New Pine Creek

Following the splendid wild goose and duck banquet served at 7 o'clock at the grange hall last Saturday evening, the East Side grange held their election meeting at which a unanimous ballot was cast for the re-election of Darwin Robnett as grange master.

A unanimous ballot was also cast for several other officers who have been doing a good job in their office including Jack Means, overseer; Lee Perry, assistant steward; Louise Miller, secretary; Frankie Williams, chaplain; Fred Fisher, treasurer, and Imogene Bateman, musician. Other officers elected were as follows: Kenneth Butler, gate keeper; Bill Allen; Ceres, Ethel Cundiff; Peonia, Mary Milap; Flora, Maxine Robnett; Ledy, assistant. Corda Perry, executive committee, Raymond Fisher, Bill Bishop and Lute Miller; Margaret Carter assistant musician and Fannie Fisher, matron of juvenile grange.

A board of trustees was appointed with the authority to act in financial matters and be responsible for all obligations of the organization. Their names are Bill Bishop, chairman of the building committee, Fred Fisher and Darwin Robnett.

With this board now officially set up everything is in readiness to begin construction of the new juvenile grange hall which will be a 24 by 72 annex to the present building. The materials have been purchased and some of same are now on the job. Just as soon as the weather permits Martin Hammersley and two other carpenters have been engaged to do the building. Whenever and wherever possible the building committee solicits and will greatly appreciate any donated labor or assistance. If you are in a position to help contact any member of the committee.

A juvenile grange hall has been greatly needed since the fire of June 24 when the Modern Woodman hall burned which the grange had leased for the youngsters.

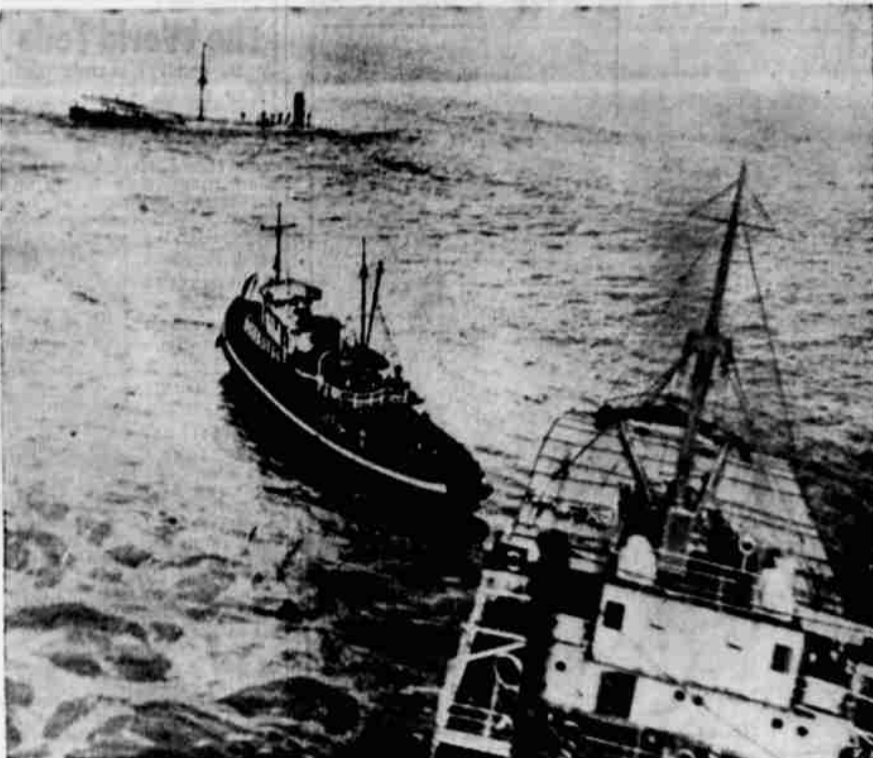

The last few meetings of the juvenile grange has been held in the home of Allie Hammersley, who generously offered it for the present emergency. Robert Faris was elected master of the juvenile grange at their meeting held last Saturday night. Barbara Fisher was elected as musician.

Home Ec Club
The Home Ec club met at the grange hall on November 3 with 17 members and eight children present. An election of officers was held putting in the following persons as officers for the coming year. Alpha Smith, chairman; Jackie O'Neil, vice chairman; Louise Miller, secretary and Imogene Bateman, treasurer.

Plans were made for the bazaar to be held November 26 with the chairman of the various booths appointed. The hostess for the meeting was Laura Martin who served apple sauce cake, ice cream, halloween candy and coffee for refreshments. Mrs. Lillian Martin will be the next hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Phillips and their two children, from San Antonio, Tex., are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. John Haner. Mrs. Haner and Mrs. Phillips were navy bus drivers at the same station in Oakland during the war.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralfeigh Goodman returned last Thursday from a several months visit in Anchorage, Alaska, where they stayed with their son who has a gyronline and Ralfeigh got to go on hunting and fishing.

ing trips and see Alaska in a manner that few are privileged or can afford to do. He had a fine time hunting caribou and fishing.

A regular meeting of the PTA was held last Friday at the Kelly Creek schoolhouse. The new officers elected for the year were Mrs. A. D. Woods, president; Mrs. Jessie McLain, vice president and Fannie Fisher, secretary - treasurer. Mrs. Homer McLain was hostess who served cookies and coffee. The next meeting of the group will be held at the schoolhouse on the second Friday of the month. All members are urged to be out. Food will be served.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Netherland and sons Buddy and Jesse were weekend visitors here with Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Johnston. They enjoyed hunting and a wild duck dinner while here. Also visiting the Johnstons on Sunday were Miss Dorothy Johnston, Miss Ella May Robins, Miss Ka Dee Spence and Frank Barnard George Perkins and Mr. Earl

Chiloquin

Driving north recently for last rites held in Mt. Angel for the late Emil Latcher were Edouard Prieux and R. H. Roseborough. Also making the trip were Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Peters who stayed in Salem with Peters' mother and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hamilton.

Mrs. Hamilton returned to Chiloquin with the Peters and was here when her son, Lee, left to return to army service. She was here also when a grandson arrived at Klamath Valley hospital. Little 6 pound 5 ounce Gregory Stephen is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Peters of Klamath Falls.

Dinner guests last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph McNutt were Mr. and Mrs. Grover Yantis of Klamath Falls. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wampler, Kathryn, Bob and Jim Wampler, the latter of whom came down from Oregon State college for the trip, spent most of last week in San Francisco sightseeing and attending the Pacific International Livestock exhibit. Jim returned directly to college but the others drove north over the Redwood highway and to Grants Pass.

An appraising committee and members of the Latcher family of Salem and Mt. Angel were in town early this week moving the possessions of the late Emil Latcher.

On last Friday evening the adult council for the Teen-Age center met for its first meeting of the year. The city hall meeting brought forth the statement that the center would be opened for the young people by the end of November. PTA appointed members are Mrs. Paul Wampler, Mrs. Kalman Pell of Modoc Point, Mrs. Frank Parker and Mrs. Gerry Wolff. Members appointed by the city council are Alan Prescott, chairman, Joseph Mercer and Dwight Kircher.

The preliminary meeting was followed by a second meeting on Tuesday evening when they met with the executive committee of the PTA and plans were laid for high school students to elect their youth council, one member for each of the upper six grades, and for them to offer six months membership tickets at one dollar each. Assistance in the center will be given by Noble Sandeville, who has recently taken over the job of recreation director for the Klamath tribes and will not only assist projects already under way in this area, but will open new recreation projects in the other two reservation towns of Sprague River and Beatty.

Mrs. Parker was named head of the chaperone procurement committee and stated that she already has an available list of adults who are willing to help but that new volunteers would be more than welcome.

Don't forget the PTA meeting on Monday evening. It promises to be a drawing card as adults in the district are sincerely interested in the problems of juvenile protection and desire to hear first hand of the conflicts in jurisdiction between the state and federal courts as regards tribal members. Both Indians and whites will be represented on the board as will be the justice of the peace, Lloyd Peters, and Circuit Court Judge, D. R. Vandenberg of Klamath Falls.

Mumps hit Chiloquin full force in the late spring and early summer and by fall it was assumed that the epidemic would die a natural death as most of the local inhabitants had already had the mumps or were immune. Now the immune ones are getting it and there are absences on the rolls of nearly every class in the school system from that cause. Now have adults been left out of the list. A few of the latest victims have been Clark Zadina, Mary Lee Collins, and Mrs. Les Hoback.

It was announced this week by Melvin Ray, principal of the grade school, and Mrs. Frank Parker, pre-school age medical roundup chairman of the PTA, that the second round of immunizations to be given by County Doctor Seth Kerron, has had a change in time schedule. Rather than on the previously announced Nov. 23, the time will be Wednesday morning, 9:30 o'clock, Nov. 30 at the grade school.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Freid and daughters Candy and Lynda are spending the week-end in Clatskanie visiting with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. L. J. Buck.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Parker and sons left on Thursday noon for Hammond, Ore., outside Astoria, to spend the Armistice Day holiday and week-end with Parkers' parents.

Burglars Praise Stout Safe

NORTH LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Nov. 12 (AP)—Burglars battered up a large wall safe at the Mechanics Lumber company last night. But this morning, Norris Erinsburg, a company official, found a note next to the safe, which read: "Good safe, we couldn't get in."

The 1948 winning U. S. Open golf score of 276 recorded by Ben Hogan is the lowest score ever posted in that tourney.

KLAMATH FALLS, Ore. (To the Editor)—A few days ago while hauling a load of hay with an old pickup truck, near the fairgrounds, something happened that caused gasoline to run over the engine and take fire. Evidently someone turned in the alarm to the Suburban Fire Dept., because, almost before I could get stopped and try to do something, they were there and put out the fire. I certainly wish to commend them on their alertness and efficiency. The unknown person who turned in the alarm is also to be thanked.

Sincerely,
WALLACE A. BUDDEN

Big Santa Claus Crowd at Seattle

SEATTLE, Nov. 12 (AP)—A crowd estimated by Seattle police as the largest in the city's history turned out for the Santa Claus parade today despite rain showers.

Police Chief George D. Eastman estimated the throng surpassed Seattle's previous record of 150,000 persons which turned out to greet President Truman in 1948.

The march of 30 giant balloons was sponsored by Seattle business firms and The Seattle Times. It stretched from Virginia street to Yesler way and back. Some of the balloons were 80 feet long.

WALTER W. STOLL, SEATTLE, Nov. 12 (AP)—Walter W. Stoll, president and general manager of the Alaska Pacific Consolidated Mining companies died at a hospital today.

Children's Bodies Found in Pool

ARISTA, W. Va., Nov. 12 (AP)—Bodies of three young children of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Shrewsbury were found late last night in a pool of water behind a coal mine slate dump here.

The victims—Richard 7, Judy 8 and Fay 3—apparently had been playing in a rowboat tied at the edge of the pool and drowned when it capsized.

The Shrewsburies have three other children. The father is a sawmill worker.
