

By SALLY KENT

Duck Dinner

While Rotarians met Thursday night for their traditional duck dinner, a group of Rotary Annes was entertained with a duck dinner by Mrs. Lloyd C. Prock at her home on Lakeshore drive.

Bridge followed and Mrs. Prock's guests included Mrs. Robert P. Ellington Sr., Mrs. Robert Sproat, Mrs. Dick Reeder, Mrs. O. K. Puckett, Mrs. DeLos Mills, Mrs. John D. Merryman and Mrs. Lawrence Bertram. Miss Eleanor Prock assisted her mother in serving.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd A. Boyd of Pacific Terrace are spending a holiday in California.

Sorority Concludes Fall Rushing Stint

Tau chapter of Beta Sigma Phi, with Joan Puckett as president and Mrs. Marshall Cornett as advisor, has just concluded its annual fall rushing activities. The first party for the prospective pledges was a card party held in the kindergarten on East Main street on October 6, at 8 p. m.

Canasta, bridge and pinochle were played during the evening with prizes going to June Orem, Mary Miller and Juanita Fried.

Refreshments were served to Mildred Hall, Joan Puckett, DeLorraine Heath, Gloria Canton, Jo Sullivan, Wanda Castel, Sylvia Clayton, Shirley Perkins, June Orem, Mary Miller, Pat Brady, Goldie Anderson, Libbie Ober, Dorothy Skeil, Juanita Fried and Kay Schlotzhauer.

On October 10 at 8 p. m. at the home of Sylvia Clayton, a model meeting was held with Joan Puckett, president, presiding. This special meeting is held each year to acquaint the rushes with the aims and ideals of the sorority and to give them an idea of the program being offered by Beta Sigma Phi.

A costume circus party was held on October 13 at 8 p. m. in the recreation hall at the housing project with the following guests and members present, Lois Foster, Libbie Ober, Melba Jester, Goldie Anderson, DeLorraine Heath, Wanda Castel, Sylvia Clayton, Joan Puckett, Jo Sullivan, Gloria Canton and Shirley Perkins.

As the final rushing activity for the 1949 season, a lovely fall tea was held in the home of Mrs. Marshall Cornett on October 23 with the pledges of Tau chapter and members of Xi Delta chapter of Beta Sigma Phi as guests. Tea was served between the hours of three and five in the afternoon with Joan Puckett, Catherine Wright, Doris McCord and Mrs. Marshall Cornett pouring.

An impressive candlelight pledging ceremony was held at the home of Ruth Estes, 2345 Radcliffe, November 3, following the business meeting conducted by President Joan Puckett.

Hostesses for the evening were Phyllis McNece, Jo Sullivan, Shirley Perkins, and Ruth Estes.

Beta Sigma Phi is an international organization, non-academic, using as its motto, "Life Learning, and Friendship."

A CHARMING AFTERNOON TEA, given by Mrs. Fred Hoagland and Mrs. LeRoy Carter, who are in the upper picture, was an event of last Wednesday in the Pelican party room. Joyce Lee Hoagland and Patty Teale assisted the hostesses, and are pictured below with Mrs. Harold Teale, who poured. —Guderian.

Left: MRS. SETH KERRON and Mrs. Laurence Shaw received many guests at the beautiful tea on November 3, at the Shaw home on Huron street. Here Mrs. Kerron and Mrs. Shaw greet Mrs. Paul Farrans and Mrs. O. H. Buffington.

Above: Assisting about the rooms during the tea hours were twenty-four attractively gowned friends. Mrs. Dick Reeder, left, and Mrs. Nelson Reed chat for a moment. —Guderian.

Sallies... by SALLY

Mr. and Mrs. August Andrieu of Midland returned home this week after a two and a half month trip to Europe. They came across on the new French liner "Ile De France."

The Andrieus saw Paris, traveled through France, seeing many beautiful cathedrals and points of interest, then through Switzerland, Italy, and in Rome they visited the Vatican.

On the return trip, the voyagers took the southern route through the Riviera, and visited relatives in Aignon in south central France. Belgium, Holland and England were not missed, either, with sight-seeing along the way.

Football was uppermost in the minds of most Klamath folks who found a convenient double holiday with schools closed on Friday, Armistice Day.

Going south for the Oregon-Cal game Friday morning were Mr. and Mrs. Burge Mason Jr. and their two children, Clarissa and John, and Mr. and Mrs. Burge Mason Sr.

Other Klamath folks who saw that game this week-end were Mr. and Mrs. Bryant Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Truman Runyan and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sproat, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Clark and Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Molatore.

Those attending the tea Wednesday given by Mrs. Carter and Mrs. Hoagland probably noticed the beautiful arrangement of Pampas grass, used as part of the decor.

The grass was sent to Mrs. Stanley Miller, who offered it for the tea, by Mrs. Harry Bathiany, formerly of Klamath Falls. Mrs. Bathiany now lives in Harbor, Ore.

From colleges here and there—Mary Lou Poole, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. M. W. Poole, spent last week-end with her parents. Bev Hofstetter of Salem accompanied Mary Lou from Oregon State college, where they are both students.

From the University of Oregon comes word that James Howard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Anderson is now a cadet commissioned officer in the ROTC program on the Oregon campus. He is a senior in business administration.

Elaborate arrangements were made for the entertainment of OSC alumni for Homecoming this year.

The traditional bonfire and noise parades were events of Friday night, and house signs were all in working order for the grads to view.

For the big thrill of the week-end, the Beavers really trounced Washington State on Saturday. During the game the flash card section was in action, spelling out "Washington," "OSC" and all sorts of things.

Alumni dances in the Memorial Union and the boys' gym after the game climaxed the exciting week-end for OSC fans.

Can't-Make-Up-My-Mind Dept. — which is harder—a baby show or a dog show—as far as the strain on nerves go? Last Sunday an amazing number of people attended Klamath Kennel Club's first dog show at the fairgrounds, and probably the class which drew the greatest interest was the children's handling class. Two pups became embroiled in a snapping, snarling contest and the owner of one animal removed it from the ring, and quick as a flash, another dog owner gave the little handler another dog to show.

One wee mite in a red pleated skirt and bonnet provoked whacked her dog a couple of times when the animal became too fractious.

The Don Kenyon family was on pins and needles while Life of Riley, a one-year-old red cocker, went into competition. He came off with honors and not only in the male cocker class, but Janice Kenyon won a ribbon in the children's handling division.

All good, clean fun, lots of excitement, cheers and tears.

Two sisters who hadn't seen each other in 40 years, and two who hadn't met in 33 years, had a reunion at the home of Mrs. H. M. Hargrave in Medford last week. The three are Mrs. J. R. Campbell of Detroit, Mich., Mrs. Marguerite Runde of Oakland and Mrs. Hargrave who, with her husband and daughter, Mrs. Bennett, moved to the valley city recently from Klamath Falls.

They spent three weeks, just talking about old times and catching up on the news.

When Ruby and Rahl Hastings were here last week-end from Sacramento, Ruby was enthusiastic over her new venture into ceramics. She's advancing rapidly in the fine art of glaze and what other intricacies of hand work go into ceramics.

Which just goes to prove that Klamath folks know where the good food is. Thirty-nine moved to Langell valley last Wednesday night to partake of turkey and other fine eatments put on by the Guild of St. Barnabas church. Some 200 were fed during the evening and the Girls Friendly society obliged with a fish pond. There was a bazaar and a "parcel post sale," all of which contributed to fun.

Although this list may not be quite complete, those we know of who went from here were Rev. and Mrs. F. C. Wisenbach, Miss Hazel Morrison and her mother, Mrs. A. R. Morrison, Miss Mary E. Stewart, Mrs. Raymond H. Reeves, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Bunker, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Livingston, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin L. Weaver and Mrs. Francis R. Olds, Mr. and Mrs. James Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. James Wallinder, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Luver and young Dennis, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pepple, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Pepple, Mrs. Frank Pepple, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Teare, Mrs. Isabelle Jackson and children, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hall and family, Mr. and Mrs. Keith O'Hair and children, Mrs. Bert Vaagen and her mother, Mrs. May Schmidt.

Smorgasbord To Be Served Tonight

Monte Carlo night at the Elks club begins at 8:30 tonight with an eventful evening for Elks and their ladies promised by Moon Mullis, chairman of the affair.

Featured on the program is the showing of the movies of the Elks convention held here last summer.

Assisting with the games during the evening will be Donald Hunt, Bernie Rawlins, Ernie Lindsay, Hale Scarborough, Estin Kiger, John Schubert, Vern Moore, John Rafeto Sr., Ray Moon, Homer Ellis, Glen Evans, Jack Myers, John Sandmeyer, Darrell Miller, Tom Young, Howard Smith, Harry Leonard, Frank Peyton, Jim Clark, Mark Smith, Charles Seavey, Robert Drago, Willard Ward, Lou Drager, C. M. Gilmore, Chuck O'Connor, Fred Glover, Eston Balsiger, and many others.

Guest prizes will be awarded to the ladies, and a smorgasbord will be served.

Mrs. Harry W. Bathiany has had a busy week visiting with old friends in Klamath Falls and with her daughter and family, the Jack Crawfords of Tulelake. Mrs. Bathiany, whose home is in Harbor, will spend Thanksgiving with her son Bob and family in California.

Nile Supreme Queen Visits Club Here

Zuleima Temple, Daughters of the Nile, held their special ceremonial last Saturday in the Masonic temple, with Mrs. Howard Listoe general chairman of the afternoon's activities.

A buffet luncheon preceded the ceremony in the Legion hall where over 250 guests dined smorgasbord style.

Supreme Queen Clara Lee Kittle was special guest of the afternoon, on her official visit to Zuleima temple. Princess Badoura Sally Luke of Portland was also a distinguished guest.

Forty-four candidates were initiated. Those from Klamath Falls were Mary Thompson, Alice Thurston Howard, Martha Hubbard, Willie Jane Kennedy, Vera Thompson Powell, Clara Rose Douglass, Beulah E. Balsiger, Myrtle Ackerman, Ruth Winter, Doris Simmons, Isabel M. Dehlinger, Dorothy Dehlinger, Joannah M. Chapman, Mary Barkdoll, Mary Lee Stanley, and Gladys Bingham.

A charming tea, arranged by Mrs. Dean Osborn, followed the initiation ceremony in the parlor of the Masonic temple, with 350 members present.

Pouring were Mrs. Fred Holcomb, Mrs. Marshall Cornett, Mrs. Carl Steintreifer, and Mrs. Loren Palmerton.

Fall Arrangements Decorate Party Room

The Pelican party room was the setting for the delightful tea given by Mrs. Fred Hoagland and Mrs. LeRoy Carter on Wednesday afternoon.

An arrangement of fall leaves, and gold and bronze chrysanthemums was the centerpiece for the tea table. Fall leaves and pampas grass decorated the room.

Mrs. Harold Teale and Mrs. G. C. Lorenz presided over the tea table the first hour, and Mrs. George Elliott and Mrs. Dean Osborn poured from five until six. Mrs. Hoagland and Mrs. Carter received, and Mrs. John Ashley, Mrs. Stanley Miller, Mrs. Clarence Humble, Mrs. Vern Owens, Mrs. K. G. Klahn, Mrs. E. E. Hooker, Miss Joyce Lee Hoagland, and Miss Patty Teale assisted about the room.

TRAIL BLAZER CADETS and their guests danced last Saturday night at the Willard hotel, marking the first ball given the organization since it was formed last year. President Sylvia Hillis, left, pauses over a cup of punch with other Trail Blazer Cadets, Elmira Raymond, Marilyn Miller and Beverly Eells. —Guderian.