

Yreka Ceremony Read in October

At a four o'clock ceremony at the Methodist church of Yreka, Calif., Miss Nell Lindbergh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lindbergh of Klamath Falls, became the bride of Harold E. Briscoe on Saturday, October 22. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Briscoe of Greeley, Colorado.

The young couple stood before an altar banked with baskets of yellow chrysanthemums and palms and lighted with yellow tapers. The Rev. Hartzell E. Buckner, pastor of the church, read the double-ring service in the presence of more than fifty relatives and friends of the pair.

The bride walked down the aisle in traditional white satin, the gown fashioned with a sweetheart neckline, long sleeves, a full skirt and long train. Her fingertip length veil of illusion net trimmed in lace fell from a heart shaped tiara of stiff satin edged with myrtle sprigs, for good luck. She carried an arm bouquet of deep red roses.

The bride's only sister, Mrs. Vergil Nelson (Iris Lindbergh), was matron of honor. She wore a floor-length frock of pink brocaded satin with full gathered skirt, short puff sleeves and a high round neckline above an inset of net on the bodice. She carried a heart shaped bouquet of ruffled tulle, deep rose carnations and stephanotis and wore a heart shaped tiara of matching carnations in her hair.

Bridesmaid was Mrs. Sheibert Rhodus (Alice Eastman) of Crescent City, and formerly of Klamath Falls, who wore a gown of pale yellow brocaded satin fashioned along the same lines as that of the matron of honor. Her heart shaped bouquet was of tulle, lavender carnations and stephanotis and the same flowers were carried out in her hair.

Vergil Nelson of Yreka was best man. Ushers were Paul Layman, Pete Hedberg and Henry Meyer, all of Klamath Falls.

Harold Vickers, the organist, played Logengrin's wedding march and Mendelssohn's recessional and accompanied Charles O'Donnell, who sang "The Sweetest Story Ever Told" and "O, Promise Me" just before and after the wedding ceremony. "The Lord's Prayer" was played by the organist during the marriage rites.

A reception at the church followed the wedding with the bride party and the mother of the bride receiving. For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Lindbergh chose a floor-length gown of pearl grey. A corsage of tallisman roses was pinned at her shoulder.

A beautifully decorated three-tier cake, centering the long table on which were placed long white candles in silver candelabra, was cut by the bride. The cake was served by Mrs. Eugene Werner of Klamath Falls. Mrs. Pete Hedberg of Klamath Falls presided at the coffee urn and Mrs. Henry Meyer, was in charge of the guest book.

CUTTING THE FIRST PIECE OF WEDDING CAKE are Mr. and Mrs. Harold E. Briscoe after their wedding in Yreka, on October 22. Mrs. Briscoe is the former Nell Lindbergh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lindbergh of this city.

IN ORDER TO BRING GIRLS OF THE WORLD closer together, Girl Scouts from all over the city and outlying communities participated in the Penny Drill at the Scout tea at the home of Mrs. Walter Beane, 1105 Pacific Terrace on November 4. The money will be donated to the Juliette Low Friendship fund. Scouts around the streamer decorated penny container are, left to right, Patricia Isensee, Carolyn Boyd, Virginia Walkley and Jeanie Hill. —Guderian.

By Louise Reinhart

Klamath Falls, Nov. 12 — With Thanksgiving less than two weeks off, Ladies, look to your needs for the festive board. Is your carving set in good condition? Do you need a handsome new one with stainless steel blade and solid silver handles, for $13.50, tax and Green stamps included? Could you use a silver double vegetable dish? Ours are heavily plated with solid sterling silver over a base of nickel silver, with a lifetime guarantee, ranging in price from a modest $12.00 to $50.00, tax included. Or maybe you have longed for a handsome large turkey platter, with the well and tree to catch the gravy, mounted on feet to protect the table. These start at $12.00, too, for a quality you may depend upon to last for generations.

Maybe you are short on dishes. We are ready to help you over this little worry, too, with a full stock of dinnerware from inexpensive pottery at $1.99 a place setting, to the world's finest china ranging from $9.90 to $26.00 a place setting. These patterns are all open stock, and may be purchased on the layaway plan, with a budget account, or you may open a charge account. Our glassware patterns are many and varied, with lovely Belgium sets from Sweden and Highland, as well as domestic. We are glad to help you harmonize your table appointments, to avoid a confused or haphazard appearance.

In other words, our stocks are ready for your selection, and we welcome you at any time to come in and look. We give S. & H. Green Stamps with all merchandise and with our expert watch and jewelry repairs.
