

CRATER LAKE FAMILIES ARE PREPARING for the Christmas season and although these pictures were taken just before a heavy fall of snow, the tunnels are up and school is under way. 1—Janet and Donna Lee Sneddon point out the North Pole and Santa's home, to Chet Caster. 2—Chet and Terry Caster returning from a Christmas greens hunt. 3—Orvil Caster, equipment operator in the national park, points out an interesting feature of Crater lake to Chet and Terry. 4—Ranger headquarters with snow tunnel. 5—Mrs. Lucille Sneddon instructs her young pupils. Around the table, Dee Turner with Chet and Terry. At the desks, Janet Sneddon, Darlene Palmer and Donna Lee Sneddon. 6—Terry and Chet coming out of school in headquarters. 7—Terry

Caster romps in the park. 8—Teacher and pupils join in a game. 9—Chief Ranger Hallock. 10—The chief ranger instructs Terry Caster in the proper way to hold an ax. 11—The Caster family on a hunt for greens. 12—Terry scrubs Chet's face in the snow. 13—The Casters look over a tree but decide they'll go on to greener pastures.