

Herald and News

Christmas Seals

PUBLICITY DETAILS are worked out by the Rev. Godfrey Matthews, who is handling radio publicity, and Mrs. Charles Houston, who has the huge job of chairman of publicity.

"BUY CHRISTMAS SEALS," says Mrs. John Ashley, in charge of bangle sales of the schools for the tuberculosis seal sale.

SOCIETY

By SALLY KENT

1907-1949

DISCUSSING PLANS for the annual Tuberculosis Seal Sale which begins Monday are Dr. Buford Hargus, member of the health education committee of Klamath County Tuberculosis association, Mrs. W. A. Shannon, chairman of this year's sale, and Mrs. William Kittridge, president of the Klamath County Tuberculosis association.

DETAILS of personal solicitations and displays are worked out by L. Orth Sisemore, chairman of booth sales and displays, and Bill McKibbin, big gift chairman.

SOJOURNERS and Venture club members had the task of filling envelopes with seals. A few of the Sojourners who devoted an afternoon to this preliminary work were, left to right, Mrs. S. B. Hopkins, Mrs. F. E. McIntosh and Mrs. Harry Fee.

PAST PRESIDENT of the Klamath County Tuberculosis association, Vance Vaupel, buys a special bond from Mrs. Bernie Rawlins, who is on the solicitations committee.

GIRL SCOUTS, Brownies and Camp Fire Girls did a great deal of work preparing TB seal letters and enclosures for mailing. Scouts working here are Genevieve Tanner, Peggy Wicks, Sharon Guthrie, Sharon Loomis and Meredith Meador.

A SPECIAL BOND is purchased by Mr. Loren Palmerton, right. Mr. W. A. Shannon, left, will make many contacts before the tuberculosis seal drive ends on December 25.

—All pictures by Guderman.