

RONALD STERLAND is a boy of many activities. In addition to being drum major of the Klamath Union high school band, and marches in all the half-time drills, Ronald is president of the senior class, president of the band, and has played the sousaphone in the band for four years. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Sterland, 1865 Academy.

Favors Decor

TULELAKE—Mrs. Hugh Bronson, past president of Tulelake chapter, Order of the Eastern Star was honored by the Past Matron's club, October 26 with a potluck luncheon at the home of Mrs. Ival Wolfe. Halloween favors were used as decorations.

Mrs. Bronson was presented with a gift. With Rev. Bronson she is leaving to make her home in Spokane.

Invited for the luncheon were Mrs. Otis Roper, Mrs. Charles K. Wiese, Mrs. N. H. Wilkinson, Mrs. Ray Laird, Mrs. T. C. Hagerty, Mrs. George Fischer, Mrs. Walter Golden, Mrs. Norman Esser and the guest of honor, Mrs. Bronson and baby son Bobby.

BRIDGE CLUB MEETS

Lawn Party

HENLEY—Little Steven Douglas, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas, celebrated his second birthday on October 23.

Mrs. Clement entertained with a lawn party for Steven at their home. Thirty-five people enjoyed the birthday cake and ice cream.

Steven received many gifts.

Eighth Grade Party
HENLEY—Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hannon entertained the eighth grade with a Halloween party Monday night at the garage hall.

All nineteen came dressed in costumes. Patsy O'Donohue received the prize for the best girl's costume, and Robert Hill won for the best boy's costume.

Prize for making the best bobgoblin went to Dean Gordy and the bean prize went to Ellie Smyth. Halloween games were enjoyed by all. Refreshments were served at 9:30 p.m.

Clever Costumes

The Halloween party held in the Main church for the Girl Scouts and children of the legion and auxiliary was well attended.

The costumes were so good, it was hard for the judges to decide the winners. The winners were Sharon Scott as a bunny, Roxanne Wilson as a tramp, Diane Fuston, an Indian squaw; Beverly Scott as Robin Hood, Delores Steward as a pirate, Johnny Fairclough, tiny cowboy; Sue Martin as a Jack-in-the-box and Janice Sarukaki as a bum.

The judges were Irene Jelinek, Inez Fallis, and Mrs. Theresa McComb.

Irene Freitag, chairman for games and stunts, with her assistant, Irene Jelinek kept the guests busy with exciting ghostly stories and games. Erma Fairclough played for the grand march. Prizes were given for games.

Refreshments were served to the 60 guests by Ethel Roberts, Hazel Kalina, Mrs. Martin, Jo Fabianik, and Irene Jelinek.

Hazel Kalina had charge of decorations.

Guests See Movie

MERRILL—Donna, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Drago, observed her 10th birthday Sunday, October 30.

A group of young friends were invited for ice cream and cake and then enjoyed a movie at the Broadway theatre in Malin.

Guests of Donna were Patsy Brown, Margaret Petrik, Sue Fields, Donna and Peggy Carson, Judy and Nancy Dewey, Sally DeLap, Katherine and Myrtle Barnes, Rae Dean Marks, and Diane and Beverly Walker.

are the HAND-BAGS at LA POINTE'S. Here are bags, bags, beautiful bags for Christmas giving in price ranges to meet every budget. A handbag is all things to a woman, her portable dressing table, so think twice before discarding THIS idea for her Christmas stocking.

We're tipping you off... here is a buy, swanky new fall bags in a $5.00 group that look like originals... calf, suede, botany, faille, cord and satin in black, browns, Hunter green, wine, beige and British tan... a table full of bags suitable for every costume... really hand-some bags at this price.

You'll like the stunning accent of simulated Chinese shell on bags in the $7.50 selection... others with gold or crystal trim... the botanys in this selection are marvelous for afternoon or evening use... many are the "new as tomorrow morning" over-the-arm style that women never tire of.

Really, LA POINTE'S bags are so IMPORTANT looking that we couldn't pick out any particular ONE but we CAN tell you we found others from $8.95 to $27.50, devastatingly lovely. Manufacturers have done such ingenious tricks with cord (did you know it leads the list in fabric bags for dress-up) designs are padded to stand out... linings in leather or satin are luscious even in the inexpensive bags... fittings are important too, and boxy bags are TOPS... in these higher priced bags we found an important new COLOR, cherry red.

Every woman needs at least one reptile bag and LA POINTE'S is certainly headquarters for these, cobra, alligator and lizard... browns, grays and greens, exquisitely styled... some new "satchels" with the "new view"... this is a long, narrow bag that opens wide for easier "gleaning." Reptiles sell from $12.95 to $19.95, way below prices of a year or so ago.

LA POINTE'S bags are styled youthfully for young girls or mature women. Before we left the store we discovered clever little novelty handbags for teen-agers... complete with lipstick, comb and change purse, in suedes and faille... gobs of colors for $3.00.

One of these bags will highlight her CHRISTMAS whatever her AGE... you'll find them at 307 Main.

Do you know that in spite of "Tables and song" about the tea drinking English that this nation drinks more coffee than tea? Tea is brought in the early morning and at tea time; otherwise, coffee is served, especially at 11 o'clock in the morning with a biscuit. Served at this hour it is called Eleveners by the British and is a child of the blitz when a pick-me-up was needed to carry a weary people through long mornings. English coffee is a much darker blend than that used in this country. An English housewife makes the entire day's portion at one brewing.

Visions of Beauty to dance through the night are the FORMALS and DINNER DRESSES we found to tell you about this week at MILLER'S.

They're silky, sultry, wonderful, dynamic and demure! Sweet and seductive! Winter wardrobe spice sparkling, gay and exciting!

You know these names... Marvian's... Emma Domb... Eleanor Green... L. B. Morris... all designers who know how to combine festive materials with rhinestones and sequins... lace and ribbons to make dresses that Venus might have worn.

After dark frocks are as feminine as your perfume whether you choose taffeta, satin, net, crepe, a brocade of lace... material is just the beginning of a Christmas dream dress... it must have glamour of trim... floating panels skirt fullness, twinkling accents, wisps of sleeves or none at all, misty fragility or fabulous elegance... there's sheer sorcery in color in the beauties we found at MILLER'S... lime green, butter cup yellow, winter white, bluish pink, chartreuse, champagne, fuchsia, salmon pink, aqua, nile green, black, ice blue, lemon yellow.

We all know by now that satin is first love in fabric this season... you'll like a champagne darling in that color... very full skirted with crinoline pettiskirt or the nile green starched marquisette... pleated ruffle to top your "bosom" and a froth of mauve velvet ribbon for witchery.

Sizes and prices are flexible... 10-44... we found some stunning models for the larger woman... especially we liked a long sleeved cocoa lace with an intriguing draped skirt... smart no end for the fuller figure as was a black touched with silver trim... prices are from $19.95 to $39.50 and the stock is complete. There's mistletoe magic in these "big evening" frocks, here in time for holiday festivities at 512 Main street.

Land of Enchantment!
You'll be whisked away from this dull work-a-day world once you enter the doors of the ART CENTER. This week it was like taking a trip into fairyland after we found the fragile, "new kind" of hand made glassware made by Nicholas Bruick of Van Nuys, California and his pretty wife Lois. Mr. Bruick by the way was here during the war years as Director of Red Cross at the Marine Barracks so that almost makes him "home folks."

Don't miss seeing this display of beautiful glass... dyes are dropped by hand into the clear molten glass to make splatter patterns, some like delicate fern leaves... colors are beyond description... blue, mauve, grape and Christmas red... you'll be enchanted with the big flat trays in 3 sizes, the charming bowls, modern, smart SQUARE plates... oblong serving trays... ash trays... prices are so low we couldn't believe it... they start at $1.00.

The ART CENTER has stunning HANDMADE Christmas cards by Nancy of Carmel... we just CAN'T describe these, they are so utterly lovely... you'll be proud to send such cards... many in the smart new colors, wine and blue... all touched with glitter, delicate as snow flakes.

A recent visitor from New York was so entranced by many of the HANDMADE gifts she found at the ART CENTER that she made a big dent in her shopping list, right here in Klamath Falls because she found gifts she HADN'T found elsewhere on her travels.

Well, wager you've never seen such versatility of pattern as we found in the block printed and silk screen wrapping paper for Christmas and other gifts. Each sheet is individually named... listen! "Sleigh Bells"... "Trees"... "Good Skates"... "Hearts and Feathers"... "Sailor B Ware"... "Noah's Ark"... Ribbons to match or complement... them. Like holly and mistletoe trim and evergreens... these pair-offs at WHYTAL'S are made for each other. Buy the trio... two matching skirts and a jacket or purchase them separately.

With separates you put yourself together your own way... switch them about for individual chic... these clever little jackets with backs and sleeves of plain wool in bright winter colors... jacket fronts and collars of matching plaid... two skirts... the solid color straight as an arrow with front kick pleat... the darling plaid pleated all around... These Pair-offs are Pay-offs by Koret of California, need we say more except that they come in navy, Kelly green and brown... sizes 10 through 18... perfect costumes for early winter sports or for mid-season buying for campus casuals.

WHYTAL'S can show you jog-a-long jackets and fashion sharpened duos, pretty all round pleated plaid skirts in scarlet and gray, teamed with wool knit scarlet jackets... a clever idea if ever you saw one... the little turn over collar and buttons of the skirt material tie the ensemble together... sizes 12 through 20.

The universal favorites of fashion wise costs are SKIRTS and WHYTAL'S has racks of them... all wool and a yard wide... plain, plaids, stripes, checks... sweet as a spring song, a multi-colored plaid... every color under the sun, so subtly blended that you really don't see any particular one... choose any shade of sweater and THIS skirt will match it... it zips up the back... made by Copeland of California.

Take your time when you visit WHYTAL'S to look at skirts... you'll find so many, even a darling black faille with "up the back" ruffle that it will be hard to decide... skirt sizes from 22 to 40 waistline... you'll find what you want at 901 Main street

Pumpkins Decor

The Charles H. Leik home in Pelican City, appropriately decorated and lighted only with pumpkin heads and black cat faces was the spooky setting for the Pilgrim Fellowship Halloween party Saturday October 29. Costumed guests were greeted at the door by a grinning red devil and entered to greet their fellow guests were. Games, stunts and dancing, the usual cider, doughnuts and apples, and a parade judging best costumes, filled the evening.

The Rev. and Mrs. Godfrey Matthews, of the Congregational church, were judges, and awarded first prizes to Marilyn Hardin, a lovely lady pirate, and to Donnie Leik, dressed as "The Mummy."

Other outstanding costumes were worn by Herman Pence, a Spanish dancer; Harold Wirth, the Cisco Kid; Arlene Klemmeier, a black cat; and Dick Dewey, a witch.

The party also included Mildred Mitchell, Jeannine Newcom, Donna Everett, Dixie Davis, Glenn Lewis, Rev. and Mrs. Godfrey Matthews, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Leik and Bob Leik, who came down from Eugene especially for the party.

Louise O'Brien entertained Ye Olde Pinnocchio club on Thursday October 27 for luncheon and cards. There were three guests, Elizabeth Sheehy, Ada Barden and Velma Mitchell. Ada Barden received the award for high score, Elizabeth Sheehy second, Lorene McCollum low, and Kathryn Billings the pinnocchio award. The next meeting will be with Minnie Padgett.

Meeting Place Change

MERRILL—Beginning November 15, Women of the Moose will hold all meetings in the IOOF hall instead of the recreation hall where they have met in the past. This announcement was made at the November 1 meeting by Maggie Adams, senior regent.

The Moosehaven and homemaking committees will hold a cooked food sale on Saturday, November 19, at Griggs grocery store. Jo Selby and Eva Orr are chairman and their committees will assist them.

The College of Regents committee reported that the check stand at the dance was a financial success. It was announced that the Friendship committee meeting would be held November 11 at the home of Louisa Icenbice. The husbands are invited.

Following the meeting refreshments were served by the library chairman and her committee.

At the November 15, meeting the chapter night program of the library committee will be held with Jo Selby chairman. Members are urged to bring gifts for Moosehaven Christmas box at this time so that the box will be ready to send in the near future.

Daisies Won't Tell you about the fetching old-world china GIFTWARES that we promised YOUR STORE we WOULD tell you about this week... lovely imported pieces from far-away countries that so few of us ever get to see... China, Japan, Italy, Czechoslovakia, Germany, England, Bavaria, France, coming back once more after the turbulent war years.

YOUR STORE has a fabulous display on the main floor, of hundreds of items... many of them collectors' pieces... exquisitely designed... alive with color... just in time for the mad, merry, yuletide season. You'll find this the largest selection of imported giftwares that YOUR STORE has ever shown... cigarette boxes, ash trays... compotes, little fluted baskets, delicate figurines, bowls, trays, powder boxes, just as a hint... starting as low as $1.00. Look at the lovely Chinese porcelains... you'll smile with the "God of Happiness"... yearn over ginger jars... fairly litch to own one of the delicate hand carved Chinese bone sampans or a paper thin, translucent rice bowl... or a brass candle snuffer or a dinner bell.

Only the Chinese can make anything as gorgeous as the jewel set cigarette boxes we looked at or the darling brass teapots... don't let the grass grow under your feet before getting off to Christmas shopping... start today at 721 Main street.

YOUR STORE.

It's the twist at the wrist that counts in gloves this season. On the strictest little casual to the sophisticated glove, there are saucy ruffles, petal-like puffs and flashes of soft laces. Colors, too, are braver and brighter... doeskins and leathers brilliantly dyed; knits interwoven with metallic threads, suedes and fabrics wearing contrasting thumbs that may pick up the dominant color of your ensemble.

Women Are Funny!
You can smother them in sables. You can dazzle them with jewels. But... if they don't find nylons under the Christmas tree Santa Claus is a dud.

You needn't wait for Christmas to find sheer witchery in hose. Drop into LONG'S and buy a supply of Gotham Gold Stripe "Fashion Fives," the ultimate in beauty... web-like sheerness for infinite leg flattery... a subtle new shade "Town Taupé" to blend with each of the season's fashion colors... 51 gauge... 15 denier... hidden sole... camouflage heel... secret toe... shadow seam... so delicately wrought that this hose is almost invisible... yet the Krump Twist thread is strong enough to insure long wearing qualities.

"Fashion Fives" from LONG'S are designed for afternoon and party wear... they'll be beautiful with sandals. You'll find these fragile lovelies as advertised in Harper's in sizes 8 1/2 to 10 1/2 at the only place in town that you'll find Gotham Gold Stripe hose, 719 Main street,

You'd Think By Now

we'd be calm about our Martha Shopping spree at SULLIVAN'S but how can we be when we find such values, such extra, extra quality as we found this week in RUGS at this smart shop where home furnishings are so select, SULLIVAN'S is always a feast for the artistic eye.

You'll travel many a mile, wait many a moon before finding a more complete stock of room size rugs or wall to wall carpeting than here... high pile Wiltons by Hardwick and Margee in warm silver gray, two gorgeous shades of green and lovely autumn beige... embossed Wiltons in 3 patterns and a wide range of colors... Cross Point Wiltons... these are floor coverings as you like them, deep-pile, exciting textures, distinctive rugs for coddling your toes in.

Early California rugs for beauty underfoot... perfect for a background for provincial rooms and maple... order these in any room size... they're reversible and simply won't curl.

Don't miss the dramatic Chinese hooked rug on the wall in this department... it's as distinctive as a fine tapestry... exquisite colors against a soft murrette background... all wool... hand hooked... what a superlative Christmas gift for YOUR home... made in Tao, China this $112 beauty will cost you just $137.50... or order one in the quaint colonial design, any size... SULLIVAN'S is closing out smaller sizes in these rugs at prices that are exciting.

Here's one to ask about... a Wedgewood blue wool chenille, 9x15, complete with 32 ounce Onite pad for $150.00... This is a luxurious floor covering.

This one should be in best buys and IS in the window... smart for a town apartment... a beautiful sage green cotton cut chenille... it's a large one, 12x12-6... a good buy at $187.00.

Remember too, the old stand-bys... cotton braided rugs... patterns similar to the hand-loomed "rag carpets" we used to bed down with straw... to keep out mid-west winds... we can still feel the prickling of a mouth-full of carpet tacks... multiple color combinations... many sizes.

If it's floor coverings on this month's budget, you'll get professional free advice and courteous service at 413 Main street.
