23 Years Ago

Monday, November 22, 1926—"It was a better game than the score would indicate," was the comment of C. O. Dunn of the Dunn and Baker Construction company who returned last night from Corvallis where he and Mrs. Dunn attended the annual classic football struggle between Oregon and O.A.C. The score was 16 to 0 in favor of O.A.C.

Tuesday, November 23, 1926—Miss Hillis McCall, graduate of the class of '26 of Klamath county high school, who is attending the Normal College of Southern Oregon at Ashland, arrived in the city this afternoon to spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John A. McCall.

Wednesday, November 24, 1926—Probably the most brilliant event on a dance hall floor in Klamath's history will take place Thursday night at Altamont when the Copco Electrical workers will stage their annual dance. It is to be brilliant, not only from the social side, but also from an electrical point of view, for it will be the dance with a thousand lights.

Thursday, November 25, 1926—Fremont road, Fremont bridge. If those who are directly served have their way, these will be the names of the Rock Creek road and the Rock Creek bridge—now under construction. "There's a Rock Creek in almost every county in the state," ejaculated one farmer of the district. "And Rock Creek road and Rock Creek bridge sounds too tame."

Friday, November 26, 1926—Two masked bandits forced their way through the closed portals of the Owl Social Club, 1112 Main street, at 4 o'clock this morning, and robbed a group of card players of approximately $400. Dashing from the scene of the hold-up with a police car hot on their trail, the desperadoes made good their escape in a green sedan.

Saturday, November 27, 1927—Wilson S. Wiley, local attorney, past exalted ruler of the local lodge of Elks, has been invited to deliver the Memorial address at the Salem lodge of Elks, December 5.
