garment that will make your budget sit up and take notice. . . . sizes 12 thru 18 at the same old price. . . . $19.95. . . . If you don't like the above color combination, we'll tell you about another. . . . red and white "jammers" with blue shortie coat. . . . equally darling.

WHYTA'S wants you to feel free to come in and LOOK around. If you don't see what you are needing ASK. . . . it may be behind the scenes. Baby yourselves in toasty warm robes. You can be bewitching in the ones we found while shopping at 901 Main street.

WHYTA'S.

Tea . . . The Symbol of hospitality. . . . simplest of all ways to repay social obligations and one of the most intimate and charming if you use a TEA SERVICE from RICKY'S. There's something very cozy about a big silver tea-tray on a low table by the fire. . . . something appealing about white hands busy among the tea-things to give a man comfort and sustenance. . . . something at once domestic and romantic about tea gowns and firelight as twilight falls. It's a scene that CAN be in every woman's repertoire if you'll shop at RICKY'S.

No need to spend half a year's income on tea services either. . . . you needn't rob the butcher if you decide on one of several inexpensive but charming silverplate sets we found this week. . . . starting as low as $19.95, made by F. B. Rogers. . . . tea-pot, creamer, sugar bowl and round tray. . . . tax included.

Stunning are two styles in Academy services. . . . sterling plate on a copper base. . . . one service with simple Puritan lines. . . . the second with a quaint "over the lid" handle on the tea pot. . . . each is a 4 piece service including oblong trays at $29.95.

A bit more expensive the F. B. Rogers set in the window with a tea AND coffee pots with INSULATED handles. . . . this is a footed service, smart, sophisticated, with gadroon borders. . . . large oblong handled tray or a smaller round one, the 5 piece service at $39.95. . . . there's a sequel to this. . . . buy individual pieces at $11.95 each. . . . the creamer and sugar bowl to be sold as one unit. . . . an idea for that MERRY CHRISTMAS that starts at RICKY'S.

Chippendale by International. . . . a beautifully proportioned fluted, sterling plated silver inspired by master craftsmen of the 18th century. . . . the broken outline of the bases and tray border, resemble the lovely "pie-crust" borders of Colonial tables. . . . rich and unusual chasing in the center of the tray. . . . a service of intimate charm and adaptability for $120.00. . . . large covered sugar bowl and gold lined creamer.

International's Camille at the same price, which of course includes tax. . . . a 5 piece service in the ROMANTIC mood with triple gardenia motif gracing the double border of inverted scallops on each piece. This is a tea AND coffee duo. . . . melon shaped. . . . it blends perfectly with floral patterns of International sterling flatware such as Prelude, Courtship.

Lovely Ashley by International. . . . this set, coffee and tea pots, creamer and sugar, generous capacities. . . . an outstanding value. . . . finest of the silversmith's art. . . . no tray. . . . at $100.00.

Utterly enchanting is lovely Rosepoint by Wallace. . . . handles and spouts garlanded exquisitely with floral design. . . . an ornate 3 piece coffee service of sterling plate for $125.00. . . . the tea pot will be available soon at $61.00. . . . this set is in the same design as Rose Point Wallace STERLING which sells at $163.00.

The magnificent lavishness of the Renaissance is keyed to today's design for gracious living in the Grand Baroque service by Wallace. . . . this silver plate set will be here at RICKY'S in time for putting on your Christmas list. . . . the 4 piece set with waiter. . . . $266.00 as well 5 pieces of Regent by Reed and Barton at $235.00 both including tax. . . . Regent pattern was used during the period in English history between 1811 and 1820 when King George IV was still Prince of Wales.

And NOW for STERLING services. . . . 3 piece Floral pattern by Gorham. . . . lustre so lovely to look at. . . . coffee pot, creamer and sugar bowl, $195.00. . . . the tea pot will arrive in time to tuck in a Christmas stocking. . . . price $100.00. . . . this is a footed service with delicate half floral, half gadroon border.

RICKY'S has Gorham's elegant Buttercup tea service ordered. . . . 'twill be here soon. If verbal ecstasy is a forerunner of what's to come, Buttercup at $125.00 is really lovely.

It's not a whit too early to be Christmas shopping. Ask about the lay-away plan at 709 Main street.

to MILLER'S SHOE DEPARTMENT

MENTMENT which is no longer an infant in swaddling clothes, having been on the job in the same place for 12 years. Now, this week, as a special event to celebrate the anniversary and to give YOU a chance to clear your closets of shoes you no longer want, MILLER'S SHOE DEPARTMENT will give a $1.00 allowance on ANY pair of ladies shoes in stock in the price range from $6.95 to $16.95 provided you take along an old pair when you drop in to buy new ones.

All the old shoes will be put to good use, since Frank Bogatay, owner of MILLER'S SHOE DEPARTMENT has already told the Salvation Army to look out for a FLOOD of shoes. You can do your part toward helping the needy, just by taking a pair of shoes no longer useful to you, scooting down town and taking advantage of this opportunity to save you money at 512 Main street.

Winter Will Get

a warm welcome if you wear the cunning, snugly little DREAMERS we found today at SPENCER'S. Translated that means cleverly designed bedroom slippers with genuine LEATHER soles. . . . crib crowd slippers of corduroy with yarn "Orphan Annie" on the toes. . . . elasticated "hug 'n' tight" ankle straps. . . . others with white bunny fur cuffs and zipper closing. . . . sweet things to cup tiny feet.

SPENCER'S has "little guy" slippers for small "he men". . . . no fuzz 'n' feathers. . . . strictly tailored corduroy and satin. . . . these with zipper closing too. . . . Did you ever see a cherub that didn't doze on zippers?

The bedroom slipper stock at SPENCER'S is complete. . . . now's the time to buy. . . . ask to see these cutie DREAMERS. . . . colors are red and blue. . . . sizes 3-10. If you expect to play Santa Claus to a comparative "newcomer" come Christmas, a good place to start is the specialty shop for "kiddies" at 619 Main street.

Worth Planning

and budgeting for are the delightfully fresh, hand-drawn copies of original prints by Margo Alexander of California that SULLIVAN'S is showing. . . . so EASY. . . . so colorful. . . . so smart. Accents bring a room to life. . . . these beautifully done prints are typically American, the kind of pictures that "steal the scene." . . . become the dramatic focus of beautiful rooms.

You'll love the "Boy and Girl in Crimson" . . . the Chanticleer pair "Poppa and Uncle Henry" . . . "Mr. and Mrs. Booted Bantam" . . . "Young Game Cock" and the equally enchanting Farm Prints with old rail fences and winding lanes. You can ALMOST recognize Klamath's own building main thoroughfare of 50 years ago in Margo Alexander's "Main Street" . . . These prints are framed in maple, antique and plain finishes or in lacquered red and green. . . . distinctively matted to bring out the lush coloring of the figures and scenes. Others will be arriving and we know of no happier idea for a distinctive Christmas gift than a Margo Alexander from SULLIVAN'S where we also found. . . . the dearest Old Oak Buckets in maple, the wood that takes ANY kind of finish. . . . we learned that when newly cut it is white as sugar pine and here is a professional secret we CAN give away. . . . If you want to fool even YOURSELF into believing that YOUR maple bucket is very, very old, use a dab of lamp black or a bit of soot in furniture polish and rub and rub. . . . 'twill do the trick. . . . Joan Sullivan said so. The design of these precious old buckets was inspired by an old fashioned sugar bucket known as a "Kankin."

It is a faithful reproduction of an early American relic of simple charm and broad usefulness whose history dates back to the early days of New England.

Buy the generous sized fireplace bucket for wood. . . . the divided one for a magazine rack. . . . a three leaved one for a fernery for the "hittest" price, this last one of $9.95. . . . or the outrageously fascinating sewing bucket, complete with thimble, needle sized pin cushion. . . . and lid for $12.95.

SULLIVAN'S will welcome questions about your home furnishing problems. . . . advice is expert and FREE. If you're planning a home for last-minute loveliness don't wait too long before dropping into 413 Main street.
