Patriotic Theme At Delta Kappa Gamma

At the November meeting of Delta Kappa Gamma, Mrs. Rosella Thompson, guest speaker, gave a most interesting resume of her recent tour of European nations. Mrs. Thompson traveled with a student group observing UNESCO and its specialized agents in action.

One of the most pronounced obstacles that the United Nations is attempting to overcome, according to Mrs. Thompson, is that of ignorance and superstition. There is also a serious need for the training of teachers.

Following the guest speaker the regular business meeting was called to order by Lillian Hynd, president.

Gifts were collected to be sent overseas under the "World Friendship for Children" plan.

Year books, including monthly programs, were distributed by the chairman, Edna Bloom.

Saturday's meeting, a dessert luncheon, was at the home of Mrs. A. C. Olson, on Hope street. She was assisted by Dorothy Baile and Dea Jean Wright. The patriotic motif, in observance of Armistice Day, provided colorful decorations.

The December 3 meeting will be at the home of Mrs. R. H. Dunbar, 420 Jefferson.
