KFJJ airs the lone football contest to be heard in this area tomorrow.

The admirals and generals will go to war again, in the traditional Navy-Army fray at Philadelphia.

The gold braid and brass hats really take this contest seriously.

Take General MacArthur for instance. He wrote to the West Point boys all the way from Japan to remind them that "Victory is the only thing worth fighting for."

The broadcast time is 10:15 to completion.

At 6 p.m. Santo Ortega, who portrays the role of Peter Salem in the "The Affairs of Peter Salem," will be guest sleuth on "Quick as a Flash."

An hour later George Farquhar's boisterous period comedy, "The Beaux Strategem," will be specially air-adapted for "Comedy Playhouse."

If anyone should ask, my nomination for presentation of an Oscar to the character role of the year would go to the fellow who knocked over Klamath Billiards for five grand the other day.

I kind of doubt that he would show up for the presentation, however.

Stork Wins Race With Taxicab

TULSA, Okla., Nov. 25 (AP)—The stork—that relentless bird—won another race with a taxicab here.

Driver A. E. Vangorden, the father of four, glanced back on the way to the hospital at his new 7-pound, 8-ounce fare. His authoritative instructions to the new father—Raymond R. Eddy: "Clean out its mouth and spank it, buddy."

Russ Forming 'Peoples Army' In Germany

BERLIN, Nov. 25 (AP)—A "people's army" of 30 German divisions headed by Soviet Marshal Ivan Konev will be created in communist East Germany by next April, Western sources said yesterday.

Konev was commander of the Russian armies that overran Vienna in 1945.

Appointment of the marshal to the East German command was reported in Western quarters as being in line with a new Kremlin policy to install top-ranking men in each of the satellite areas.

Moscow announced appointment of Marshal Konstantin Rokossovsky as chief of the Polish armies two weeks ago. The German press in Berlin said recently that Marshal Ivan Malinovsky would be placed in charge of the Rumanian troops soon.
