out of my wits by bursting into the newsroom shortly after midnight last night.

(From Myers to Underhill: I happened to drop in Molatore's last evening for what I thought would be only the few minutes necessary to quaff a nerve-soothing nightcap but my stay was considerably prolonged by Miller's act. If whoever gave you your information about Miller mentioned only his piano playing, they did the feller a great injustice; he is pretty fair on the keys, but it's his song-styling in husky but soft voice that makes him good listening.)

The news that Baldy brought was not from Garcia, but was concerning a fellow countryman of the former mislaid dispatcher.

The news was to the effect that Carmen Calvero—I hope the spelling is correct—and his orchestra will appear at the armory on Thursday night, December 15.

This is what you might call rather advanced publicity, but there it is.

I might remark that it is good news, since Carmen—I refuse to mispell that name a second time—is, and has been, one of the top porters of what is good in South American music for quite some time.

He is no stranger to lovers of the Latin rhythms, nor to admirers of tinkling on the keyboard.

So make a special date now for December 15 and you will never regret pretty fine things in the way of music.

More good music is scheduled for hearing tonight at 8 o'clock over LW when the public schools music department sponsors the second in its series of fall programs.

Tonight's program will consist of soloists and ensembles from Klamath Union high school.

Current topics of the day will be discussed on "Town Meeting of the Air" at 8:30 over LW, following the KU broadcast.

Chandu the Magician follows "Town Meeting" at 9:30.

A beautiful woman screaming outside his window, and a deadly loathsome spider, are the ingredients that lead the "Count of Monte Cristo" into the affair of the "Black Widow." JI at 8 p.m.

Guess I should read the radio programs more often. I see by last night's paper that Carmen's name is spelled "Cavallaro."

Anyhow for a preview of what to expect on December 15 at the armory listen to JI tonight at 10:30.

Duo Takes Fast Ride to Jail
 PORTLAND, Nov. 15 (AP)—Going no where in particular—too fast—two men in jail here last night.

Detective Harry Golts said the car in which Donald Yost and Robert Lenahan were riding contained guns, rolls of coins and a sledge hammer and other tools. He said the two Portlanders later admitted a string of burglaries. They were held under $3000 bail.

Milwaukie Votes On Bond Issue
 MILWAUKIE, Nov. 15 (AP)—Voters here were balloting today on a bond issue measure for a second time within a year. The funds are needed for a sewage disposal plant and system.

The proposal would change the city charter to permit a $200,000 bond issue to be retired from a general tax on property.

A bond issue rejected to a water users' tax was picked by a 12-vote majority a year ago.

Sheriff Schrunk Shifts Personnel
 PORTLAND, Nov. 15 (AP)—Multnomah county's new sheriff, Terry Schrunk, sent lieutenants and sergeants from their office desks to field posts today. He said it should result in more efficient patrol operations.

It was the first shift in personnel operations since he took office from recalled Sheriff Mike Elliott.

Static

Well, it looks like more and more good music is coming into Klamath Falls.

Harry Molatore reports that Chuck Miller, king of the black and white keys, is slated for a six weeks engagement at the Molatore eatery.

Since I have been in K. Falls, about 10 or 11 weeks, I have heard many glowing reports about Miller's ability on the eighty-eight.

I had intended to drop into the local bistro last night for a few minutes to see if all that has been said is true. Unfortunately, business took me other places, so I will have to make that date for tonight.

I suggest that you do likewise, if you are an admirer of good piano playing.
