

SOCIETY

By Sally
Kent

ATTENDANTS of Constance Hunt adjusted her veil just before she walked down the aisle to become Mrs. Irvin Lee Whitt last Sunday. Jean Hilton and Ruth Landry attended Connie.

Above, right: MR. AND MRS. IRVIN WHITT stand before the altar of the First Methodist church after their afternoon wedding.

—Jones-Miller studio.

Hunt-Whitt Rites Read Last Sunday

The First Methodist church was decorated with bronze and yellow chrysanthemums and pompons for the wedding last Sunday of Constance June Hunt, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Hunt, and Irvin Lee Whitt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernis Whitt.

The Rev. Martindale Woods read the ceremony before the altar decked with baskets of flowers, palms, and candelabra, at two thirty in the afternoon.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, chose a gown of ice blue satin, fashioned with a peplum which ended in a lace edged train, and sweetheart neckline studded with seed pearls. Her fingertip veil was of illusion net and she carried a heart-shaped wreath of elf roses and stephanotis, centered with a single orchid.

Miss Jean Hilton, maid of honor, and Miss Ruth Landry, bridesmaid, wore identical gowns of mulberry colored satin, and carried bouquets of yellow roses and pompons. Nylon net crowns were their hats.

Best man for the groom was Calvin Adkisson of Prineville; and William Keesee and Lawrence Scott were ushers.

Before the ceremony Sandy Poteet sang "Beloved It Is Now," accompanied by Mrs. Robert Stevens, who also played incidental organ music.

Ruth and Shirley Gaylord, dressed in gold colored taffeta gowns, lighted tapers.

Mrs. Hunt, mother of the bride, wore a grey fallie afternoon dress with cerise and white accessories. Mrs. Whitt, mother of the groom chose a black dress, worn with green accessories.

The reception, immediately following the double ring ceremony, was in the church parlors, which were decorated with chrysanthemums.

Presiding at the tea table were Mrs. Warren Hunt and Mrs. Kermit Sheets; and Mrs. A. B. Epperson and Mrs. Oliver Spiker assisted about the room.

Miss Dorothy Collier passed the guest book.

For traveling the bride chose a powder blue suit with her orchid on her shoulder, a pink hat, and black accessories.

After spending several days at the Oregon Caves and Western Oregon, the couple is now at home here.

COMMUNITY CHEST WORKERS are conducting their door-to-door campaign this year with the idea that each individual should have the privilege of participating in the drive. Husbands may give at their place of business, children may give up a candy bar, and housewives may deprive themselves of some luxury, in order to participate. Just a suggestion.

Above, center: CHAIRMAN OF THE SECTION LEADERS Mrs. James Pin-niger and Mrs. George Clark prepare the campaign.

Above, left: SECTION LEADERS Mrs. Earl Redmond and Mrs. Paul Buck have many assistants to help them cover their sections of the community.

Above, right: MRS. HAGEN MOORE and Mrs. Paul Tanner have much work ahead of them as section leaders.

—Guderian.

PHONING is a big part of a project such as the Community Chest drive. Section Leaders Mrs. Wesley Guderian, Mrs. G. A. Dakin and Mrs. Burge Mason Jr., will do much phone contacting in the next few weeks.

—Guderian.

THEIR MATERIAL ASSEMBLED, these section leaders in the Community Chest drive are ready for action. From left to right are Mrs. George Dimbat, Mrs. Melvin Leonard, Mrs. Earl Sheridan and Mrs. Lawrence Brown.

—Guderian.

GIRL SCOUTS, HOUSEWIVES, and civic workers will assist Mrs. Lowell Kaup, Mrs. Everett Dennis and Mrs. E. L. Mitchell, pictured here.

—Guderian.