Margaret Just Couldn't Wait

LONDON, Nov. 18 (AP)—Princess Margaret just couldn't wait to hear a sither player who sprang to fame through a British movie. The musician—Anton Karas, 40, from Vienna—was due to open at 9:30 Wednesday night at the Empress night club. The princess sent word she'd like to be on hand a little early.

She and Sharron Douglas, daughter of U. S. Ambassador Lewis W. Douglas, showed up at six o'clock in a party of 25. The princess asked Karas to play his "Harry Lime Theme" from the picture, "The Third Man."

He did—six times. The first patent for the coaxial cable, designed for television relay, was filed on May 23, 1929. It was not until October 5, 1936, that the first circuit, from New York to Philadelphia, was opened for tests.

Turkey Men See Dogs Herd Birds

McMINNVILLE, Nov. 18 (AP)—Dogs that herd turkeys shared spectator interest here Wednesday along with the dressed and live birds of the annual Pacific Coast turkey exhibit.

The herding competition brought nine entries with Brownie, an 8-year-old "mostly collie" owned by Greerfoot brothers, Wildwood Farms, Yamhill, declared the champion.

In the event, the dogs were at one end of a narrow 200-foot-long enclosure when five turkeys were released at the opposite end. The dogs raced to the turkeys, herded them back to a pen and then returned the turkeys to their original station.

Speed and the manner of handling the animals were judging points. Other winning dogs were Laddie, owned by Russell Tautfest, Aurora, second; Lassie, owned by Henry Ahrens, Turner, third.

Show Judge M. M. Reiman picked a 43-pound tom entered by Loren Johnson, Scappoose, the grand champion in the dressed bird division as judging got underway at the opening yesterday.
