Typhoon Death Toll 779

MANILA, Nov. 8 (AP)—The Manila Red Cross tonight announced 47 more deaths in the October 31 typhoon that swept the Central Philippines, bringing the total dead and missing to 779.

Twenty-five persons were drowned when the motorboat San Vicente was wrecked off Surigao and 22 others were swept out to sea by a tidal wave at Pintuyan, Leyte, the Red Cross said.

The known dead now stand at 279 with 500 others missing and presumed dead.

Crommelin Gets Back on Job

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8 (AP)—Capt. John G. Crommelin, whose release of confidential navy correspondence touched off the congressional investigation of military policy, got off today with only a sharp reprimand. He was restored to active duty.

Admiral Forrest P. Sherman, the new naval chief of operations, disposed of Crommelin's case by writing him a letter of reprimand. The letter said Crommelin had violated navy regulations.

Reynolds Travel Race Fails

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 8 (AP)—Milton Reynolds' attempt to set a new round-the-world air passenger record failed by some nine hours and 15 minutes.

The Chicago penmaker arrived here yesterday 6 days, 12 hours and 30 minutes after he started. He had hoped to beat the commercial airline passenger record of six days, three hours and 15 minutes held by Eddie Eagan, head of the New York state boxing commission.

Reynolds lost 24 hours when his ship had to turn back to Guam after thre hours en route to Honolulu. Engine trouble was the cause.

STORM STOPPAGE

TACOMA, Nov. 8 (AP) — The storm which hit the Pacific Northwest last night forced construction crews to stop work on the Narrows bridge—just nine years to the day after the first bridge was blown to pieces.

Escaped Convicts Give New Pine Creek "Restless" Time

NEW PINE CREEK — Two escaped convicts, William M. McBride, 24, doing a 1 to 10 year term for robbery and Robert E. Bush, 21, in for 1 to 5 years for robbery were caught at the edge of town here by Sheriff Tommy Elliot and District Attorney Robert L. Welch, at 9:30 p. m. Saturday.

The prisoners, both trustees at the state highway construction camp No. 39, made their break at about 11:30 Friday evening by wiring around a switch in a state truck. Out of gas apparently the truck stalled along the newly constructed highway at Sugar hill where it was abandoned by the escapees, who came on north through the fields and spent the day hiding in the willows in the ranch meadows just west of town down toward the lake shore and the railroad tracks.

Futile Trap

A road block had been set up during Saturday at the state line in the middle of town of which the prisoners seemed to be aware so they kept to the Oregon side of the line and were scared off from an attempt to steal a farm truck from the Ernest Robnett ranch earlier in the evening.

This alerted the officers conducting the road block and Sergeant Lemke of the Oregon state police sent in a call for assistance from Sheriff Elliott at about 8:45. He and District Attorney Welch, spotted the two men at the edge of town beside the road and while the spot light played on them they jumped out and apprehended the two prisoners. The fugitives threw up their hands, offering little resistance and confessed to being the escapees sought. They were taken to the Modoc county jail in Alturas to await trial and further disposition.

Residents of New Pine Creek spent a rather restless day here Saturday when news that the escaped convicts were in the vicinity and everyone took special vigilance over their cars and trucks.

Judge Cites Contempt In Attack Case

TACOMA, Nov. 8 (AP)—A contempt of court citation was issued yesterday against George M. V. Brown, Pierce county welfare administrator, for refusal to produce department records asked by attorney for 16 youths charged with raping a Tacoma housewife.

Superior Judge Max Church ordered Brown to show cause tomorrow why he should not be held in contempt. The judge said Brown told him Saturday he would not produce the records as it would violate a department directive.

State Wins

The contempt order was issued during a day in which the state won out over defense attorneys on the right to let witnesses relate conversations they held with Mrs. Marie Charlton, 23, the alleged victim of the mass rape.

Judge Church permitted the testimony but instructed the jury it was to be considered only as indicative of Mrs. Charlton's state of mind. The woman, a former patient at the Western State hospital, was recommitted to the Stellacoom institution after the alleged attack and died there of pneumonia in August.

Morning After

Mrs. Clara Lerew testified that Mrs. Charlton came to a mid-town apartment completely nude the morning after the night-long orgy.

"What happened to you?" Mrs. Lerew said she asked Mrs. Charlton.

"Some boys took me out and had some fun with me."

"Where are your clothes?"

"The boys threw them away."

Several other witnesses testified similarly.

In San Francisco — Mrs. Allen Mocabee Sr., 1607 Crescent, is spending a few days in San Francisco and is returning tomorrow.

From Medford—Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Williams and family from Medford spent Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. George Mast, 5332 Harlan drive.

Meeting — Theta Rho girls will meet Wednesday in the IOOP hall at 7:30 p.m. All members are asked to be present.

At Craigs—Patricia Henry is now employed at Craigs shop.

23 Years Ago

Monday, November 8, 1926 — Klamath Falls and Eugene clasped hands in everlasting friendship yesterday afternoon when three special trains carrying more than 1,700 Eugenians arrived to see for themselves the "Cascade" line and the development and expansions experienced by Klamath Falls since the new line was started.

★ ★ ★

Tuesday, November 9, 1926 — Mr. and Mrs. Claud Davis of the Davis Furniture store arrived home from the south last evening where they spent several days on business. While in San Francisco they purchased new merchandise for the local store.

★ ★ ★

Wednesday, November 10, 1926 — Troop No. 3, Boy Scouts, selected as their patrol leaders last evening Cletus McMahon and Keith Ruconich; assistant patrol leaders John Vaughn and Robert Caldwell. Much interest is being shown by the members of this troop, and many interesting activities for the year are being planned.

★ ★ ★

Thursday, November 11, 1926 — Klamath Falls was nosed out of second place in state building by Salem during the month of October, according to totals received here today in a coast building summary issued by S. W. Straus and company. Portland led the state with 1,229 permits totaling $2,624,320.

★ ★ ★

Friday, November 12, 1926 — Armistice day in Klamath was celebrated this year by a terrific battle in which real guns with real ammunition were discharged from dawn to dark, bring up memories of a hot sector on the western front in France. Only this time, instead of Boches, it was ducks and the latter, for the most part, came out ahead.

★ ★ ★

Saturday, November 13, 1926 — Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Krause will sail from San Francisco next Wednesday on the steamer "President Polk," for a world tour. Present plans are for their return to Klamath Falls in March, 1927. The first stop will be in Honolulu. They will then proceed to Japan, China, Manila and on through the Straits to various other lands of interest.
