

MISS MERLON ALBRECHT, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Albrecht, has been entertained frequently since the announcement of her engagement to Tom Howard of San Francisco.

Top: MRS. LESLIE ROGERS was hostess on November 17 for a shower in Merlon's honor to which thirty-seven guests were invited. Left to right, Miss Dorothea Ellingson, Mrs. James Rogers, Mrs. Fred Ehlers, Mrs. Leslie Rogers, Mrs. Emil Albrecht and Miss Albrecht are served.

Lower picture: LUNCHEON AND BRIDGE entertained guests of Mrs. Charles L. and Miss Helen Moore who were hostesses for a shower last Tuesday afternoon. Here, left to right, Miss Albrecht, Miss Moore, Mrs. Bob Erlanson and Mrs. Albrecht are engrossed in the bridge game.

Sallies... by SALLY

Dr. and Mrs. Warren Coe Hunt were hosts at their traditional family dinner on Thanksgiving Day, and their guests were Mr. and Mrs. James Hunt and young son, James Coe, Tulelake; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hunt and three daughters, Carolyn Ann, Virginia and Nancy, and Dr. and Mrs. Calvin Lawson Hunt and young son, Robert Corwin. Mr. and Mrs. Don Hunt and their five young ones, Judy, Jeannie, Don Jr., Karen and Susan Ingrid, are spending Thanksgiving holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jerome at Menlo Park, Calif. They are expected home Sunday night. Mrs. Hunt and Mrs. Jerome are sisters.

At the Ed Geary home on Lakeshore drive quite a crowd gathered Thursday to eat the turkey, including Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Henderson, Jean and Ann Henderson; Dick Smith, Gail and Russell Smith of Tulelake; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Geary and daughter Alice. Mrs. Geary just returned from her trip to the east last Sunday.

Frances Stearns arrived home early Thanksgiving morning from Katharine Branson school at Ros, Calif., to spend the holidays with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Stearns. Ralph Jr., arrived Wednesday night from Oregon State college, driving home with Rod Murray, the Percy Murrays' son.

Guests at the Wilbur A. Jones home recently were Mrs. Lawrence W. Mehaffey, Antioch, California, and Ensign Don C. Mehaffey, SC, USN, daughter and grandson of Mrs. Jones. The guests arrived Wednesday afternoon and left Friday afternoon.

Ensign Mehaffey will report for duty as disbursing officer on the USS Boxer at San Diego, December 1. He returned last week from Bayonne, New Jersey, where he has been attending the navy supply corps school for the past eleven months.

Mr. and Mrs. John Houston and young Jon, and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lamb, left Wednesday for San Francisco to spend Thanksgiving week-end. They will have dinner with Mrs. Houston's brother, Henry Haas of San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gerber and their daughters, Margaret, Marilyn and Sylvia, Mrs. George H. Merryman Sr., and Dr. and Mrs. John Merryman and daughters Susan and Barbara, enjoyed Thanksgiving dinner at the Gerber home on High street.

Christopher Reed Cornell is the new addition to the George Cornell family of Portland, formerly of Klamath Falls. The son arrived on November 17, weighing 8 pounds. Mrs. Cornell is the former Allie Lee Dean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Dean. Mr. and Mrs. Dean were in Portland for the event, and Mrs. Dean intends to stay a month more. The 17th of the month is a charmed day for the family, it seems. Allie Lee was born on the 17th of October, her aunt on March 17th, Mr. Dean on February 17, and paternal grandparents of the baby, the G. W. Cornells, formerly of this city, now of Alturas, were married on November 17.

The Guy Merrills had a double celebration for Thanksgiving dinner as it was the 30th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Merrill. Daughter Ruth was home from Southern Oregon college and her friend Lois Burris of Salem, was a guest at the Merrill home. Also around the table were Carol and David Michels, and Jean and Jimmy Merrill.

Thanksgiving dinner at the J. H. Carter home on South Sixth street included Jim Carter who is home from the University of Oregon, Herb Barry, E. B. Hall, Mrs. Charlotte Martin, and Dr. and Mrs. Carter.

Mrs. Wesley Guderian's family arrived from Wonder, Ore., to spend the holidays with the Guderians. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Chapman, her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ford Conrad, and their daughter Glennett were all present for the festivities.

Dr. and Mrs. A. O. Roenicke entertained Thursday with Thanksgiving dinner for Dr. and Mrs. Dean Osborn, and Barbara Osborn, and Mrs. N. J. Osborn.

Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Postel Jr. of San Francisco are here spending the week-end with Mrs. Postel's mother, Mrs. Arthur C. Moran. Mrs. Postel is the former Billie Lee McAdams, and was married recently in San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Curt Ruzic and daughter Anne of Eureka are spending the holidays with the Bob Ellingsons. Mr. Ruzic is Mrs. Ellingson's brother. Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Ellingson and Dorothea joined the group for Thanksgiving dinner.

Mrs. A. A. Ward and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Ward were hosts at Thanksgiving dinner. Rosemary Ward, daughter of the Clarence Wards, was home from Monmouth for the week-end, and others present were Mr. and Mrs. Willard Ward and two children, David and Jimmy.

A family reunion was combined with Thanksgiving dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Caldwell on the Keno road. Present were Caldwell's four children, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wilson, home from Corvallis, where Bill is a senior at Oregon State college; Mrs. Perry Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dalton and daughter Shirley, home from University of Oregon, and Mr. Harlan Jenkins.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Reinhart and daughters Gail and Sue, enjoyed Thanksgiving Day dinner with Mrs. Reinhart's mother and sister, Mrs. E. E. McNatt and Mrs. Charlotte Curtis, both of San Francisco. Mrs. McNatt arrived last week, with Mrs. Curtis joining her family here Tuesday.

Dr. and Mrs. Marvin Nerseith are in San Francisco this week, and were joined Thanksgiving Day morning by their two children, Marvin and Gail.

Mrs. John Tillotson with her three children, Susan, Mitchell, and Jeffery arrived recently from Venezuela to spend a few months with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Houston of this city. The Tillotsons have lived in Venezuela for the past three years as Mr. Tillotson is affiliated with a San Francisco import-export firm. He is in Mexico City at present, but will be in Klamath Falls for the Christmas holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Thompson and children, Sue and Bobbie, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin L. Weaver and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Serruys, shared Thanksgiving Day at the Thompson home on Pacific terrace.

Dr. and Mrs. James Hilton had their children home for the holidays along with several guests. At Thanksgiving dinner places were marked for Emily Nichols of Los Angeles and Florence Hansen of Oakland. Jean Hilton's guests from the University of Oregon, Jean and Bob, who arrived Wednesday, and Dick Hilton. Dinner was at five o'clock. The Eugene students are remaining until Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Burge Mason Jr., Clarissa and John, and the Burge Masons Sr., had dinner together at the home of the former. Mr. and Mrs. Mason Sr., returned this week from a ten-day stay in San Francisco.

Turkey day feast at the Glenn Kent home on Pacific terrace included the Percy Murrays and Marcella, who arrived Wednesday from Pamona college in Claremont, Calif.; Rodney Murray, home from Oregon State college and Rosemary Murray; Miss Elsie Kent, Glenn Kent's sister visiting from Tacoma, Mrs. Helen Mueller, Earl Kent, the Bob Kents, and the Glenn Kents.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph O'Neill have their daughters home for the holidays. Marilyn arrived from Mills college Wednesday afternoon, driving north with Joan Moore, Mary Lou Case and Milton Thompson, all students. Mr. and Mrs. Fredric Foulon of the University of Oregon, drove from Eugene with Jimmy Ivory. Also guests at the O'Neills were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Franey.

Mr. and Mrs. Lane Warren, daughter Nancy, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Howard and children, Fritale and Boo, and Mr. and Mrs. Neal Stewart and children, Angus and Sara, shared Thanksgiving dinner at the Stewart home.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Prock were hosts to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Crawford and children of Tulelake, Mrs. Nell Stuart of Medford, A. F. Crawford and Jack and Eleanor Prock, for the big day.

Mrs. Don Emmitt Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Thomas flew to New York Wednesday to spend Thanksgiving with her husband, who just arrived from Afghanistan. They will drive a new car back in a few weeks.

MISS HELEN MOORE told luncheon guests of her plans to marry Major George Kinney last Tuesday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Moore. The wedding will be an event of December 29.

SOCIETY

By SALLY KENT

Friends Attend Reception Before Reno Wedding

Friends of Mrs. Dannie Coate of this city and George Williams of Malin received announcements recently of their marriage, an event of November 14.

Before the couple motored to Reno for the ceremony, nearly 100 friends gathered at the Peace Memorial Presbyterian church for a reception.

The bride wore a brown suit with a corsage of bronze and gold chrysanthemums.

After a few days wedding trip, the couple is now at home, 312 S. Rogers street.

Mrs. Williams, who is the daughter of Mrs. W. B. Black of Dorris, has been feted with several showers before and after the wedding.

Helen Moore To Wed George Kinney

Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Moore announce the forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Helen, and Major George Kinney, son of Mrs. Nell Kinney of this city, and Mr. Olive Kinney of Sprague River.

The engagement news was told to the guests of Mrs. Moore and Miss Moore at the bridal shower given by them for Miss Merlon Albrecht last Tuesday afternoon at the Moore home.

The betrothal note bearing small sweetheart wings of the air force, and the names of the couple with the wedding date, December 29, was passed among her friends.

Miss Moore is a graduate of the University of Oregon where she was affiliated with Kappa Kappa Gamma social sorority.

Major Kinney is attending the Air Command and Staff school at Maxwell air force base, Alabama. Before entering the air force he attended Klamath Falls schools and graduated from Klamath Union high school.

St. Paul's Episcopal church has been chosen by the bride for the scene of the wedding. Her attendants will be her sister, Mrs. A. E. Macartney and Mrs. Donald Ellingson.

Bride To Be Entertained

Miss Helen Moore and Mrs. Charles Moore entertained Tuesday afternoon at the Moore home, 304 North Carroll street, in honor of Miss Merlon Albrecht, bride elect of Thomas Howard of San Francisco.

Luncheon was served by the hostesses after which the guests played bridge. High prize was won by Mrs. Roy Whitlatch, low by Mrs. Don Ellingson.

At the conclusion of the afternoon Miss Albrecht opened her gifts, additions to her set of pottery.

Invited guests were Mrs. Donald Ellingson, Mrs. Fred Ehlers, Mrs. Roy Whitlatch, Mrs. Robert Ellingson, Mrs. T. E. Walters, Mrs. John O'Neill, Mrs. Emil Albrecht, Mrs. Robert Kent, Mrs. A. E. Macartney, Miss Maxine Lahey, Miss Dorothea Ellingson, Mrs. Melvin Miller, Mrs. B. B. Blomquist, Mrs. Denis Babson, Mrs. Wesley Lorenz, and Mrs. Bob Erlanson.

Mrs. Landry Entertains
On Thursday, November 17, Mrs. Paul Landry served luncheon to friends of Miss Albrecht at the Landry home, 331 Pacific Terrace.

Guests of the afternoon were Mrs. Emil Albrecht, Mrs. John O'Neill, Mrs. T. E. Walters, Miss Dorothea Ellingson, and Miss Merlon Albrecht.

Beatrice Bellant Weds Gordon West In Recent Nuptials

The wedding of Miss Beatrice Bellant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Bellant Sr., and Gordon A. West, son of John West of Cottage Grove, was an event of November 12 in the Sacred Heart church.

The Saturday afternoon ceremony was read by the Rev. Father Casey before the flower decked altar.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white slipper satin gown and finger tip veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses.

Mrs. Ethel B. Sevik of Palo Alto was matron of honor for her sister. Her gown was of blue taffeta and she carried a bouquet of button chrysanthemums.

Aubrey Carrier of Cottage Grove was best man, and ushers were Guy E. Bellant Jr., brother of the bride and Rully Weston, the bride's cousin. Mrs. Bellant chose a deep blue dressmaker suit for her daughter's wedding and wore a corsage of pink roses.

A reception followed the ceremony in the banquet room of the Winema hotel. Assisting were Mrs. Wallace Weston, Mrs. Clarence Cooper, and Mrs. Terrance McAtee.

For traveling Mrs. West wore a teal blue dress with brown accessories. After a wedding trip to the coast, the couple will be at home at 5608 No. Greely street, in Portland.

Evening Rites

At an evening ceremony on November 5 Miss Patricia May Beckwith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Young of this city, became the bride of Pvt. Robert Clyde Messinger, son of Mrs. Alice Messinger, also of this city.

The First Presbyterian church was the setting for the wedding, and the rites were read by the Rev. David Barnett.

Carlos Beckwith, brother of the bride, gave her in marriage. She wore a navy blue suit with white accessories, and carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums.

Maid of honor was Marlene Morgan of Coos Bay, and best man was Pvt. Fred Miller of Fort Lewis, Wash.

Beverly Peery and Shirley Slowly were ushers.

A reception followed the ceremony in the parlors of the church.

After a wedding trip to Silver Lake the couple traveled to Olympia, Wash., where they will reside. Pvt. Messinger is stationed at Fort Lewis, Wash.

ADMIRING THEIR PRESENTS after their wedding of November 12, are Mr. and Mrs. Gordon West (lower picture). Mrs. West (upper picture) is the former Beatrice Bellant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Bellant of this city.

—Perbee-Kessler

MRS. GEORGE CLARK, our "Woman of the Week," keeps busy with Community Chest work, Republican Women's club, Library club, PTA, AAUW, Girl Scout work, and her family.

—Guderian.