Doctor Thinks Shoes May Be One Cause for Cancer

By HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE

NEW YORK, Dec. 5 (AP) — The kind of shoes people wear may be one cause of the increase in cancer, says Dr. S. J. Wikler, Baltimore chiropodist.

He says the widespread increase in cancer is not more than 80 years old, and that it coincides with the start of manufacture of modern shoes.

Shoes, he says, render toes puny and helpless. This in turn atrophies a set of muscles connected with toe action down to one-third or less their normal size. Modern heels are elevated, throwing the weight forward, and this, he says, is unnatural.

Foot Disorders
Dr. Wikler says 80 per cent of Americans have foot disorders. Feet twist outward. Thigh bones do likewise. So the pelvis dips downward a bit, chests tend to flatten and lungs, hearts and stomach and abdominal organs are pulled down a little.

In fact, he says, there is hardly a square inch of your body that remains unaffected from faulty feet. The result is added stresses and these in turn may cause irritation of tissues. Irritation, long continued, is one of the accepted causes of cancer.

Dr. Wikler gives cancer death rates to show that they are higher wherever people wear shoes most.

Barfoot Aid
"The cancer death rate," he says, "in Southern states like North and South Carolina, is 57 per 100,000 while in Massachusetts it is 200."

GRAINS MAKE FEW CHANGES

CHICAGO, Dec. 5 (AP) — Grains did not get very far in either direction on the board of trade today. They had to absorb a little profit taking, which was not very heavy considering the extent of the advance over the past several weeks.

Grains did not appear to be attracting much new buying. Commission houses were cautious buyers.

Wheat closed unchanged to 1/4 higher, December $2.22 1/4-1/4; corn was 1/4 lower to 1/4 higher, December $1.30 1/4-1/4; oats were 1/4 lower to 1/4 higher, December 77 1/4; rye was 1/4 to 3/4 cents higher, December $1.44 1/4; soybeans were 1/4 to 1 cent higher, December $2.35 1/4-1/4, and hard was 3 to 8 cents a hundred pounds higher, December $10.42.

Grand Jury Scheduled December 27

The Klamath county grand jury, selected this morning, has been called for active session December 27 at 9:30 a. m.

Members of the new jury are C. C. Merrill, L. W. Soukup, Paul Hilton, Walter N. Ritter, Otto Ellis, Glen L. Evans and Clarence Goeber. Merrill is foreman.

Today marked the opening of the December term of circuit court and the first case set for trial is that of Richard Samuel Shuck, indicted for negligent homicide, December 12.

A civil trial scheduled today was continued for an unspecified time. The case is that of C. J. Fraley vs. Klamath Freight line and involves damages to a caterpillar which broke its chains and fell off a truck on the Greensprings highway in June, 1948.

Eleven more names were ordered drawn to fill out the regular jury panel, replacing persons excused from the panel earlier drawn.

Tulelake Revival Under Way

TULELAKE — Revival meetings are being held each evening this week in the Full Gospel church by Rev. Dave Slankard, Vallejo. The services beginning at 7:45 will continue through Saturday.

License Renewals Being Accepted

License renewals for 1950 for apartment houses, hotels, restaurants and second hand dealers are now being accepted in the police judge's office at the city hall.

Tulelake Scouts To Sell Trees

TULELAKE — Boy Scouts are working hard in the forest about Long-Bell Lumber camp, No. 1 to cut down 350 perfect Christmas trees which will be offered for sale beginning December 13.

They are being accompanied by Scout Leader O. E. Pedersen and a member of the forest service.

The trees may be found on Main street in the vicinity of Earl's Market and fair prices will be charged, the Scouts say.

Drunk Driving Plea Draws $100 Fine

Harry H. Hanson, 33, route 1, was fined $100 and given a 30-day suspended jail sentence this morning when he pleaded guilty in municipal court to drunk driving.

Hanson was arrested late Saturday night on S. 6th, and said he had been drinking beer earlier in the evening. He was in jail over the week-end.

A minor accident in the 2400 block of S. 6th brought arrest to James A. Crutchfield, 21, 1919 Tunnel. He posted $50 bail on a charge of reckless driving. Crutchfield's car was involved in an accident with a parked car.
