From all indications the "Queen For A Day" program really started a snowball rolling when it announced its "Queen of America" contest. It has been reported that unclaimed civic and social leaders in communities throughout the country, plus many women whose activities are known, are listed among the tens of thousands of nominees for the honor.

In New York five blind war veterans have shown their gratitude to a woman who has been their hostess at many entertainment events, by submitting her name, Miss Tess Coleman, as a nominee.

Cover girls in the Walter Underhill Thornton pin-up club demonstrated support of one of their members by nominating a girl who has graced the covers of many nationally distributed magazines.

Mrs. America of 1949, ineligible herself because she is a former Queen for a Day, caused the nomination of her sister, Mrs. Robert Bromley of Denver, Colo.

Final choice of the "Queen of America" will be made in January. So there is still lots of time for some local group to make their nomination for the contest.

Incidentally, Thursday's airing of "Queen For a Day" heard over JI at 1:30 a. m., will feature the centennial celebration of the finding and naming of Death Valley, Cal. During the broadcast emcee Jack Bailey will crown the studio audience's choice of the "Death Valley Queen."

On tonight's session of the "Count of Monte Cristo" over JI at eight o'clock, a wooden dummy turns out to be the culprit when valuable jewels vanish from the wealthiest Paris homes. The Count solves the "Zagastro Affair" with the aid of his faithful companion Rene.

There's plenty of good listening and dancing music over LW late tonight. At 10:30 Dick Jurgens and his band come to you for the Treasury department. Then at 10:45 Eddie Oliver, prince of the piano, comes to you from California way. How that boy can tickle the ivories.

"Drop in for gas," was his announcement, "and see my smiling face through your windshield." The ex-sheriff said he had abandoned — "for no particular reason" — his original plan to start a night club.

AVC Right Wing Group Elected

CHICAGO, Nov. 29 (AP) — The American Veterans committee elected Michael Straight, 33, of New York as its chairman Sunday and adopted a program supported by a right wing group.

Straight, editor of The New Republic, had an overwhelming vote of 6810 to 1000 among the convention delegates.

The convention also created a new post of national executive director which officials said was expected to go to Louis C. Pakizer Jr., 30, of Tulsa, Okla. It will be the highest non-elective administrative position in the organization.

COOS BAY, Nov. 29 (AP) — First contracts for the Bonneville transmission line from here to Reedsport will be called for in March. The work, which includes several substations, is scheduled for completion next year.

Austria's principal rivers are the Danube, Inn, Enns, Drau, Ill and the Mur.

Two Colonels Die in Crash Of Bomber

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Nov. 28 (AP) — Two air force colonels — one a former star quarterback for the University of Southern California — died Sunday in the crash of a B-25 bomber.

A third flyer parachuted to safety after the plane's motors began conking out about 20 miles northeast of Birmingham.

Maxwell air force base officials at Montgomery, Ala., identified the dead as Col. Orville E. Mohler of Glendale, Calif., pilot, and Col. Robert B. Richards of Visalia, Calif., co-pilot.

Col. Mohler, 40, was a USC football great under the late Coach Howard Jones in 1930-31-32. He was named on the Grantland Rice All-America team of 1930 and was leading scorer of the Pacific Coast conference that year with 119 points.

The plane, based at Maxwell, was returning from South Bend, Ind. It crashed on a small hill surrounded by wooded areas.

Dictatorship By Military Said Formed

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29 (AP) — The Times Herald reported yesterday that the national defense department has plans for "a military dictatorship" in the event the capital ever is "knocked out" by an atomic attack.

The paper quoted "one of the nation's outstanding military leaders" as saying Sunday that the military is ready to "take over" if civil government is "blasted."

"In theory," the report continued, "the military would take over the government only until the emergency passed and civilian government could be re-established."

But it added that the military leader "acknowledged" that the military "might be loath to surrender control in the event of war because the military can run war efficiently and economically if they are not hampered by too nice a regard for civil laws."

The military leader emphasized, the Times Herald said, that the defense establishment "has no intentions of assuming dictatorship unless the civil government is so knocked out by a surprise attack that it could not be moved inland." Similar plans for military control also have been worked out on an area basis for the rest of the nation, the paper reported.

The Times Herald carried the story on the front page under an eight column banner headline which said: "D. C. to Have Martial Law."
