

Tulelake Gymnasium Being Revamped

TULELAKE — The gymnasium of the high school is getting a face lifting that will be completed by the end of the week.

To obtain more light, walls are being painted in colors ranging from white to deep green and a new string of lights is being installed. The entire floor of the high school building has also been insulated. The Tulelake Cabinet shop was responsible for the insulation, Roper and Hoper for the painting and Ralph Faussett for the lighting. Howard Perrin of Klamath Falls was the architect.

Scientists estimate that two million million cosmic rays hit the earth's atmosphere each second.

Potato Seed Yield High for Next Crop

An estimated 219,000 sacks of certified netted gem seed were produced in Klamath county this year, which will leave enough seed to plant about 11,000 acres next year after allowing for shrink and grade out, according to information released by the county extension office.

Total potato acreage for the county was 10,600 acres this season. Certified netted gem seed accounted for 929 acres of the total. Potato acreage for Klamath Basin totaled 19,227 acres.

Judging by past experience it is safe to assume that half of the certified seed crop will move as table stock.

Grouping makes identification of disease symptoms in plants easier. Earlier identification or removal is possible. A grouping of certified seed acreage shows 143 acres to be Montana seed, 132 acres of Ashton Idaho seed, and 200 acres of miscellaneous imported seed. Local seed was planted on the 444 acre balance.

Certified seed lists showing results of field inspections are available at the county agents' office. Lots listed are eligible for certification tags now. Foundation tags will not be issued until test planting results are received.

Netted gem seed samples will again be test planted at Oceanside, Calif. Samples from Jefferson, Crook, Deschutes, and Klamath counties have been gathered at the Klamath experiment station.

Modoc Toastmasters Observe Anniversary

The Modoc club of Toastmasters International helped celebrate the silver anniversary of the organization's first meeting, Tuesday evening.

Speakers for the evening were Ted Hanson, Bob Mitchell, Julius Giuntioni, Carl Wildermuth and Joe LaClair. It is of interest to note that the Modoc club holds charter No. 98 out of a present total of more than 800 charters granted by this international organization.

Plans for an intensive course in speechcraft are under way in the club.

Pork, Sheep Club To Hold Meeting

The Malin Porkers and Malin Sheep club will hold their first meeting at 2 p.m. November 6, at the A. G. Scott home.

Any child who will be nine years old before January 1, 1950, is eligible to become a 4-H club member. Children interested in raising a hog or sheep are asked to come to the meeting so that the clubs may be organized for the new year. Parents are invited to attend.

Mrs. Scott and Mr. Weatherby will lead the pork club again this year and there will be a new leader for the sheep club.

Week's Vacation For Thanksgiving

TULELAKE — Tulelake schools will have a full week's vacation for Thanksgiving.

Teachers will attend institute November 21-23 at Yreka and school will be dismissed the 24-25 for the holiday.

A holiday on Armistice Day will be observed with a football game with Malin in the Oregon town.
