N.D. Vets' Bonus Blanks Available

Former residents of North Dakota who served in World War II may now obtain application blanks locally for the veterans' bonus being paid by that state, the Oregon department of veterans' affairs announced this week.

The forms are available through county veterans' service officers and the state veterans' department at the state library building, Salem, and 415 S. W. 11th avenue, Portland.

North Dakotans still in active service, and next of kin of deceased North Dakota veterans, should write to the adjutant general's office, bonus division, Fraine Barracks, Bismarck, N. D., for application blanks.

The North Dakota bonus pays

$12.50 for each month of domestic duty in World War II. Service must have been for at least 90 days for those who resided in the state at least six months prior to active duty in World War II. Service must have been for at least 90 days for the period between January 1, 1941, and January 1, 1946.
