Hawaiian Motif Decor At Dinner

The international relations group of the Business and Professional Women's club of Klamath Falls entertained the foreign-born local residents at its formal banquet Monday, November 21, at the Willard hotel. Guests numbered 138.

The Hawaiian motif was carried out in the program and decorations. Tables were adorned with a strip of sand down the center, set with sea shells and coral. Antique lamps and flower covered "horns of plenty" were also spaced in the sand. The foreign-born guests were presented with orchid corsages.

The principal speaker was Dr. Robert Yuen, whose topic was "Communism in China Today."

Mrs. Fern Trull of Grants Pass spoke on the importance of Home Economics in connection with the club's activities on instruction about the American way of life to foreign teachers. Mrs. Grace Pickett, international relations chairman of California, gave an interesting talk on "International Peace."

Maureen Green of Ireland did folk dances, and Ella Sari of Italy played the accordion.

Inga Pex represented Holland, and Anna Farmer the Bulgarian countries.

Helen Rightmire spoke on "Home Life in Scotland," and Gay Platt spoke of England. Maria Crandall of Mexico presented songs and dances of her homeland.

Kay Altman introduced a number of war brides now living in the Klamath basin.

Ray Ribek and his orchestra played Hawaiian numbers.

The orchestra is composed of Barbara Paulson, Ernest Mathers, Don Weston, and Jessie Cline. Connie Cipriano also presented Hawaiian dancing.

Couple Wed In Home Ceremony

At a ceremony of last Sunday, Miss Marie Buxton of Henley became Mrs. Clarence Adams. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Austin Adams, also of Henley.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Noble Sr. was the setting for the wedding which was read by the Rev. Dick De Lapp.

After the wedding, guests attended a reception and shower.

Mrs. Lena Low, who observed her 66th birthday, was honored with a dinner party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Low, 1978 Del Moro, November 19. Mrs. Low is Lloyd Low's mother.

Present for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. John Siemens, Dr. and Mrs. Dick Sinclair, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Ray, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ballantyne, Mrs. Effie Redkey, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Low, and the honored guest, Mrs. Lena Low.

RONNIE AND RONELLA Collman are the children of Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Collman of the Old Fort road. Grandparents are Clara Collman and John Collman, and Mrs. Ella Stephenson. Ronnie is four and Ronella is three. —Evergreen

Go East via California

FOR NO ADDITIONAL RAIL FARE

Sometimes a bargain is so big people find it hard to believe. Like this:

On a roundtrip ticket to Chicago, New York and most other eastern cities, you can include sunny California and the great southwest for no more rail fare than you pay to go straight East and back. See San Francisco, Los Angeles, Hollywood, Phoenix, Tucson, El Paso. If your destination is New York, you can even add New Orleans to your trip!

Any ticket agent will gladly prove that what we say is true.

On your next trip East plan to go this thrilling way. Enjoy sunshine. See more, have more fun — for no more rail fare.
