Child Has Circus In Backyard

DOWNEY, Calif. (AP) — Gail Garland came home from school on her seventh birthday and found a circus, clowns and everything, in her own backyard.

Gail's daddy, Jack Garland, had worked nights for three months to plan the surprise. Inside the big-top, made of sheets and mattress covers, Gail gazed starry-eyed at life-size cardboard cutouts of lions, trained seals, ringmaster and bare-back riders on white horses. There were even concessions. All her neighborhood playmates were there.

Daddy and Mommy was there, too. But Gail didn't know them at first. They were dolled up as clowns. As a final touch of realism Garland played recordings made at a genuine circus.

Guests of Harry Kooyman last week were his niece and his sister from Tacoma. They also visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Sempkins.
