Fort Klamath

Announcement is made this week of the marriage of Margaret Nelson of Fort Klamath, who became the bride of Hoy Johnson of Klamath Falls on November 21 at Reno, Nev. She is the niece of Mrs. Margaret Watson and has been making her home here with her aunt for some time past. Johnson is employed near Klamath Falls as draughting operator, and the young couple will make their home in Klamath Falls. The newlyweds spent Thanksgiving here with the bride's aunt, sister and brother, Mrs. Watson, Dorothy and Neil Nelson.

Mrs. Frank Denton and granddaughter Kathy Denton have returned from a visit with relatives at Arcata, Cal.

Mrs. Eva Tresner of Monroe, Wisconsin, is visiting here at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Tresner, who own and operate the Old Fort Tavern, sporting goods store and restaurant in Fort Klamath.

Mr. and Mrs. William Zumburn spent the week-end visiting at Altona at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bailey Dorris. They were joined there on Monday by Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Zumburn and son Billie, the party returning home here to the Zumburn ranch Monday evening.

William A. Page returned Wednesday to Klamath Falls by train from Portland, where he had been under medical care at St. Vincent's hospital for a few days, and was met in Klamath Falls and brought home to Fort Klamath by his wife. He is much improved as a result of his stay in Portland, it is reported.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Van Wormer and two small sons left Wednesday for Sacramento, where they spent the Thanksgiving vacation, returning here Sunday. He is employed in the Crater Lake national park service.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren L. Miller Jr. and their two little boys spent Thanksgiving in Portland with Mrs. Miller's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Patterson.

Thanksgiving Day was observed here with the usual gatherings of families and friends, with the traditional feast of turkey and all the trimmings of course highlighting the day. Ideal for those making trips to various outside points for the holidays was the balmy, sunshiny and spring-like weather prevailing. Coming here for the long Thanksgiving week-end from Oakridge were Mr. and Mrs. Dale Knox and their little nephew, Jackie Ruzeg, who were guests at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wimer for the holidays. Mr. and Mrs. R.O. Varnum had as their guests her brother-in-law, sister and children, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Bailey of Prineville, and also Mrs. Varnum's mother, Mrs. Edith Moon, who is much better following a recent spell of illness. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gray of Klamath Falls spent Thanksgiving here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Gray, Miss Alice Gray being also a guest for the day. Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kendall and family were Mrs. Edna Orth and her mother, Mrs. Viola Leever, and Michael Welland, enjoying turkey dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Roeder and their sons Donald and Clark were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wimer and son Don. Mr. and Mrs. Roeder and son Clark, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Wimer, later made a trip to Klamath Falls where they attended the theater.

Going to Bly to spend Thanksgiving Day were Mr. and Mrs. James Van Wormer and son Douglas, who were guests of her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. William Branham and sons.

Mrs. Lona Johnson and grandson, Clifford Hargrett, spent Thanksgiving Day at Union Creek with her daughter, son-in-law and granddaughter, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Leavengood and Phyllis Vigue.

Mr. and Mrs. Earle B. Thorpe Jr. and son Jackie of Crescent Lake spent the Thanksgiving holidays here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earle B. Thorpe, Sr.

Ed Hoyt, pioneer Wood River valley resident, is a patient at Klamath Valley hospital where he underwent surgery Friday morning.

Chiloquin

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Heath and daughter Belinda of Eugene were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Loyal Heath and sons a week ago. The brothers and their families drove to Medford on Sunday to visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Heath.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Maher and their four sons Russell, Rodney, Ronald and Raymond, have moved to Klamath Falls from their farm at the Klamath Agency junction. The Mahers are living at 1825 Homestead.

Traveling to Eugene last week-end for the homecoming festivities were Glen Kircher, Leroy Glenger, Norma Lee Glenger and Elmore Nicholson of Fort Klamath. Also in Eugene for the Oregon University-Oregon State College game were Cyril Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Hoppe, Frank DiUlio, William Ferguson.

The annual bazaar held by the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church will be held next Monday in the corner building next to Norval's store. There will be a food sale in connection with the bazaar.

The congregation enjoyed a potluck dinner following the church service last Sunday at the Methodist church.

Mr. Gerry Wolf and children spent last week-end visiting with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Charles Warren in Redding, Calif.

Here recently one man who worked all evening to win a pinocchio award found his prize accredited to another in this column and, even worse, a woman who went through a siege of mumps found that her sister-in-law got the credit. It was Clyde Leake who took first in the recent Eastern Star card party in the pinocchio section and Mrs. Layton Hoback, rather than Mrs. Lee Hoback, who suffered with the mumps.

The students at Chiloquin high school have elected their teen-age representatives. The new youth council is composed of the following: Senior Bob Wampler, Junior Bill Green, sophomore Barbara Weddie, freshman Glen Parker, eighth grader James Weddie and seventh grader, Rusty Rousseau.

Johnny Parker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Parker, had a difficult time with turkey on Thanksgiving for he had undergone a tonsillectomy earlier in the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Steber and their three sons were hosts on Thanksgiving to Mr. and Mrs. Frank DiUlio, their three children, Mrs. James Bowman, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hale and daughter Dawn.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hale spent the week-end before the holiday in Eagle Point with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hale, and left their young son, Phillip, there to visit with his grandparents. The Glen Hales drove to Chiloquin on Friday to bring Phillip and spend the remainder of the week-end here.

Little Mary Louise Kellison had her arm pulled out of joint on Wednesday through a freak accident. Her father was holding her hand when Mary decided not to go any farther and sat down suddenly. The sudden pull and her weight caused her arm to come out of joint but by Mrs. Jim Collins and daughter, Helen, were Klamath Falls visitors Friday.

It was soon put back and she was well enough to go with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lou Kellison, and her brother Bobby, to Beatty where they spent Wednesday evening with Mr. and Mrs. "Curly" Harris, Mrs. Kellison's parents. On Thursday both families drove into Klamath Falls for Thanksgiving dinner at the home of Mrs. Kellison's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene "Doc" Schuck.

Al Prescott is the latest victim of the mumps epidemic. And he chose Thanksgiving day to get them.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Hoback of Pine Ridge were hosts on Thanksgiving for a large family party. Present were Hoback's aunt (Lloyd, Lee and Steve Peters' mother) Mrs. Edward Hamilton and her husband of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Layton Hoback and son Kenny, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Peters and Kathy, Sgt. and Mrs. Lee Peters and Michael, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Peters of Klamath Falls and their tiny son, Lee Peters arrived for the holiday from an army base with a leave until December 10, at which time he must report for duty in Austin, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Glenger were hosts on Thanksgiving evening for a large group of relatives. Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wolff, Mrs. Enora Flury, Mr. and Mrs. Harley Olsen of Klamath Falls, Bill, Jim and Mary Grace Green, Harley Ray and Mary Margaret Olsen, Mr. and Mrs. Gerry Wolf and their children, the Glenger's younger daughter Bonnie, who was home from the University of Oregon, Norma Lee and Leroy Glenger Jr. Several other persons dropped in later in the evening.

Rich in food value is a sandwich made of baked beans mixed with chopped peanuts. For extra texture and flavor value add a little prepared mustard and some finely chopped celery.

Both children and adults need adequate quantities of milk daily if they are to get calcium for the building and maintenance of teeth and bones. Cheddar cheese is also a good source of calcium.

Sprague River

The turkey dinner sponsored by the Sprague River PTA was a success with approximately one hundred guests being served. After the dinner two moving pictures were shown by Stan B. Sevurk and the community dance orchestra entertained with some very fine selections.

Mr. and Mrs. Rollo Moore are the proud owners of a new car.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sterrett and children Jack and Judy of Oakridge, Ore., visited friends in Sprague River on Sunday. There were dinner guests of the Anderson family.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Varnum spent the week-end visiting friends in Prineville, Ore.

Many Sprague River residents attended the school carnival in Bonanza, and a good number of them were very lucky at the country store coming home with nice fat turkeys and sacks of potatoes as well as various canned goods.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Sharp, Mr. and Mrs. Meraeie, and Mr. and Mrs. Jyanks, all teachers in the Bonanza school, attended the turkey dinner in Sprague River on Sunday.

Melda Chandler, who has been attending college in Newberg, Ore., spent the Thanksgiving holidays with her parents and family the Charles Borroughs. She returned to school on Monday.

The children of the school were treated to a very nice turkey dinner on Wednesday. Several women of the community helped with the cooking and serving. The turkeys were cooked by the Weyerhaeuser camp cooks. Those helping with the work were Mr. and Mrs. Monte Currey, Mrs. Homer Deputy, Mrs. K. O. Thompson, Mrs. Cline Roper, Mrs. Byron Welch and Mrs. Stan Sevurk.

The square dance sponsored by the PTA was greatly enjoyed by all that attended. Mr. and Mrs. Vick Douglas and son of Klamath Falls were on hand to instruct the group. The community extends its sincere sympathy to the F. M. Anderson family in loss of their father and grandfather, Mr. Lexington Anderson, who passed away in Sprague River on November 19.
